OUR CLUBBING LIST.

Table listing subscription rates for various journals: North Carolinian, Farmer and Mechanic, Home and Farm, Farm Journal, Cincinnati Enquirer, Atlanta Constitution, and Sentinel.

The new school law goes into effect next Monday. It is about the same in effect as the law repealed by the fusion legislature of 1895.

The charge for vaccination in the town of Greenville, Pitt County, is $1.00 which was fixed by the town authorities who established compulsory vaccination.

King's Weekly kicked hard against this excessive charge. In Northampton limited compulsory orders were issued and the charge for vaccination fixed at 10 cents—one tenth that of Greenville.

The Revenue Collector for this District reports that moonshine whiskey distilling is greatly on the increase in the Eastern counties.

He accounts for this by the fact that in recent years quite a number of tobacco growers from the upper counties have been in the east teaching the farmers how to raise tobacco and incidentally have taught many how to make corn whiskey.

The Jonesboro Progress has entered upon its sixth volume. It is a bright and newsy paper devoted specially to the interest of Moore county.

In speaking of its past the Progress says that "It has punctured sham and exposed hypocrisy on all occasions and reserves the right to do so in the future," a declaration none of our county papers should be able truthfully make.

The newspapers of the State, especially the members of the Press Association, should remember the treatment they received at the hands of Ex-Judge W. R. Allen and Frank Ray during the session of the Legislature.

The only bill the editors asked the Legislature to consider was smothered in a committee by these two gentlemen. The editors were entitled to more respectful treatment.

The acreage planted in field pea has greatly increased in this part of the State during the past few years, and farmers find it profitable. It seems to require different varieties of peas for different soils.

In the Rich Square section the Unknown or Wonderful pea thrives best. A short distance from Rich Square a wheat field can be seen now where the difference in the wheat on the varieties were grown last year is so great that it can be distinguished half a mile distant. The wheat is much better at this time where the Unknown pea was grown. A prosperous farmer of large experience accounts for this difference in this way: the Wonderful pea retains its foliage longer, root deeper and stand dry weather better, therefore a greater enricher of the soil. The writer experimented with six varieties of field peas last year and found the Wonderful the most productive.

A Revolting War.

In its issue of Tuesday of this week the able Raleigh News and Observer has a long editorial on the present war against the inhabitants of the Philippine islands which clearly sets forth the present war situation. The two closing paragraphs of the editorial we give below:

"Already we are told that those who criticize the administration are traitors to their country. So be it. The men who criticize are those who were moved by the 'war for humanity' but are outraged that it has been converted, for political ends, into a war for conquest and spoliation. They stand for their 'country—right or wrong' no matter who leads when it is assailed by foes, without, but will not be silent when they see the flower of the land sent into miasma of the tropical jungles to advance political interests.

"They will cry aloud when they see the Monroe Doctrine trodden under foot that Haunaniam may be entrenched. They will protest for ever against a policy which overturns the basic principles upon which our Republic is founded, particularly when they realize that the innovation is made for selfish political ends.

The war on the Philippines, who never did us any harm, is so revolting that we can hardly write about it calmly. It has no basis in reason, justice or humanity. We have no right to shoot our principles into the Philippines with a Gatling gun. The policy upon which we have entered may accomplish the purpose for which it was inaugurated, to wit: the re-election of McKinley as President with Mark Hanna as Emperor, and the fostering of the trusts and syndicates which rob the people. It may do that, but the blood of innocent men, fighting for liberty, and of brave men sent to subjugate them will rest upon the heads and the hearts of those who have instigated the unholy war."

Premium Offer.

On first page we publish a few comments on that valuable book, "Lives of Distinguished North Carolinians," recently issued from the press. This book is of special interest to the people of Northampton. Its author and compiler is a native of this County. Only a limited number will be published and in a short time none of them will be on sale. Mr. J. L. Harris, who has the sale of them in this County, had only eight of the number allotted to this County on hand Friday of last week when in Rich Square. We have secured three copies of this valuable book to offer as a premium to club members for PATRON AND GLEANER and will distribute them as follows: One copy to the person sending us the largest number of new subscribers and renewals before April 1; another to the person sending the largest number between April 1 and April 10; and another to the person sending the largest number between April 10 and April 20. At the end of each period, namely, the Thursday following April 1, 10 and 20, we will publish the name of the successful competitor. The books will be delivered free of charge. Advantage can be taken of any of our clubbing offers, and sample copies of any of the papers sent if desired. We will gladly furnish a list of subscribers at any price whose time have been expired so that you may call on them and solicit renewal. To encourage a large number to enter the contest we will send post paid to the person sending the second and third largest number of subscribers between each period a Mahan & Grosh 50 cent or steel and fire tested pocket

Clubbing Offer.

