WADESBORO, N. C., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1888.

Advertisements.

B. B. LETTLE. W. L. PARSONS. LITTLE & PARSONS, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW. WADESBORO, N. C.

Dr. D. B. FRONTIS, Physician and Surgeon Wadesboro, N. C. Office in Post-Office Building.

RAPHAEL-ALLEN, Barber.

HAIR CUTTING, SHAMPOOING Hishaving, &c., done with neatness and disputch. Shop near Mr. Bruner's Bakery. W. A. ROSE,

GENERAL INSURANCE AGENT Represents the leading Fire and Life Insur-

W. F. GRAY. DENTIST. (Office Over L. Huntley's Store,)

adesbore. North Carolina.

Office-Markin Street, Wadesboro, N. C.

ALL OPERATIONS WARRANTED. Rocky River Springs Institute, MALE AND FEMALE.

First Session begins Sept. the 3rd, 1888, and second session January 14th, 1889. Board can be had in Hotel, including washing, fuel and lights, for $7.50 per month.

This is the healthiest place in North Carolina, and that should be the first item in selecting a place to send to school.

For circulars, &c., address,
J. E. TOMPKINS, Principal,
18—6ms. Silver, N. C.

Polkton Academy POLKTON, N. C.

REV. INO. P. BOYD, PRINCIPAL. MISS LORENA BOYD, ASSOCIATE.

TERMS ITER MORTH: Primery Course, $1.50, $3, $3.50, $3.60 No deduction for lost time. Tuition payaide at end of each school month. For further infermation apply to RHV. JNO. P. BOYD, Polkton, N. C.

WADESBORO, N. C.

D. A. MOGREGOR A. B., PRINCIPAL.

THE FALL THRM SEGINS MONDAY, SEPT. 820, 1888

Tetrion is LITERARY DEPARTMENT-$2. 36 and 34 per month.

Music—54 per month.

No deduction made for lost time.

Mave Yo any Tin Roofs that ne painting benot Paint, the only per ect protecfor to tin, and that will stops leaks. McLendon & Parsons sell it.

J. O. HINES. MORVEN, N. C.

I keep at all times a full line of DRUGS, MEDICINES, PAINTS, OHS, TOILET ARTIULES, &c., &c. My Prescription is in charge of Dr. J. M. Belk, who will take pleasure in filling them night or day.

M. L. DOTY Grocer and Confectioner. WADESBORO, N. C. Offers to the public the Freehest and Best

Provisions, Sugar, Coffee, Lard, Candles, and other articles usually kept in Groceries and Confectioneries. Call and see him

WADESBORO, N. C.,

the accommodation of the public, being newby furnished throughout. Patrons will have the attention of polite and attentive servants. Board by the month can be obtained theap as elsewhere in Wadesboro. saking a continuance of their patronage, I am, very truly, D. L. PARKER, Proprietor. It Gives Us Great Pleasure to serve our patrons. do not fear you will weary us by asking questions, we keep a man specially to accommodate you, McLendon & Parsons.

J. INGRAM. Corner Wade and Rutherford streets, WADESBORO, N. C.,

Will continue to furnish his patrons with EEF

Mutton, Pork, Poultry, Butter, Eggs, Fresh Oysters, Fish, Fruits and Vegetables,

And whatever else can satisfy the appetite of a gentleman-always giving the best the market affords. - I will pay the highest market price for Cows Hogs, Sheep, Chickens, Eggs. &co. &co.

SHOUTS GO UP.

Religious Demonstration such as Was Never Before Seen in Durham-Sam Jones Happy. Durham Recorder.

Last night about 3,000 people wended their way through the rain and mud to Parrish's warehouse to hear the Rev. Sam Jones.

After Mr. Jones arrived, Prof. Excell sang a beautiful solo: "The road to heaven" and the choir and congregation joined in the chorus: "I'm going home." This was fellowed by a short secret prayer.

