WADESBORO, N. C., JULY 11TH, 1889.

JAS. G. BOYLIN, Publisher.

About $3,000 000 have been contrib uted to the Johnstown sufferers.

Mrs. Tyler, wife of Ex-President John Tyler, of Va., died in Richmond, Va., yesterday afternoon, after an illness of two days; aged sev-

According to the new directory of New York, to be issued July 8, the population of that city is now 1,700,-000. The estimated number of people in the city daily is 2,000,000.

The Secretary of the Interior has accepted the resignation of Gen Jos. E. Johnston, Commissioner of railroads. It is thought probably that Horace D Taylor, of Wisconsin, will be appointed as Gen. Johnston's suc

The giant diamond, lately discovered in Cape Colony, and now at the Paris Exposition, weighs 180 karats and is valued at $3,000,000 It is kept in a glass case by itself and guardians stand around it all day. At night it is placed in a big safe, which is similarly guarded at night.

Fred Douglass, the recently appointed minister to Hayti, is not only the most famous, but he is one of the wealthiest colored men in the United States. His wealth ts estimated at looking as if he had been over train-$300,000. There are a great many wealthy colored men in Washington. Most of them made their money in real estate speculation.

The North Carolina teachers sailed from New York Sunday by the steamship State of Navada, which lad been chartered to carry them. About 125 teachers and their friends make up the party, which is under the personal supervision of Major Engene G. Harrell, the secretary of the assembly. The excursionists will reach Glasgow about the 15th.

who was accused of having poisoned | ures are that there must be no paid her husband at Liverpool, is a cous- called on to preach, do so voluntarily, in of Mr. Jefferson Davis, is contra-dicted by the old gentleman himself. they alone are God's true followers, papers in connection with a prosecusays, "and of the many false reports | do not observe the Sabbath, declar of which I have been the victim none ing that it was abrogated along with was ever more entirely without foundation, however perverted the superstructure might be."

A report from the British Consul at Tientsin says that the North China Railway, which was completed last summer, is now open for traffic. He says it is eighty-five miles long and cost on an average about $22,000 per mile. One engine came from the United States; the others are English built, on the American plan, The American engine cost twenty per cent, more than the others, but stands at the head for actual performance, it being admitted that the details of the working parts are better than the

A strange exhibition of religious one day last week. Miss Leoni Steuvenal, who had lost her reason through excessive study, during the ly cool indifference. abscence of her attendants, made an attempt to crucify herself. She secured a hammer and hat pins, removed her clothing and endeavored wears breast plates of enormous diato nail herself to the door of her room. She succeeded in driving the pins through one hand and foot before she was discovered, and though the wounds were bleeding freely she gave no sign of pain. She is serious-

"Old" John Hanks, the boyhood friend and distant relative of Abraham Lincoln, died at his farm, four the Sea of Light. and one-half miles north west of De catur, on Tuesday, aged 88. It was on this farm and while in the employ of Hanks that Lincoln became crease his price considerably. noted as a rail-splitter, and it was old John Hanks who, in 1860, introduced the rail-splitting feature into the excitement of the Lincoln campaign, furnishing rails from his farm split by Lincoln. In that campaign Hanks, heretofore a Democrat, spent nearly $7,000, and gave a barbecue at his farm, where he fed 3,000 people The affection existing between John Hanks and Mr. Lincoln continued through their lifetime.

A Preacher Sucs a Masenic Lodge for Label.

Yesterday Jones & Tillett, attorneys for Ray. M. P . Matheney entered suit

W. M. Crowell, W. N. Prather, J. S. Boyne, W. F Griffith, W. T. Beaman, J. R. Purefoy and J. K. P.

The action is for libel. The plaintiff alleges that a man in Texas wrote a libelous letter to the Masonic lodge of Charlotte, and that the above named persons aided in publishing the libel.

Staton, As't Lecturer: J. A. Lee Cher. The plaintiff is a Raptist minister, formerly residing in Lexus. Since coming to North Carolina he has preached in the Baptist church here, and elsewhere.

