

THE MESSENGER AND INTELLIGENCER.

MESSENGER - INTELLIGENCER.

WADESBORO, N. C., JUNE 20th, 1889.

Local News.

Capt. J. T. Bradley is recreating at Cleveland Springs this week.

Tyler Cox, of Morven, has returned home from Wake Forest where he has been at school.

Do not overlook the new advertisement of Covington & Co., druggists, this week.

Mr. T. J. Ratliff, who lives near Cairo, reports the first cotton bloom for this county this season. It was found on the 18th inst.

The attention of those who have children to educate is called to the advertisement of Norwood High School elsewhere in this paper.

A big railroad meeting is advertised to be held at Little's Mills, Richmond county, on Friday, July 12th. A big crowd is expected to be present.

Dr. J. C. Brown has been unable to secure cars for his excursion, advertised to be run from Monroe to Wilmington on July 2nd, and as a consequence the excursion has been indefinitely postponed.

Judge R. T. Bennett, after a four weeks sojourn at Hot Springs, Ark., has returned home. His many friends throughout the State will be glad to know that his health has greatly improved.

If you are going to the springs this summer, it will pay you to consider the inducements offered by the proprietor of the celebrated Patterson Springs, located in Cleveland county, four miles south of Shelby. Read the advertisement of these springs in this issue of the MESSENGER AND INTELLIGENCER.

On account of rain the meeting of the ladies of the town heretofore called for the appointment of a cemetery committee did not take place, and we are requested to announce that there will be a meeting for this purpose to-morrow evening at 5 o'clock at the residence of Mr. M. A. Murr, or, in case of rain, for the first evening thereafter.

Among the attractions of the 4th of July celebration at Rocky River Springs will be Mr. Whitley, of Stanly county, who is 117 years old, and has cut his third set of teeth. B. F. Long, of Statesville, and S. J. Pemberton, of Albemarle, will be present and speak. Music will be furnished by the Cedar Hill string band.

As the MESSENGER AND INTELLIGENCER has repeatedly said, we need small manufacturing enterprises, and with this end in view, our citizens should devise some feasible plan to obtain them. We should depend more on our own resources and opportunities. Some of the surrounding towns are offering to take half the stock in any kind of an industrial enterprise and donate the site free. Can we not maintain as liberal and as sensible a spirit?

The Peachland Foundry Destroyed by Fire.

Last Monday night between 12 and 1 o'clock, the Peachland iron foundry, together with all its contents, was destroyed by fire. It is thought that the building was fired by an incendiary as no one had been in the foundry since Saturday evening, and the front doors were found standing open when the fire was first discovered. The foundry was owned by Separk & Laird, who estimates their loss at $800, partially covered by an insurance of $400.

A Big Pic Nic.

The members of to Alliance of Anson and adjoining counties have arranged to hold at Peachland in this county, on August 1st a midsummer farmer's convention and Alliance picnic. A number of prominent gentlemen will deliver addresses on the occasion. The Wadesboro and Monroe base ball clubs will be invited to play a match game of ball, and quite a number of innocent games will be gotten up for the amusement of the crowd.

There will be ample arrangements to feed those, who may not carry their dinner, at a moderate cost, for we understand refreshment and lunch counters will be on the grounds. The Carolina Central Railroad has granted excursion rates to the convention and picnic. The rates are so low that there is no doubt but a large crowd will attend from a distance, besides the many who will go in private conveyances. The Railroad round trip rate will be forty-five cents from Wadesboro and return, those wishing to attend can go up on the early train which passes here about day, or take the accommodation train at 11 o'clock; returning they can take the 10 o'clock train from Peachland.

A Card of Thanks.

To our many friends and Bro. Alliance, we offer our thanks and gratitude for your kindness to us in time of need. Dear friends you cannot know how much we appreciate your kindness. May God bless and protect you all from such a sad loss as ours, are the wishes of your friends.

MR. AND MRS. J. W. WATKINS.

P.S.—It has been reported that I have been suspended from the Alliance. Such a statement is false and incorrect.

The Revival.

Reported for Messenger-Intelligencer. The religious services are still being continued in the Methodist church with increasing interest. The pastors of the Baptist and Presbyterian churches of Wadesboro; Rev. C. H. Martin, the pastor of several churches in the county; Rev. J. W. Kilgo and Rev. B. D. Lucas, of South Carolina, are present, and aiding in the meeting. Rev. J. K. Fant, of the Baptist church, and Rev. A. G. Buckner of the Presbyterian church, have been present from the beginning of the meeting and rendering valuable services in guiding inquirers into the light.