Mr. Jones said he did not feel like preaching, but would keep his seat and talk to the congregation from his chair. He did not select a text. He wanted to ask every unconverted person in the building one question: "Why will you continue in sin? Why go away from this warehouse tonight an impenitent sinner?"

Mr. Jones then took up the followng answers and discussed them most earnestly:

"Don't know what sin is." "Ignorant of the nature of sin." "Don't know the consequences of

"Don't think." "After awhile."

"Recklessness."

"Because a conquered peace has taken possession of the soul."

The preacher handled these questions in such a manner that soon no sinner had any standing ground and there was nothing left but a complete surrender to Christ.

Soon Mr. Jones became warmed up and words with no such power and bearing ever fell upon a Durham audience as did his as he walked to and fro upon the platform. With an anguished look and out-stretched hands he cried: "Ohlmy God! Am I preaching the funeral of some poor soul to-night, who, in spite of all our entreaties, will perish in the wrong, and before next Monday morning be in hell a damned soul, without hope words burning deep into the hearts about the pulpit deck." of his hearers, until his audience was one who would make a start for ever a Sabbath-school class heard pathy with our fellow-countrymen which was maintained for some heaven and wanted the prayers of this story told in such a breezy way. | who have suffered and who mourn, | years. The State organized afterchristian people would come and give Said the Cap'n, after shifting his him their hand. A beautiful hymn | quid and taking a hitch in his trouswas raised and thousands of voices ers: 'King David's rapscallion of a joined in the singing. Then came a son, Absalom, had kicked up a great Father, let us not forget that He has lina. The following is among the sight never before witnessed here. Unsaved souls with streaming tears stead of starting him before the mast day of thanksgiving let us generous. State of Franklin. We copy it as by the hundreds filled the aisles with outstretched hands making their way second mate, mate and captain, the that our tribute of praise and grati- on the currency of 1838: to grasp the hand of the great evangelist. The sight was too much for dom of the whole deck and caoin. the evangelist, who clapped his hands He was first in the cabin overhauling and shouted: "Hallelujah! Glory to the old man's liquors in the locker, joined in the shouts, the tide swept currying favor with the men, telling over the congregation, the singing Druggist and Apothecary, ceased and the shouts which followed almost made the roof of the old warehouse rattle. Christian people of all denominations and ages for one time joined in general praise to God, and their voices, intermingled with shouts and prayer, went heavenward as from a single soul.

No, Durham never saw saw such sights before and perhaps never will of Jorda" pumping at both eyes." again, but the memory of last night's scenes will go with those who witnessed it to the grave.

Shake peare's Advice to Girls.

Shakespeare's advice to girls about the selection of a husband is the best in print, without excepting Poor The Central Hotel Richard and Hannah More. "Dear Kate, take a fellow of plain and uncoined constancy, for he, perforce, D. L. PARKER, Proprietor. must do the right, because he hath not the gift to woo in other places; The CENTRAL MOTEL is now open for for these fellows of infinite tongue, that can rhyme themselves into ladies' favor, they do always reason themselves out again. What, a speaker is but a prater; a rhyme is but a ballad, A good leg will fall; a Thanking my friends for past favors, and straight back will stoop; a black beard will turn white; a cnrled pate will grow bald; a full eye will wax hollow; but a good heart, Kate! is the sun and moon, or rather the sun and not the moon; for it shines bright, and never changes, but keeps its course truly."

Darbys Prophylactic Fluid,

Use it in every sick room. Will keep the atmosphere pure and whole-some; removing all bad odors from Will destroy all Disease Germs, infection from all Fevers and all contagious diseases. The eminent physician, J. Marion Sims, of New York, says: 'I am convinced that Prof. Darbys Prophylactic Fluid is a most valuable disinfectant.

How Doctors Conquer Death. Doctor Walter K. Hammond says: "After e long experience I have come to the conclusion that two-thirds of all deaths from Coughs, pneumonia and consumption, might be avoided if Dr. Acker's English Remedy Tor consumption were only carefully used in time." This wonderful Remedy is fold under a positive guarantee by E. A. Covington of Consumption of Co.