Staton, Ass't Lecturer; J. A. Lee, Chaptist and the base of the continuency of the read to town are looking very well.

Mr. V. is very fond of fishing. It is strange that he will go to Hornsboro, S. C., to find a pool when the branch is so close,

SLIMBOY.

Shaptist minister, it has been dry. We never have seen things so quiet in Wadesboro before. Crops on the road to town are looking very well.

Mr. V. is very fond of fishing. It is strange that he will go to Hornsboro, S. C., to find a pool when the branch is so close.

C. H. Aldridge committee.

ERASTUS. and elsewhere

THE GREAT PRIZE FIGHT.

Sullivan and Kilrain Get in Their Sport on Mississippi Soil-An Immens Crowd in Attendance-Kilrain Throws up the Sponge on the Seventy-Sixth

NEW ORLEANS, July 8 -The Sullivan Kilrain fight occurred this morning at Richburg, Miss., 105 miles dis tant from New Orleans. Sullivan won in the 76th round. Neither of the combatants were seriously injured, although Kilrain was very weak. Kilrain won the first fall and the first blood, and Sullivan the first following resolutions: knock down. The fight lasted two hours and eighteen minutes. The first information of the result was brought to New Orleans by the special train of the Associated Press, which made the run of 105 miles in three hours and ten minutes. There was no attempt at interference. Just before time was called Kilrain stepped to Sullivan and offered to wager $1,000 on the result, which was promptly accepted by Sullivan, and the money placed in referee Fitzpatrick's hands.

When time was called for the 76th ound, Mitchell ran over to Sulfivan's corner and asked if he would give Kilrain a present, provided they would throw up the sponge. Sullivan generously answered: "Of course I will." But Mike Donovan, seeing the and "Thou shalt not commit adulcondition of his pricipal, to save him tery," further punishment threw up the sponge and Sullivan had again proven his title to Champion of the McDOW AND THE SWISS MAID. World.

The only marks on Sullivan were a slight cut under the right eye and another on the left ear, Kilrain's body showed the effect of Sullivan's blows, and he was bleeding at the ears, nose and mouth. Both men were hurriedly conveyto the train by their friends and given attention, Sullivan's condition was superior to Kilrain's; the latter

A QUEER RELIGIOUS SECT.

Unusual Doctrines of the Boyleites of South Carolina.

COLUMBIA, S C., July 9.-The Southern Christian Advocate describes a new religious sect which has appeared in Sumpter and adjoining State. It was founded some years ago by a former Methodist named Boyle, and calling themselves "True-light Baptists." They are, however. known as Boyleits. Their ranks are recruited from among the most igno rant classes. They are not very nu-The report that Mrs. Maybrick, their belief is, but some of its featministers, but all members who feel Until her name appeared in the news. and that they alone will be sayed. They reject the Old Testament, and such parts of the New Testament as tion I had never heard of her," he fail to support their doctrines. They the Levitical law. They believe in social equality of the races, in immersion, and in the damnation of infants of non Boyleite parents.

There are a number of Boyleites in Union county, this State, and a church or two belonging to this sect in Buford township of that county .-ED. MESSENGER'AND INTELLIGENCER.

THE SHAH IN LONDON.

How the Monarch Dresses and Con ducts Himself in England.

It is necessary to do more talking about the Snan, for England has done nothing but faast him. stare at him, and run after him and talk and write about him all the week. Tens of thousands of pounds have been spent in taking care of him, and the thing is to go on for a long while. The authorities started out to dazzle his A strange exhibition of religious Eastern Majesty, but in fact England while walking over his field last week he insanity happened at Bayonne, N. J., has been dazzled rather more than the Shah, who gets himself up regardless of cost an takes everything but his own comfort with maryelfous

His costumes have been something absolutely gorgeous. The gold belt around his waist is fastened with the monds; besides which he has a tremendous aigrette of brilliants in his hat and strings of precious stones scattered all over him. A man who understands such things saw him at the opera and said that he would be very glad to buy him as he stood for $1,000.0 0 and return him next day unharmed minus his clothes. His Majesty wears, among other ornaments, the sash of the Order of the Garter, to the centre of which he has fastened his enormous diamond cali-

The man who had valued his Majesty at a million dollars did not notice this at first, but when he did he admitted that he was willing to in-

Hyatt Items.