Mr. Leitch is not free from criticism in his methods, or in his manner of presenting the truth, in the eyes of those who demand the unbending conventionalities of mere churchism, which is often even more lifeless than profitable. If a Texian were to drive a full team of steers through a china store there would not be a more reckless smash-up of the shining wares, than when Mr. Leitch struck the dead formalities of a pretentious religious profession.

The business men are closing up their stores this week to attend the morning services. Never in the memory of our oldest citizens has there ever been such an awakening of interest on the subject of religion as deep and universal as is now manifested. Eleven persons presented themselves as candidates for church membership last Sunday in the Baptist Presbyterian and Methodist churches. This, however, is not to be taken as an index of the good that is done. One of the most encouraging features in the good work is seen in the membership of the churches. Here is being laid the foundation for the work and success of the churches in the future.

Mr. Leitch's preaching is strongest in the direction of awakening the churches, and preparing the members for every good word and work. So that it is impossible to measure the fruits of Mr. Leitch's visit to Wadesboro by the near or immediate results in the way of accession to the churches. The work done is too radical and thorough to be judged by what is now apparent, though the visible results are a source of rejoicing to all who love their fellow men.

Mr. Leitch is possessed of wonderful powers of endurance. He is now well into the third week, preaching twice every day, and doing an immense amount of altar work, and often spending hours in conversation with anxious inquirers in the interval of the regular services. Mr. Leitch and Mr. Marshall, his companion in labor, are well suited as yoke fellows in the gospel to which work they are truly called of God, as was Paul and Silas. They have won the hearts of hundreds of our best citizens whose attachments will be as lasting as eternal ages. And their hold upon the intelligent and cultured people of Wadesboro is gained by a faithful and fearless preaching of the word of God. They seem to be conscious of a wonderful redemption from the power and practice of sin.

God has done great things for them, and they love to tell the blessed story to every one who will hear.

DIED.

In Wadesboro, on the 13th inst., of measles, John Edmund, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Boylin.

Near the depot in Wadesboro, on the 13th inst., Charlie, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Paylor, aged 23 months.

In Wadesboro, on the 13th inst., Mr. Jas. Duffie, aged about 26 years.

In Wadesboro township, on the 14th inst., infant child of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Meggs.

In Guilford township, on the 13th inst., after a protracted illness, Mrs. Mary Swink, wife of John Swink, aged about 49 years.

In Lilesville township on the 16th inst., from a complication of diseases, Mr. J. A. Liles, in the 82 year of his age. Mr. Liles was a most excellent citizen and his loss will be deplored by many.

Mrs. Sarah Clarke, wife of Esq. F. A. Clarke, of Burnsville township, died suddenly last Friday of heart disease, aged about 57 years. Mrs. Clarke was a most estimable lady, and was for many years a consistent member of the Methodist church. She leaves a large family and many friends to mourn her loss.

A Very Large Crowd.

The present indications point to a large gathering at the Alliance midsummer picnic at Peachland, Aug. 1st. We understand the farmers of Stanley county, and the upper edge of Chesterfield county, S. C., are going to turn out in full force. No doubt but what it will be the largest gathering of farmers that has assembled in this county in several years—especially as it will be past laying-by time and the farmers will have but little else to do on their farms.

While a passenger train was passing Joseph Smith at Myers Cave Station, Va., on the Shenandoah Valley Railroad, he threw a rock at it, which rebounded with great force against his head, killing him instantaneously.

The Marriage of Rev. H. W. Battle.

Cor. Messenger-Intelligencer. We had been for several weeks anticipating an unusually pleasant trip to Clinton. The pleasure would be increased by the presence of Rev. H. W. Battle, who for several years was pastor of the Baptist church at this place, and whom everyone admired as a preacher and as a man, and appreciated highly while here, and more, if possible, after he left us. We arrived at Clinton on the evening of the 11th inst., with several of his friends, and as we were late in arriving, we soon found ourselves near the house of Rev. J. L. Stewart, whose daughter, Miss Maggie, was attracting H. W., and after seeing her only a short time, we are not surprised that he "fell," yes, tumbled, in love with her. When we had talked all around, and seen the handsome bride presents, we were invited to a table groaning under its tastefully arranged load of substantial and necessities. We attempted to relieve that table of its burden, but found it too much for us—yet, we did our duty. Next morning, at 8 o'clock, we were moving to the Baptist church, which was beautifully decorated and filled with their many friends. The following order was stepped to the "Wedding March" by Miss Carrie Johnson:

Miss Jennie Battle, New Berne, and Mr. J. B. Stewart; Miss Lillie Bennett, of Wadesboro, and Rev. J. F. Love, of Bayboro; Miss Lula McClammy, of Wilmington, and Mr. F. W. Hancock, of New Berne; Miss Rena Stewart and Mr. L. J. Huntley; Miss Mary Stewart and Dr. J. T. J. Battle, of Wadesboro.

The impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. J. L. Stewart, assisted by Rev. J. D. Dilworth; after which the bridal party took the train for New Berne, with congratulations and best wishes from hosts of friends. We hope for them a happy future. ONE PRESENT.

Dots From Peachland.

We have had a most welcome visit from Col. B. S. Pardee, of the editorial staff of the Baltimore Manufacturers Record this week. He expressed himself as both pleased and very much surprised at the great progress our little town has made in so short a time.

The Southern Express Co., has opened an express office in our town. This will be a great convenience to our people.

Mr. W. D. Separk has accepted a position in the new machine shops and foundry at Monroe. He will move in a few days. We hope he will succeed in his undertaking.

Peachland Farmers Alliance will hold a basket "picnic" at this place on Aug. 1st. The Hon. S. B. Alexander and other prominent speakers are expected to deliver addresses. Excursion rates have been secured over the R. R. from all local stations and the principal cities of the State. Every body come to the basket picnic, and don't forget the basket. We will have a big time.

The old store house now occupied by Mr. W. F. Biddell is being painted, and will soon be quite an ornament to our place.

Mr. Biddell has also just completed a fountain in his front yard and is putting out flowers around it.

Mr. H. R. Beeman will commence painting his store house in a few days. Ain't we getting stylish.

Mr. C. B. Moore has commenced the building of a nice dwelling house on Clinton Avenue. Mr. Moore has had an excellent trade ever since he opened store here this spring. He has just put in a milk shaking machine so that Peachland can have milk shakes this warm weather.

We are using rain very badly in this section. The Farmers are somewhat behind with their work, owing to having to harvest their wheat and oats. Wheat is better than oats in this section.

There are more peaches hereabouts than we have seen in years, but they are rather small.

Peachland has gone to South Carolina buckberry hunting this evening. Come up if you want a pie.

There was quite an excitement in town one night last week. The alarm was given that there were burglars in Mr. C. B. Moore's store. Old and young rushed out with their guns and clubs, and after surrounding the house a general search was made, and no burglar being found and nothing missing, they all decided that the door was not securely fastened and was blown open by the wind.

Lanesboro Sub Alliance met last Saturday, and elected the following officers for one year, viz: J. H. Griffin, President; V. Allen, Vice Present; W. F. Biddell, Secretary; F. O. Caudle, Treasurer; Dr. P. F. Beeman, Chairman; A. D. Howell, Lecturer; W. D. Hubbard, Assistant Lecturer; John Sinclair, Door Keeper; G. F. Pond, Assistant Door Keeper; Bill Leaird, Sergeant at Arms; M. L. Horne, Business Agent.

Mr. A. H. Howell has some of the finest cotton we have seen; also a very nice garden. Had cabbage two weeks ago that would measure three feet across.

Another runaway—Mr. Franklin Phillips drove to the residence of Mr. Bill Hasty last Sunday night, and after capturing his bird, they were happily married, while the old folks sweetly slumbered.

Miss Mattie Baldwin, of Richmond county, paid Peachland a flying visit last week. Miss Baldwin has been teaching in Anson for some time, and has gained many friends and admirers by her many charms and graces.

Misses Della Caudle and Fitz Thomas, of Monroe, have been visiting friends near here.

Misses Emma Moore and Neta Phifer of Rock Rest, were visiting Miss Dora Griffin last week.

Mrs. Fannie Allan is quite sick. FELIX.

Dots From Goodman P. O.

Harvest is over, and soon we can hear the buzz of the thresher in the air. Chinch bugs are working very rapidly on some corn in this section.