Boy's Leisure Hours.

A boy was employed in a lawyer's office, and he had the daily paper to amuse himself with. He began to study French, and at the little desk became a fluent reader and writer of of the French language. He accomphshed this by laying aside the newspaper and taking up something not "Only a bit of Virgil,' my lady." She mentioned this to her husband, who insisted that David should have a teacher to instruct him, In a few years David became a learned man, beloved minister of Sootland.

He began with a little book on English history that he found on the road. times. Boys, it will pay to use your leisure hours well.-Selected.

A Marine Version of Absalom's Conduct.

Lewiston Journal

"I love a good sermon," said old mutiny in the Jerusalem cabin. Inthem what a fine commodore he would make and what good grub he would give them, and what fine voyages they would have when he got command of the ship of state. Well, Absalom made things so wet and bot that the old man had to take to the long boat with a few of the crew and scud away to save his life; and we find him anchored on the other side

The Weight of a Heart.

The average weight of men's hearts, says the Medical News, is eleven ounces each, and of woman's only nine ornces. Thus, when they give and take or exchange hearts, man is the ooser, quality being equal. Man's average brain weighs forty-sine and a half ounces and woman's forty-four. The average weight for both lungs is for men forty-five ounces and for women thirty-two.

Redid Something Better. Washington (D. C.) Post.

Parson-"Johnie, your father wasn't at church on Sunday?" Johnnie-"No, sir. He went fishin' Parson-"My, my! I hope you didn't go with him." Johnnie (confidently) -"No,sir, I didn't. I tried to get him to go with me." Parson-"Ah, I'm glad to hear that. Where did you go?" Johnnie-"I went to the baseball match. I'm captain of the Swampoodle Juniors, I am.

Nothing Equals It. ZALAHA, FLA, June 27, 1887. N. E. Venable & Co. ;

I have been using B. B. B. in my Respectfully. MRS. R. M. LAWS.

MAKES AN OLD MAN YOUNG.

[Extract from a Letter.] P. S.—I bought 3 bottles of your Botanic Blood Balm from my friend H. D. Ballard, at Campobello, S. C. I have been using it three weeks. It appears to give me new life and new strength. If there is anything that will make an old man young it is B. B. B. I am willing to sell it. I can earnestly and nonestly recommend Botanic Blood Balm.

Says an Eminent Physician

"Have used for twenty years the preparation known as Bradfield's Female Regulator. It is the best prescription known for female diseases. For particulars write The Bradfield Regulator Co., Atlanta, Ga.

LET US RETURN THANKS.

President Cleveland's Exhortation to The People. President has issued the following:

A PROCLAMATION. States: Constant thanksgiving and baby was trotting along directly beso amusing, but far more profitable. gratitute are due from the American neath its mother, sometimes between A coachman was often obliged to wait people to Almighty God for His her forelegs. long hours while his mistress made goodness and mercy, which have calls. He determined to improve followed them since the day He made phant is born in a herd, they stop a the time. He found a small volume them a nation and vouchsafed to day or two to allow it time to exercontaining the ecloques of Virgil, but them a free government. . With cise its little limbs and gain strength, could not read, so he purchased a loving kindness He has constantly and then they press on, the mothers Latin grammar. Day by day he led us in the way of prosperity and and babies in front, the old tuskers studied this and finally mastered its greatness. He has not visited with following in the rear, but ready to intricacies. His mistres came behind swift punishment our shortcomings, rush forward at the first alarm, him one day, as he stood by the hor- but with gracious care He has warn- When rocky or hilly places are see waiting for her, and asked him ed us of our dependence upon His reached the little ones are helped up what fie was so intently reading. forbearance and has taught us that by the mothers, who push them from cious gifts.