Growing-corn, cotton, grass and ration

Mrs. Sallie Perry has been on the sick list for several weeks. She is quite sick. Dr. Nance, of Olive Branch, is-treating her. Messrs, Hyatt, Allen & Clark, and J. C. Goodman & Co., are in the field with their threshers this week, and we are feasting or bread made of new wheat.

Little Cecil Teal has a hen with a literary turn of mind. She lays her eggs in the book case. Cecil puts the proceeds in the Sunday School mite box. A very good idea.

ease and your brightest dreams all realized. Mrs. G. W. Allen found an old coin recently that astonishes the natives. It was un-earthed by the late rains and was as bright as new money when found. It was struck in the year 1726—one hundred and sixty-three years ago. On one side is this inscription, Lud, X V. D. et nav sex. and a face. On the other, Ches. Regn. vinc. Imper. 1726. D., and a crown and other insignia we do not understand. Mrs. Allen wou'd like to dispose

THE KILLING OF CAPT. DAWSON.

The Charleston Clergy Adopt Some Resolutions. CHARLESTON, July 8.—The Charles ton clergy were greatly stirred by the acquittal of Dr. McDow. At a meeting of the Ministerial Union today Rev. C. C. Pinckney, D. D., rector of Grace Episcopal church, offered the following paper, which was adopted by the Union:

"In view of the recent occurrences in our midst we, the Ministerial Un ion, feel constrained to adopt the

1. Resolved, That we proclaim our abhorrence of the murder, adultery, and all the deeds of violence which defile the land with blood and violate the laws of God and man, and depre cate all demonstrations that seem to sanction them

2 Resolved, That we will endeaver to stimulate the public conscience by setting fourth the Divine law against the reckless shedding of human blood and the curse that the law entails upon the community which refuses to punish crime.

3 Resolved, That we invoke the pulpit throughout the city and State to unite with us in putting down the deeds of violence which have so often disgraced our land and exposed us to the just rebuke of those who honor the commands "Thou shalt not kill"

A Rumor That He Has Attempted to Communicate With Her,

CHARLESTON, S. C., July 10.-The ity is full of rumors about the Mc-low case today. It is known that Mrs. Dawson, the widow of Editor Dawson, had to appeal to the police last night for protection and a policeman was stationed on her premises. McDow's and Dawsen's lot adjoin each other in the rear. Persons on the rear piazzas of both houses can converse and McDow can easily get over the back fence in to Dawson's premises. It is said that yesterday afternoon McDow endeavored to communicate with the Swiss maid, who was on the piazza with Capt. Dawson's daughter, and that the latter reported the fact to Mrs. Dawson. It is also said that he repeated the attempt later in the evenng, when Mrs. Dawson appealed to counties in the eastern part of the the police authorities for protection.

Items From Goodman P. O.

Grass is growing. Farmers are laying-by their crops, Goodman & Co. are not threshing this week, but are killing crab grass. They have already threshed over 1600 bushels this sea-son—wheat and oats together. We need more farmers like J. E. Efird, who raise their own provisions. He made 230 bushels of wheat this season on a two-horse farm. He has old corn in his crib yet, and has been selling very near all the year He plows deep while sluggards sleep. And makes corn to sell and a plenty to keep. Henry, keep your cow at home hereafter if you don't wish to haul oats a day for J.