"General Green" has made his appearance in some places at last, and the farmers are fighting for life to subdue him.

How cutting preached a very interesting sermon last Sunday at Barrenville church. Mr. W. P. Turner was bitten by a house cat last week and is suffering very much on account of it. Hope she will soon recover.

"M." of Morven Philosophizes.

"All hooded and saddled and platted robe he, A plume in his bonnet, a sword at his knee,— But soon 'gan' the saddle all blindly to see, And 'hunc cam' the steed, but 'hunc never cam' he."

"Out cam' his auld father sabbing fu' fair, An' out cam' his mither tearing her hair, An' 'dow cam' his wife w' bonnie bairns Ane ather bosom, and twa at her knee," &c. —Old Ballad.

Veterans of Anson, when you meet in the court house at Wadesboro on July 4th, and have done something honorable for the old soldiers that are alive, do not forget the dead. They have now no one to speak for them. They can't answer at roll call. Let us remember the ones that once touched elbows with us, as we followed the flag, the snow and the old Mary's. Let us not "repudiate or disown" the comrades "who fought with Lee" and died with Jackson, but rather let us deserve the praise of good women and true and brave men.

If Jeff Davis comes to Fayetteville in November we expect to see them. We have our last chance to see the old chief.

If the Wadesboro folk will have the laws enforced prohibition will be a success. They must see to it, or their voting is all a farce.

The robber tariff is our great iniquity with it. The Blair bill is another sugar coated pill to swallow long with the tariff. Our democratic anatomy repudiates both.

A pistol is bought and worn concealed. It is to shoot men with. Whoever carries concealed weapons violates the law of God and man. He carries murder in his heart. Young man, when you take your muzzle in church be careful that the seat of your pistol does not strike the seat, and every one hear it.

A lady should take a gentleman's arm. The present order is not the correct thing. Hands off, young man, should be every lady's motto.

Morven is having one of the neatest and tastiest family residences, for spring and summer. It is built in form of a square, two stories, and with cupola, forty rooms. It will not be occupied before next season.

Population of Morven in 1880 was 300, now it is about 300. So we can beat Wadesboro in per cent, at least.

Bill Moore, of Folkton, has our sympathy in his meat scrape. We've been almost there. We have no snakes in Morven. Too dry. M.

Dots From Deep Creek.

We pull off our hat and make our bow at the result of the election held in your town on last Monday. Again we say, well done! There went up many a silent prayer from the hearts of the women of this county when the good news was wafted from neighborhood to neighborhood.

The law be strictly enforced and all violators be punished. It is the general belief of a great many that the commissioners will be asked to grant license to sell spirituous liquors on the public roads leading into Wadesboro. Let all good citizens, so far as a matter of morality, virtue and temperance, get up petitions asking the commissioners to refuse such requests. The good citizens of this county do not desire such a thing.

Your correspondent from Bennett P. O. seems to be somewhat exercised over the late election held in Wadesboro. He certainly does not favor the continuation of the sale of spirituous liquors.

Crops are growing fine, also Gen. Green.

Farmers are as busy as bees. Mr. Watt Ratliff has commenced threshing small grain.

It is feared that Miss Elizabeth Buchanan will entirely lose her eyesight. She has consulted two physicians and we learn that their decision was that there was no relief for her. She has our deepest sympathy in her affliction.

Mr. Daniel McLaurin lost one of his children last week. TAR HEEL.

Wharf Town Items.

Crops are growing finely. Some are threshing wheat. The yield and quality give satisfaction.

Farmers are badly behind with their work. Providence is smiling upon us—blackberries are ripe and we are happy.

Dr. Carpenter rides night and day, visiting his patients.

Our people were very much grieved last Friday on hearing of the sudden death of Mrs. Sarah Clarke, a highly respected Christian lady and wife of Esq. A. Clarke. She died at her home of heart disease, and was buried at Concord in the presence of a large assembly of people. She was about 57 years old, and leaves a large number of friends to mourn her loss. Brother Moore preached her funeral.

We were delighted to see Rev. J. E. Updewald, of the N. C. C., in town this week. T. A. Hathcock, Jr., is now at Trinity College.

Prof. Julius Hathcock is attending the Teachers Convention at Morehead City this week.

Two boys about 15 years old—Bill McSwain and Jim Lowler—both good families, have disappeared suddenly from their homes and are now in the hands of the law. They may be where Jonah was once.