and was for many years a useful and the end that on an appointed day the after a rain, and at such a place the united prayers and praise of a grate-A boy was told to open and shut ful country may reach the Throne of up with the rest, so the mothers and the gates to let the teams out of an Grace, I Grover Cleveland, President fathers help them. At first all iron mine. He sat on a log all day of the United States, do hereby, plunge boldly in-both young and by the side of the gate. Sometimes designate and set apart Thursday, old-and when the old elephants stupidity. "I was talkin' to her. an hour would pass before the teams the 29th day of November, instant, reach deep water, where they have She was in the house fryin' doughcame, and this he employed so well as a day of thanksgiving and prayer, to swim, the young scramble upon nuts"that there was scarcely any fact in to be kept and observed throughout their backs and sit astride, somehistory that escaped his attention. the land. On that day let all our times two being seen in this position people suspend their ordinary work But the very young elephants often and occupations, and in their acoust require a little more care and atten-Having learned that thoroughly, he tomed places of wership, with prayer tion, so they are held either upon the borrowed of a minister "Goldsmith's and songs of praise, render thanks to tusks of the father or grasped in the History of Greece." This good man God for all His mercies for the abun- trunk of the mether and held over or became greatly interested in him and dant harvests which have rewarded just at the surface of the water. lent him books and was often seen the toil of the husbandman during Such a sight is a curious one, to say sitting by him on the log conversing the year that has passed, and for the the least-the great elephants almost with him about the people of ancient rich rewards that have followed the hidden beneath the water, here and social order and contentment within dark waters foam below. our borders, and for our advancement in all that adds to national greatness. And mindful of the Cap'n Bill Weatherriggin, of Bucks- afflictive dispensation with which a torical fact that from 1774 to 1784 the port, the other day. "I like the roll portion of our land has been visited, territory now, known as Tennessee Thus the speaker went on, his and pitch of a man coiling up religion let us, while we humble ourselves be formed a part of North Carolina, fore the power of God, acknowledge and that in 1785 the Tennesseaus, Then Cap'n Bill tole a Bible story His mercy in setting bounds to the becoming dissatisfied with their gov-Anson institute, of his hearers, until his addience was in his quaint sailor lingo, the story of deadly march of the postilence, and ernment, organized a State governasked that while the choir sang every David and Absalom, and we doubt if let our hearts be chastened by sym- ment under the name of 'Franklin' old man had let him have the free- tude may be acceptable in the the sight of the Lord.

In witness whereof I have hereunto signed my name and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Grover Cleveland. By the President: T. F. Bayard, Secretary of State.

Throwing In. Youth's Companion.

The village and rural merchant is always expected to "throw in" some thing with any unusual purchase. The custom is unknown to the city merchant, who usually has one price and one rule from which there is no

"You'll throw in a spool of thread, I reckon, if I take a dress-pattern off of this?" asks the thrifty woman in pursuit of "bargains" in a village

"Well-yes, I dunno but I can," replies the equally thrifty merchant. "And a card of hooks and eyes?" "I dunno now; I aint making a cent off the goods, nohow."

"Oh nonsense! you're doubling your money, you know you are, and or brenk you."

"No Is'pose not; I'll throw them in." "Come, now, throw in a spool of twist, too."

"I'm afraid I can't." "What! when I'm taking ten yards of the goods?"
"Well, all right; but I can't throw in anything more."

The goods are cut off and paid for and all the other things "thrown in" are put into the parcel. But just as family as a blood purifier. Having the woman leaves the store she makes never used any medicine to equal it. keeper, secure of his bargain, firmly refuses to grant: "Aint you going to give me a stick of candy for the baby?"

preparation known as Bradfield's Harper's Bazar, Female Regulator. It is the best A Sad Story.

Baby Elephants.