Miss Pickette and Franklin are getting on alright at present. Miss L. and F. would make a good match, To pick berries in the blackberry patch: They are both good looking, about the right size,

And they can pick berries and live on pies, Miss Mary teased L., and so did we, But Miss P. and F. seemed as happy as they could be, So we will let Pickette alone just now, Before Franklin comes and raises a row. We would be glad to hear from Erastus again as he writes such interesting and newsy News is scarce this week in this commun-

Dots from Peachland, The rains of last week did considerable damage in this section of the county. Corn on the creeks is about ruined. M. L. Horne says that he will loose about 75 or 100 bushels. Some are talking of planting over. Mr. Asburry Leaird was thrown from his mule last week and was hurt badly but is improving a little now. Rev. Tom Kendall will preach in the M. P. church next Sunday at 11 a. m.

visiting Miss Anna Liles this week, General Green is about to take the farmers in this section. Mr. Albert Redfearn said when he found out what it was it was the grass rolling the rocks over so it could come

Some men went to the house of Mr. Army Manus last Friday night and threw rocks against the door until they succeeded in breaking it down and getting in the house, and after whipping him severely they told him if he told that it was white men that did biggest emerald in the world. He the work they would kill him. He has found out who part them are and will have them tried in Polkton on to-morrow at 4 p. m. Mr. L. L. Little, of Pee Dee, has accepted the invitation to act as Chief Marshal at the

Dots from Deep Creek

Well done, County Commissioners. We hope the question that has caused so much anxiery for the past week is now settled for the next two years.

Tremendous rain fall last week in this portion of the county. Great deal of damage done on low lands. No bridges gone hereabouts that we learn of, though some have been damaged.

There were two Mormon Elders passed down the road leading from White's Store to Morven on last Saturday, scattering their Some sickness in this community since our

Our worthy Register of Deeds and daughter, Miss Minnie, was in attendance at our monthly services on last Sablath. Rev. G. O. Wilhoit preached at excellent sermon. Rev. J. H. Hildreth has an appointment for next Sabbath at Deep Creek. We learn of some gardens being damaged by the rains-leaves dropping off the beans and cabbage. Gen. Green is playing a good hand. It is reported that he has about captured some of the farms, or at least a portion of them. The inscription on his banner is victory or death.

Savannah Creek News.

Cupid certainly has one of our young men in his grasp. He walks in his sleep and cries aloud. Poor Jim! may your mind soon he at aloud. Poor Jim! may your mind soon he at aloud. been fuller than it has been in a good many Crops are looking fine considering the wet weather. We see that cotton is getting very grassy in some places along the Savanuah. Young corn is badly damaged in bottoms, but we think the prospect is very good yet. There is some sickness around. Mr. Marcus Gordon is very sick with typhoid fever. One of our Baptist brethren said while on his way to High Point last week the water swam his horse in the big road, and while crossing a branch in Union county he saw a raft of chinch bugs as long as a Whale. This Slimboy has been to your town since it has been dry. We never have seen things

Wharftown Items. The MESSENGER AND INTELLIGENCER has ound our lost boys up in the mountains and Toad frogs are worth five cents apiece in this town. They are used for bait to snake the cotton patches. Our people positively refuse to work any more—afraid of snakes. They say there is no cure for snake bites now. One poor fellow was seen this morning on a high stump laying by his crop, exhorting it to do the best it could; he could not venture into it.

This town came near going as Johnstown did last week. The levies on Boar Saw creek gave way under the heavy rains and the water came down in torrents, tore up trees, stumps, &c. More than one had to run to the hills. Corn fields were left like brick

Mr. Blizzard Honeycutt rode a black mul to this town one night recently, and the next morning it was as red as scarlet. Blizzard now has on the war paint and says he wants to fight a jury. The Beverly boys will please take down that construction on their base ball grounds. The people up here think it is a breast work, and they are making every preperation for

Rev. Mr. Wilson, of Norwood, preached an excellent sermon at the Log Cabin school house last Sunday.