A mad dog took possession of this town a few days ago and greatly frightened the inhabitants. Some citizens got on the dog's top, some in the cellar, and one man ran clear off. He was last heard of in Troy, Montgomery county, and still running. The men now refuse to work, and sit in squads on the road with their guns, when they know the dog was killed some five days ago.

This whale don't call Mrs. Whale honey this week, because she persecuted him so as to assist her in robbing some bees. Now she laughs at his apian decorations. What a rascal he is!

What a fine thing to see in the lightning bug to the business end of a honey bee.

A reliable man told me that three negroes in a night of him buy every thing they eat and keep eighteen dogs and twelve fleas. No wonder they run mad.

Dots From McFarlan.

Gardens are growing fast since the rain, but we are needing another good shower now.

Most of the farmers have got their crops in a good condition at this writing. We are glad to know that Mr. C. E. Braswell is able to get to the post office.

Most of the farmers have cut their wheat and would glad for it to thresh to come along and thresh it out for them.

Hurray for Slimboy. He is just the fellow I have been looking for. He gives the news from my old native country.

Mr. Slimboy, bring me down a basket of cherries and we will give you a basket of peaches.

The health of our community is as good as common. We will have blackberry pie now, but we will have to be particular when picking the berries, or we might get bit by snakes.

Thanks, Mr. Whank, for your kindness. We hope you will not let me down in a fresh-cut and swallow up little fish like Tyro.

Savannah Branch News.

We have been blessed with good weather and our farmers have been stirring soon and late. Crops all around seem to be in fine fix.

Farmers will soon be done harvesting. Fall oats are better on the Savannah this year than they have been in some time before.

Last Saturday while Mr. Ellis Marsh was hauling up oak, his team became frightened and ran away, breaking things up generally. Dr. Moore left his horse standing hitched to his buggy, the road last Friday and stepped to see a patient, and he was paid with a four mile walk and a torn up buggy.

We had the pleasure of hearing one of those good sermons from our pastor, Rev. G. H. Martin. The people seemed to be very much enthused over his sermon. He will accomplish great good yet.

Mrs. Archie McRay has been quite sick for the last few weeks.

Miss Julia Lockhart is visiting her sister at Peachland this week.

There was a great deal of passing around last Friday to Mr. Z. T. Redfern was around listing taxes. We were surprised to see that some people think so little of their taxes that they give in good mules and horses at $33.00.

It has recently been our pleasure to gaze down the Savannah Valley and see the magnificent farm of Mr. Henry Roseman. Henry has a well cultivated farm, and when we see the fine fields of corn and cotton our memory flies back to those who have gone before and made a success of farming.

Mr. A. D. Lowery has the best field of corn along the borders of the Savannah. J. T. Collins, Esq., also has a beautiful field of corn. It can't be excelled for up-land. SLIMBOY.

Fruit Jars.

If you wish a JAR that will keep your fruit perfectly safe, use the WOODBURY FRUIT JAR.

It is so constructed that you can know that every one is air tight—so every JAR is perfectly safe. See them before you buy, for they are superior to all others.

SUMMER ATTRACTIONS.

We would say to our friends that our stock is complete in White goods, Embroidered Linens, Satinetts, Mulls, Black Laces, Children's Caps, Parasols, Sashes, and all manner of light weight summer dress goods. We are making special low prices on these, and it is our desire to have you derive the benefit of these close figures. Our space does not permit us going into detail and we can only speak in general. When we say "Bargains" we mean what we say. The word "Bargain" has been wonderfully battered about. People who can no more exist on low prices than a small man, on a little stepladder, can reach the moon, are crying "Bargains" by men who do a small business and buy only in small quantities, and from the ordinary jobbers, mean a big profit tacked to the actual value in order to make up for the small sale. Besides they can't give the variety. That's not the definition of "Bargains" at Seigle & Co's. But after all, the best proof is in prices, and here they are. An elegant lot of Barred White goods at 8 1/2 cts., worth 15 cts. A bargain! A nice Jersey ribbed Under-vest for ladies at 19 cents. Elegant Sarahs in Pink, La Blue, White and Cream at 48 cents yard. China Silk in same shades at same price. Figured Indigo Silks for street dresses at 75 cents, former price of them $1.50, $1.25 and $1.00 and now 75 cents takes the pick. Samples sent on application. Goods as represented or money refunded.