How the young elephants in the large herds escape from being crushed is something of a mystery, as WASHINGTON, November 1st.-The they are almost continually in mo tion; but when a herd is alarmed the young almost immediately disappear. By the President of the United A close observer would see that each

On the march, when a little ele-obedience to His holy law is the behind and in various ways; but price of a continuance of His pre- when a river has to be forded or swum a comical sight ensues. The In acknowledgment of all that God stream may be very rapid and has done for us as a nation, and to rough, as the Indian rivers often are babies would hardly be able to keep | or!" labors of our people in their shops there a young one seemingly walking and their marts of trade and traffic. on the water, resting upon a sub-Let us give thanks for peace and for merged back, or held aloft while the

Queer Currency. It is not a generally known his-And as we return thanks for all ward disbanded, says the Pittsburg the blessings which we have received Dispatch, and territorial Tennessee from the hands of our Heavenly was again annexed to North Caroenjoined upon us charity, and on this laws passed by the Legislature of the and letting him work his way up to ly remember the poor and needy, so found in a speech by Daniel Webster

Be it emacted by the General Assembly of the State of Franklin and state. Done at the city of Washington on it is hereby enacted by the authority the 1st day of November, 1888, and of the same, That from the 1st day God, hallelujah!" Many in the choir and then forward in the forecastle in the year of Independence of the of January, 1789, the salaries of United States the one hundred and the officers of this Commonwealth be as follows: His Excellency the Governor, per annum, 1,000 deer-skins. His Honor the Chief Justice, per annum, 500 deer-skins.

The Secretary to his Excellency the Governor, per annum, 500 raccoon skins.

The Treasurer of the State, 450 raccoon skins. Each County Clerk, 800 beaver skins. Clerk of House of Commons, 200 raccoon skins.

Members of the Assembly, per diem, three raccoon skins. . Justices' fees for signing a warrant, one musk-rat skin. To the constable for serving a warrant, one mink skin. Enacted into the law on the 18th day of October, 1789, under the great seal of the State.

An Indian and a Panther, A short time since a bloody fight occurred between an Indian and a panther, twenty miles south of Mercer, Texas. A party of Indians from a card of books and eyes won't make a neighboring village were out hunting wild turkeys. One of the party who had strayed away from his companions met a large panther and shot at it, wounding the beast and greatly infuriating it. The panther was in up when you're called onf' close quarters and rushed upon the Indian before he could reload, and a bloody fight ensued. The Indian drew his knife, and when the panther sprang upon him cut the beast's throat from ear to ear, but at the same time the animal fastened its fangs in the throat of the Indian, and a death struggle commenced. When the other Indians reached the combatants both the Judian and the panther were dead.

Working at Night.

"What will it cost me' Uncle Rastus, to have my coop whitewashed?"

"I kain't tell yer, sah, till I makes an estimate ob de size and dimenshuns." That night the owner was disturbed by a loud noise in the hen coop. "Hi, there!" he shouted from an upper

IDENTIFIED AT LAST.

Anecdote Which Bears Every Evidence of Strict Veracity. That classical anecdote of the English child who, when reminded that she ought to go to her mother, replied: "Her aint a-calling we; us don't belong to she," not only proves that a confusion of cases is common to untutored minds, but also that they are deeply attached to pronouns. In the country especially, says the Youth's Companion, does a love of that part of speech greatly abound.

It may be a condition of the natural sheepishness, attendant on the closer relations of life, but certain it is that in most rural districts the husband speaks vaguely of his wife as 'she'

while the other side of the shield is displayed in her reference to 'him,' "I was goin' out to mow that mornin'," said a farmer, when giving his evidence in court, "and I says to her"-"Whom do you mean by her?" in terrupted the Judge. "The prison-

"No, no, not the prisoner! She wa'nt there!" said the witness, hardly concealing his scorn of the Judge's

"Who was frying doughnutst" "Why she was! And I said"____

"Your Honor," interrupted the opposing counsel, "it seems to me absolutely essential that the identity of this unknown woman should be settled."

the case at all!' cried the witness, in. dignantly. 'She was fryin' dough- craft, and the marriage be declared nuts for breakfast, and I says'-'What-is-her-name?' said his Honor, leaning forward and em-

'She didn't have nothin' to do with phasizing every word with a shake of the finger.