Very sorry we were not at home last Sun day when Dr. Brown and family came to see us. Come again Doctor. One of our farmers have a cotton bloom in a tin box going around showing it for five

Mr. McSwain is digging a new well, at a depth of six feet, in hard rock, he has found a ten dollar wash pot. He won't tell whether it was full of gold or not. He wears a pleas-ant smile and has bought Mrs. Mc. a new rocking chair anyway. The pot is on exhi-

Mr. John Smith claims to have the finest horse in two counties. Nathan Smith, col., lay down on the floor with a half dollar piece in his mouth. He went to sleep, the inside safe door flew open, and down it went. It is thought that he also swallowed a wagon, as one is missing. Mrs. J. L. Austin and family, of Albemarle, are visiting at her mother's Mrs. E. C. Smith. Miss Mary Smith, of Laurinburg, was in town this week en rout for Albemarie. Is Dude one of those "split-headed dudes" which the Rey. Leitch spoke of while in your town a few weeks ago, or is he a College dude? He speaks of foot-ball playing in his town. Will he please explain some of the most interesting features of the game and let us know whether a Whale can play it or not, or is it a game for dudes only with patent applied for. Dudes are scarce up here. Our friend over the river had one to come up on his farm not long ago, and when the freshet came last week in the Boar Saw creek all the rabbits went to this dude, thinking he was a lighthouse on the coast of Rocky River, and all were swept away. Sad, very sad, but we hope our friend dude, of Morven, will not fail into such a wartery disappearance.

Capt. D. Hancock has the finest field of capt. D. Hancock has the finest field of corn in the county. He has about one hundred acres in one solid bottom in corn. It is very fine, and will average forty or fifty bushels to the acre. He is also a good miller—runs his mills himself, both by water and steam power. The Captain believes in having plenty of grain, and he loves to eat but it don't never to have not be effect or him. it don't seem to have much effect on his size.

Whale,

says that the time has arrived for the English speaking people of the world to take some steps towards uniting. He says the first step is to annex Canada to the United States, and then SHOE :-: LINE. Great Brtain, when she gets ready

The United States will not expend more than $6,400,000 in taking the

Everyone that has examined the WOODBURY FRUIT JARS says that they are superior to any and all other. You may put up 10,-000 jars of fruit and never loose one if you use the Woodbury Improved Jar. Our people are men and women ings, orchard, water, good neighbors, of sense, and when they see a good thing they know how to appreciate it. Long and high sounding advertisements co not catch them, but the Woodbury Improved Jar do s. The first lot nearly all sold and another lot on the road. 'Call Misses Hallie Little and Eula Grimsley are and examine them for yourselves and you will be sure to buy if you want a Jar that your fruit will never spoil in. For sale at

HUNTLEY'S DRUG STORE.

Executors' Notice.

E, the undersigned, have duly qualified before the proper Court in Anson County, North Carolina, as executors of the late Martin V. Horne, deceased, and we hereby notify all persons having claims against the estate of our testator to present the same to us for payment, on or before the 11th day of July, 1890, or this notice will bar their recovery. And all persons indebted to their recovery. And all persons indebted to the estate of our testator must pay the same to us at once. This 10th day of July, 1890. J. T. HORNE, T. B. ALLEN, Executors M. V. Horne, deceased.

For Sale.

25000 LBS. C. RIBS.

1000 BUSHELS CORN.

200 BBLS. FLOUR. 100 SACKS SALT.

40 BBLS, N. O. MOLASSES.

20 BBLS. SUGAR.

BAGS COFFEE.

Cotton Yarn, Sheeting, Plaids,

C. M. BURNS.

Presents in the most elegant form THE LAXATIVE AND NUTRITIOUS JUICE FIGS OF CALIFORNIA,

Combined with the medicinal virtues of plants known to be most beneficial to the human system, forming an agreeable and effective laxative to permanently cure Habitual Constipation, and the many ills depending on a weak or inactive condition of the

KIDNEYS, LIVER AND BOWELS. It is the most excellent remedy known to CLEANSE THE SYSTEM EFFECTUALLY When one is Bilious or Constipated

PURE BLOOD, REFRESHIRO SLEEP, HEALTH and STRENGTH Every one is using it and all are delighted with it.

ASK YOUR DRUGGIST FOR SYRUP OF FIGS MANUFACTURED ONLY BY CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP CO. SAN FRANCISCO, CAL. LOUISVILLE, KY. NEW YORK, N. Y.

