

PERSONAL AND NEWS NOTES.

At Jackson Next Monday. Owing to the rain we could not see all of our friends at Jackson last Monday who wished to renew their subscriptions. We expect to be there again next Monday, it being the first Monday in November and the second week of Super...

Netwith standing we keep a notice at the head of editorial page requesting all correspondents to furnish us with their real names, many continue to send articles without any information as to the real writer or sender, all of which are consigned to the waste basket. Marriage of Whiteman-Jenkins. Their many friends and relatives in this county will be interested to know that Miss Minnie, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Jenkins, formerly of this county but now residents of Ohio, was married on Thursday, October 14th, in Hillsboro, Ohio, to Mr. Manson Whiteman, of that State. They have long been readers of the PATRIOT AND GLEANER and keep in framed what is going on at their old home.

To Prepare For Grinding Wheat. We learn that the old Gatling or Delatch's Mill, at Crowsville, now owned by Lassiter & Martin, will be fitted up for grinding wheat if the farmers will raise it. This mill for a long time was noted for the good flour it made, but of late years farmers in that section have not been raising wheat, hence none has been ground there for some time. The present owners will meet the demand of their patrons, and if necessary will fit up a first class flouring mill.

A Limbless Cotton. A man by the name of Jackson has a six acre cotton lot near Atlanta, Ga., that has received much attention during the past month or two. It is a limbless variety, growing much taller than ordinary cotton and is said to yield four or five bales to the acre, and the staple being much better, causing it to sell at an advance of one or two cents a pound. A New York syndicate, says the Atlanta Constitution, has purchased two thirds interest in the crop of the six acres, the remaining interest being owned by two citizens of Atlanta who have refused $20,000 for their third interest. It is claimed that this new cotton will revolutionize cotton raising.

HATS!

We have the nicest and cheapest lot of MEN'S AND BOY'S HATS we have ever displayed before. Our prices are astonishingly low. Give us a call if you are in the market for a good hat for a little money.

Boyce & Baugham, RICH SQUARE, N. C.

Rich Square and Vicinity. Shipments of cotton from this place has continued large during the past week.

Miss Minnie Bell, of Roxobel, spent last Sunday here, the guest of Mrs. J. R. Sawyer.

Mr. P. W. Edwards, tax collector, was here last Saturday. There was a rush to pay taxes.

Mr. J. T. Bolton, one of our large Roanoke farmers, is putting in right much oats and wheat. This is right.

Mr. J. Cener Bolton returned last Saturday from the Southern Business College at Asheville, North Carolina.

The long drought was broken last week and as soon as the land is dry enough farmers will be busy sowing small grain.

Mrs. A. E. Mosely, mother of Mrs. W. E. Clifton, returned last Friday after spending the summer at Weldon and Richmond.

We learn that Mr. Walter L. Weaver has secured a good position with the Southern Railway Company at Washington, D. C.

The public school for this district will begin next Monday, Nov. 1, and all who expect to attend are earnestly urged to be present the first day.

There will be a greatly increased amount of wheat, oats and rye...

In this section another year. Our farmers are awakening to the importance of raising home supplies. The fourth quarterly meeting of Rich Square circuit will be held at the church here next Saturday and Sunday, Rev. F. D. Swindell, P. E., will be present. President Kilgo, of Trinity College, was the guest of Mr. S. M. Lassiter Saturday and Sunday. He preached in the Methodist church on Sunday night. In the course of his sermon he ridiculed the old Methodist experience (class) meetings.

ARE YOU SICK?

If so, perhaps I have a remedy that will do you good. To meet the demands of my patrons I have decided to keep a few well known drugs and medicines for sale and now have them in stock. When in need of anything in this line give me a call. Prices low.

MILLS H. CONNER, Rich Square, N. C.

JACKSON LETTER.

The new iron fence around courthouse yard has been completed. The tax collectors were kept busy here Monday. Such a rush to pay taxes was never known here before. The crowd was not as large last Monday as usual on first day of court, owing to the inclement weather.

A hack from here to Cedar Fork, one mile from town, seemed to do a good business carrying people to the bar at that place. Mr. J. A. Burgwyn, County Treasurer, has gone to place county and school funds in the banks. The tax collectors paid him over $18,000 last Monday. The Rich Square collector paid over $3,000 of the taxes of that township.

Superior Court convened here promptly at 10 o'clock last Monday with its Honor, Judge Henry R. Bryan, of Newberne, presiding; Hon. Walter E. Daniel, of Weldon, State Solicitor; J. T. Flythe, Clerk; W. H. Buffalo, Sheriff. Mr. W. R. Baugham, of Rich Square, was selected as foreman, and S. J. Drake, officer of grand jury.

Those who believe chronic diarrhoea to be incurable should read what Mr. P. E. Grisham, of Gaars Mills, La., has to say on the subject, viz: "I have been a sufferer from chronic diarrhoea ever since the war and have tried all kinds of medicines for it. At last I found a remedy that effected a cure and that was Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. This medicine can always be depended upon for colic, cholera morbus, dysentery and diarrhoea. It is pleasant to take and never fails to effect a cure. 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by Boyce & Baugham, Rich Square, N. C.

Woodland Depot Items. S. L. Beaton, of Boykins, Va., spent the night of the 22nd with some of his many friends at this place. Dr. E. J. Griffin made his return on 22nd from Williamston, N. C. J. J. Brown and wife, of Menoia, were in town last Sabbath, as the guests of Joseph Morris and family. B. P. Brown returned home on the 23rd inst. from quite an extensive religious visit in Ohio and Pennsylvania. A E. Copeland had a slight attack of hemorrhagic fever yesterday morning, but so far has proven to be nothing serious. About 60 bales of cotton were shipped from here to day, 50 of which are for Liverpool. Geo. H. Parker had quite a severe attack of something like kidney colic this morning, but glad to report him much better. We are glad to learn Sallie W. Copeland is much pleased with her position in Pennsylvania. J. W. Peele has materially improved his dwelling by making some additions and repainting it. Our good old friend, A. W. Brown, has been on "three legs" nearly a week from the effects of a nail finding its way through a "dry weather shoe" into his foot. 10-26-'97. MARIE.