We want one thousand new subscriptions and renewals during the month of March. For this month, or until this offer is withdrawn, we will send PATRON AND GLEANER (weekly) Atlanta Constitution (weekly) Farm Journal (5 years, monthly) all for $1.25. The Farm Journal is a monthly paper but you will get it five years. Or we will send PATRON AND GLEANER (weekly) North Carolinian Farmer and Mechanic Farm Journal, 5 years (monthly) all for $1.50. If you want all the above papers you can have them for $2.25 and we will give you the Home and Farm (twice a month) one year extra. If you will induce one person not now a subscriber to subscribe for PATRON AND GLEANER one year we will have the Home and Farm (twice a month) one year, and Farm Journal (monthly, for five years) sent you free of charge. The new subscriber can take PATRON AND GLEANER alone or in connection with any of our clubbing offers. The above are the most liberal offers we ever made. The papers need not all be sent to same address, but to different persons if requested.

NO CURE—NO PAY.

That is the way all druggists sell Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is simply Iron and Quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to so bitter nauseating tonics.

Murfreesboro Locals.

Dr. J. T. Edridge has been very sick the past week but we learn that he is improving now. Miss Beulah Drake, of Delaware, Va., is here on a visit to her sister, Mrs. J. R. Hines. Mrs. W. R. Chitty is quite sick at this writing. The Meherrin river is quite high again. There has been a freshet in the river for several weeks. There will be services at Meherrin church next Saturday and Sunday by pastor, Rev. J. A. Speight. He is always there regardless of the weather. There will be a series of meetings at the Baptist church beginning April 18. Rev. Mr. Savage, of Chauceland, Va., has promised to assist Rev. G. P. Farrill in the meetings. There has not been any news of late from our town, owing to the illness of the writer. The Bright Jewel and the Women's Missionary Societies will hold joint Easter services at the Methodist church on Sunday night April 2. A nice program has been prepared and all who desire a rare treat should be there. Mr. H. H. Johnson has been very sick for several days and is no better at this writing. Mr. F. F. Ferguson's little son Carl, fractured his leg last Tuesday while he was playing at school. Nearly all of our people lost their choice flowers during the freeze last month. It is with regret that we write of the death of Mrs. Cecil Joyner which occurred at her home near Woodland on Monday last. We learn that she died from the effects of yellow chill. She was a very dear friend to the writer and her death seems doubly sad. The farmers in this section have been taking advantage of the low prices of the day and have had their fields and garden work arranged.

Lasker Locals.

Farm work is much behind in this section. Work on the town flower garden has been continued this week. It will add much to the attractiveness of the place. Mr. Joseph E. Brown has been quite sick for several days with a throat trouble, but is better at this writing. Mr. Wm. A. Parker after an illness of nine weeks, died at his home here last Friday at about 12 o'clock. While at work he cut one of his thumbs and put some varnish on it, as had been his custom for long time in such cases, but this time some paint had gotten into the varnish from a brush used in painting some furniture, which poisoned him finally causing his death after nine weeks. He suffered much during his long illness, but never complained and expressed his willingness to die. For many years he has lived a consistent member of the Methodist church. His funeral was preached at New Hope church by his pastor, Rev. J. C. Jones, a large number of people attending to pay the last tribute of respect. Rev. E. Edwards, pastor of the English Baptist church at Ninerville, Pa., when suffering with rheumatism, was advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. He says "A few applications of this liniment proved of great service to me. It subdued the inflammation and relieved the pain. Should any sufferer profit by giving Pain Balm a trial it will please me." For sale by John Baugham, Rich Square, N. C.

Editors Have Cause for Complaint.

The facts in regard to the fate of the libel bill that was introduced into the late legislature are here given for the information of those concerned therein. In accordance with a resolution adopted at the last meeting of the North Carolina Press Association the editor of the Record carefully prepared a libel bill and had it introduced in the house early in the session. It was referred to the judiciary committee, and its author with several other editors appeared before the committee in its advocacy. The bill seemed to be acceptable to a majority of the committee and one member (Mr. F. D. Winston) made an able speech for it, but it was referred to a sub-committee for further consideration. The sub-committee consisted of Mr. Winston, ex-Judge Allen and Mr. Frank Ray, and to this day they have never made any report on the bill. Whether they ever considered it is unknown.

An Easter exercise will be given by the Bright Jewel society of this place next Sunday night. The public is cordially invited to attend. Mr. Louis L. Joyner accompanied by his friend, Mr. Fred Fetter came up from Portsmouth last Sunday and spent a few hours with former's home people. Joe and Murphy Jackson, of Littleton, spent last Sunday with friends here and their voices were quite an addition to the Methodist church choir at morning and evening services. ANON. March 27.

You Can't Dodge Them

Did you ever try to dodge the rain-drops? Did not succeed very well, did you? It's just as useless to try to escape from the germs of consumption. You can't do it. They are about us on every hand and we are constantly taking them into our lungs. Then why don't we all have this disease? Simply because these germs cannot gain a foothold in a strong throat and lungs. It's when these are weak that the germs master. The body must be well supplied with fat. The danger comes when the blood is poor and the body is thin. If your cough does not yield, and your throat and lungs feel raw and sore, you should not delay another day. Take Scott's Emulsion. It's this nourishing, sustaining and strengthening power of SCOTT'S EMULSION that has made it of such value in all wasting and exhausting diseases. T. H. J. March 29.