'Her'n' 'Yea.' The witness turned toward the back of the courtroom, and pointed sociables, wouldn't we draw the a brown and stalwart finger at a debt quicker'n scat!"-Boston Transwiry little woman who sat there cript. claring indignantly at the lawyer who were badgering him.

'Thar she sets!' he announced.

take a good look at ye!' Mehitable Jane rose, and after a little more skillful questioning, her Blizzardville, Dak. Winter is comidentity was satisfactorily estab-

A Story of the Stump.

Here is a Pensilvania story as told on the stump in Wisconsin the other night by W. D. Hoard, the republican candidate for Governor in that the front seat, full of spiritual influence of some kind. The clergyman, engaged in his preaching, rose to fervid pitch of eloquence, and in the midst of it exclaimed: "Show me the drunkard! Show earth the most unfortunate; show him to me!"

To the consternation of all present the old judge arose, and unsteadily maintaining himself, exclaimed,

Well, sir, here I am. The clergyman having realised up on his investment much sooner than he anticipated didn't know what to old judge down, and the incident had passed out of memory almost, when the clergyman again struck an impassioned period and exclaimed in "Show me the hypocrite! Show me the hypocrite! Of all men on God's green earth the most despicable.

Show me the hypocrite!" and reaching his cane over to a certain shaky old deacon, exclaimed, "Deacon, why the devil don't you get Electric Bitters, This remedy is becoming so well known and so popular as to need no special mention. All who have used Electric Bitters sing the same song of praise.- A purer medicine does not exist and it is guaranteed to do all that is claimed. Electric Bitters will cure all diseases of the Liver and Kidneys, will remove Pimples, Boils, Salt Rheum and other affections caused by impure blood .- Will drive Malaria from the system and prevent as well as cure all Malarial fevers.— For cure of Headache, Constipation and Indigestion try Electric Bitters -Entire satisfaction guaranteed, or money refunded, - Price 50 cts. and $1.00 per bottle at McLendon & Par-

Werrible.

Two-thirds of all deaths in New York City The child coughed. The mother ran. No sindow: "what are you doing there?" beauty because colds unfremedy was near. Before morning the poor for Acker's English Remedy was near. Before morning the poor fit's Unc. Rastus, "was the reply, he for Consumption will always refor is an absolute cure for A. Covington & Co.

The child coughed. The mother ran. No sindow: "what are you doing there?"

Leave to the coughed of the mother ran. No sindow: "what are you doing there?"

Leave to the child coughed. The mother ran. No sindow: "what are you doing there?"

Leave to the child coughed. The mother ran. No sindow: "what are you doing there?"

Leave to the child coughed. The mother ran. No sindow: "what are you doing there?"

Leave to the child coughed. The mother ran. No sindow: "what are you doing there?"

Leave to the child coughed. The mother ran. No sindow: "what are you doing there?"

Leave to the child coughed. The mother ran. No sindow: "what are you doing there?"

Leave to the child coughed. The mother ran. No sindow: "what are you doing there?"

Leave to the child coughed. The mother ran. No sindow: "what are you doing there?"

Leave to the child coughed. The mother ran. No sindow: "what are you doing there?"

Leave to the child coughed. The mother ran. No same proportion holds for most other cities. The child coughed are same proportion holds for most other cities. The child coughed. The mother ran. No same proportion holds for most other cities. The child coughed are same proportion holds for most other cities. The child coughed are same proportion holds for most other cities. The child coughed are same proportion holds for most other cities. The child coughed are same proportion holds for most other cities. The child coughed are same proportion holds for most other cities. The child coughed are same proportion in the child coughed are same proportion and the child coughed are same proportion in the child coughed are same proportion are same proportion in the child coughed are same proportion in the child co

An eastern paper heads an item: 'Gladstone Friendly to Turkey.' So are we. Thanksgiving day is on the way hither.

"I hope you appreciate the fact, sir, that in marrying my daughter you marry a large hearted, generous girl." "I do, sir (with emotion), and I hope she inherits those qualities from her father."-Life.