Ram's Horn Blasts. Earnestness is self denial—at work. The dog with a gold collar is still a dog. A bad man sees little good in other people. A man is known by what he is and where he is. It is easier to set a man down than to set him up. The doctor's best text book is a good judgment. The lofty tree is seldom measured till it is down. The seed of virtue grows best when planted early. The crown is beyond the cross of toil and self denial. Your acts will not go right while your thought go wrong. The big fool lacks conscience, the little fool lacks brain. To make money without work, has made all the thieves. "Success is costly." Paste these three words across your mirror. Satan can wax fat in a heart too small for Jesus to squeeze into. Nothing is more to be dreaded in church or state, than ignorance on fire. When weeping mothers are given the ballot, their tears will put out the fires of distilleries. A drop of the oil of humility will save a man from a great deal of the smart of humiliation. A sermon hasn't been preached until it has got into a few pairs of shoes and gone out on the street. Solomon took the world for a text and preached the shortest sermon on record—"all is vanity."

The lion spirit of greed is always seeking to lie down with the lamb, but it wants the lamb inside. What must Jesus Christ think of his Bride, the Church, carrying on a political flirtation with the saloonkeeper, the seducer and destroyer of his children? Don't Stop Because of Disaster. Under this head the Nashville Christian Advocate makes some very wise and truthful remarks, by which we should profit. It says: "No man in distress should suffer himself to indulge in a relaxation of his industry. However unpromising the signs of the time, and however scant the prospects of business, the true policy is to keep on trying. Nothing worse can happen to any man than to sit down, fold his hands, and dream of his past prosperity, bewail his present sad lot, and conjure up forbidding pictures of future years. If he persists in such a course for any considerable length of time, he is sure to render himself incapable of seizing the opportunities that may hereafter come to him. Wise employment lends dignity to human life and strength to human character. In the case of an old man there may be some excuse for that paralysis of effort which is so often the immediate result of a great business disaster, but not so in the case of a young or middle aged man. The first stroke of misfortune naturally tends to daze him. Let us not blame him if he seems for a season unable to collect his faculties, and resume his customary enterprise. But after he has had time to look about him, and to recover his equilibrium he ought to address himself again with renewed diligence to all his tasks."

How he Adjourned Court. The Waynesville Courier tells the following story on a deputy sheriff of Haywood county, whose Latin, though not good, sufficed to adjourn court just the same. It says: Last Saturday, the last day of court, Sheriff Haynes was called home on account of illness in his family. All the deputies except Columbus Henson, the junior deputy, had gone home, so he was left in full charge as officer of the court. When the session was about over Judge Norwood said: "Mr. Sheriff, adjourn this court side die." The young sheriff didn't quite catch these two Latin words but was determined to proceed with his duties and said in loud, bold tones: "Oh, yes! oh yes! this honorable Superior Court now stands adjourned 'upside down.'"

Beale and family. New students continue to enter Miss Ida Gay's school at this place. Miss Gay is a young lady of high accomplishments and a most excellent teacher, and our patrons are well pleased with the progress of their children. The young people of Potecasi have organized a literary society which will meet every Friday night. Much could be said of the interest manifested, in our last meeting especially of an excellent and well rendered speech by Mr. Charlie G. Powell on the good of the society. We hope that not only the young people, but the older ones too will come out and take an interest in the work of the society. M.

Sales Talk. With Hood's Sarsaparilla, "Sales Talk," and show that this medicine has enjoyed public confidence and patronage to a greater extent than any other proprietary medicine. This is simply because it possesses greater merit and produces greater cures than any other. It is not what we say, but what Hood's Sarsaparilla does, that tells the story. All advertisements of Hood's Sarsaparilla, like Hood's Sarsaparilla itself, are honest. We have never deceived the public, and this with its superlative medicinal merit, is why the people have abiding confidence in it, and buy Hood's Pills with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Hood's Sarsaparilla. Almost to the exclusion of all others. Try It. Prepared only by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass. These are the only pills to take Hood's Pills with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Wake Forest Items. President Taylor has gone north in interest of the College. He hopes to return in time for the West Chowan Association. The last scientific society was very interesting. There were two papers presented, one on the nervous system by Mr. Terrell, another on the discovery of a new mineral by Mr. Brewer. Dr. E. W. Sykes is travelling over different parts of the State in interest of the College. The College had holiday last Thursday so that those students wishing to attend the State Fair could do so. Many went and enjoyed themselves very much. At the last examination of the Supreme Court, fourteen boys received license to practice law. The class presented Prof. Gully the law instructor, with a beautiful sixteen dollar cane. Dr. Skinner, of Raleigh, has donated to the Wake Forest library four thousand volumes of valuable books. A special place has been arranged in the library for them. An intercollegiate debate between Trinity and Wake Forest will be held at Raleigh on Thanksgiving Day. The query is "Should the system of water work, lighting and street railway be operated by the city or by private individuals?" The affirmative will be represented by three of Trinity's best debaters and the negative by three from Wake Forest. Each college has a preliminary debate and from this the judges decide on the three men that produce the best argument. The three that will represent Wake Forest are Messrs. A. B. Cannady, T. N. Johnson and C. H. Uley. Dr. Gwaltney preached an excellent sermon Sunday. His text was "Ye must be born again." A good congregation notwithstanding the rainy weather. R. D. S.