Mr. Bibber (next morning)-Oh, my head! It is a wonder that a man will put an enemy into his mouth te steal away his brains. Mrs. Bibber-If that's what you did it for, Bibber, I think the enemy got badly left .-Terre Haute Express.

"Times are a trifle dull, sir," he said, addressing a fellow passenger.
"Not with me," was the reply; "my business shows a gratifying increase every year." "May I ask the nature of your business!" "Certainly; I'm the fool killer."

Paterfamilias-Why, Ethel! You dont mean to tell me you want to mary that bald-headed Professor Wiseman ! Ethel-It is true he is bald. but think how many young men of to-day are bald on the inside of their heads .- The Idea.

A doctor in an Ohio town, who lives on a street leading to the cametery, has a reversible sign. Usually the sign presents his name and office hours; but when a funeral pesses he turns it over, and then the fol-lowing legend is displayed: "Not my patient; I cure all who follow my

A law was in force in England in the year 1770 to the effect that 'whosoever shall entice into the bonds of matrimony any male subject of his Majesty by means of rouge, white paint, Spanish cotton, steel corsets, crinoline, high heeled shoes or false hips shall be prosecuted for witchnull and void."

When Descon Popgram visited the theatre for the first time he was greatly shocked at the ballet for a little while. He thought better of it after a time, however, and whispered to Mrs. P., "Maria; it's awful, I'll allow yer; but my! if we could have suthin' o the kind down to one 'o our parish Stranger (from Dakota)-I hear you are making mustard plasters by the yard, always ready for use. Drug-'Mehitable Jane stan' up an' let 'em gist-Yes, sir. Would you like to rant 'em good and hot you can send me about forty yards by express to ing on, and wool is too high for poor folks."-Philadephia Record.

Journatism in Arizona

Detroit Free Press. We take the following from the last issue of the Arsxona Kicker-

A NEW DEPARTURE.-Next week we shall beging the publication of an There lived once in the little city of | agricultural department in the Kick-Williamsport, Pa., an ald judge by er, thus making a year's subscription the name of Williams. This old ten times as valuable as at present judge was noted for two things: For without increasing the cost to subgetting mellow occasionally and for scribers. We have made arrangebeing plucky and courageous under ments with a tenderfoot who struck all circumstances-a gamy old man, the town without a cent to take It was a peculiarity of the old judge | charge of the new department. He that whenever he got mellow he grew is a sailor by trade, and we now have corespondingly religious. One night him out in the country learning the he wandered into a protracted revi- difference between a coyote and a val meeting and seated himself upon Hubbard squeah. He may make a few blunders on the go-off, as he sticks to it that potatoes ought to grow on trees and that wheat grows wrong end on top, but he is a hummer, and will get there by and by. Remember, this department does not me the drunkard! Of all men on increase the subscription price at ali, We are simply trying to publish a paper worth $100 per year for $2. PASSED OVER .- Old Jim Badlan was found dead in his bed last Sunday morning, and a coroner's jury returned a verdict of too much whiskey. Old Jim and ourself were the only two men in town who didn't do with it. They finally pulled the put on false whiskers every time the stage came in, and who dared inquire for their own mail at the postoffice. We remember him chiefly as the honesty and fervor of his heart: the first man who got ahead of us up Arizona. We intended to strike him for the loau of a quarter, but he hit us first for the loan of a half. Poor The judge arose the second time, old Jim! We are not going to guarantee that he is better off, but will wager two to one that he has found a shortage of saloons in his new stamping ground,

> A Zenave's Opinion of Southern Fighting.

A Zouave, leaving Virginia to re turn no more, on being asked if he still thought the Southerners couldn't fight, answered; "No, sir, they don't fight; I've seen fighting in Europe, in Mexico, and in the United States, but I never saw any fighting like that of the Rebels. They don't fight--they just come down like all h-ll upon you. You needn't talk about suidning them .- Richmond Enquirer Aug 2nd, 1861.

Consumption Surely Cured To the Editor Please inform your readers that I have a positive remody for the above named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I shall be gled to send two