We wish to call attention of our friends to the fact that in addition

General Merchandise.

made Pants, Hardware, &c., we are Ben Butler has a bright idea. He making every effort to please all the people in the

Have recently made a large addition to our stock of Shoes, and earnestly request that you call and examine same when you come to Wadesboro Respectfully, Bennett Bros.

For Rent or Lease. To the right man, I will rent or lease my GOULD FORK PLANTATION churches and schools. MRS. C. M. TILLMAN. Wadesboro High School

WADESBORO, N. C.

REV. C. H. MARTIN, (Graduate of Wake Forest College and the University of Virginia.)

FALL TERM BEGINS SEPTEMBER 3rd. Tuition.-$2, $3, and $4 per month.

Notice of Sale by Executors. We will sell to the highest bidder, for cash, on Saturday, July 20th, 1889, the wheat and out crops belonging to the late Uriah Staton, deceased, consisting of about one hundred bushels of grain, also a lot of wheat and oat straw, and a few other articles of personal property. Sale will take place at Staton's mill at 2 o'clock p. m. U. B. STATON, W. F. CRUMP, Executors of Uriah Staton, dec'd. July 1st, 1899. Baby Carriages.

A full assortment of BABY CARRIAGES has just been received by the undersigned. Can suit any teste and pocket. They are going cheap. Call and examine them.

W. T. HUTCHINSON. DR. ANSONS LIVER PILLS

Cure Sour Stomach, Indigestion, Headache, and a host of kindred diseases. Use them by all means. Only McLendon & Parsons.

THE FINEST SPECTACLES And Eye Glasses ever brought to Rocky River Springs Institute, Wadesboro-no cheap JOHN JEW GOODS-but the best PEBBLE made in all kinds of frame. Prices to suit everybody. Call and see them.

McLendon & Parsons.

Brick For Sale.

I now have for sale a large lot of the best

NOTICE.

The Racket Store.

Another big lot of GLASSWARE just received, comprising nearly everything needed by HOUSEKEFPERS. Also a big lot of Jelly Tumblers with covers, and the

MAGIC :-: FRUIT :-: JAR,

that we defy any other make to equal inconvenience, simplicity of construction, or durability, and in price. We sell them for 71-2 and 10 cents each.
We still have Harness, Saddles and Bridles which we propose to sell at WHOLESALE PRICES now as the times are hard and money scarce, We also are still running our with Miss Ila Fenton at the helm, and expect another big lot of goods of that line in this week. We are closing out our Spring and Summer Millinery at prices that surprise you. See us on that line before buying.

MILLINERY DEPARTMENT

We are adding every week to our stock of Dry Goods, Notions and Shoes, and if low figures will do the work we propose to do our part of it. We are selling any amount of goods. Why? Because we are willing to give full value for value received. All we ask of the people who come to Wadesboro is to give us a trial, and if we can't trade there is no harm done.

Respectfully submitted to the cash trade only. A. C. NICHOLS & CO.

PROPRIETORS.

New York Office 466 Broadway.

I have determined to close out my entire stock of FLOUR at once to make room for other things. If you want a BARGAIN call early.

I have the most complete line of Harness, Saddles, Bri-Groceries, Dry Goods, Notions, Ready dles, Whips &c., ever brought to this market.

> If you want a Road Cart, White Hickory Wagon or the best GIN in the world see me before buying.

> > Yours truly. L. J. HUNTLEY.

P S .-- I BELIEVE A LIGHT SPRINKLE OF GUANO ABOUT -YOUR CORN AND COTTON WOULD PAY. TRY IT

FRUIT JARS!

FRUIT JARS!

JUST :-: RECEIVED!

on very advantageous terms. Good build- other. Simple--anybody can use them. PRICE VERY LOW: W HOLESALE and RETAIL.

The best JAR made. The cheapest JAR made. Buy no

Scaars :-: Fruit :-: Powders! *************

Give Them a TRIAL. PLEASES ALL Who Use THEM

*IN + STOCK + TO-DAY.

2 gross Warner's medicines; 1 gross S. S. S.; 1 gross

Scotts Emulsion L. L. Oil; 1-2 gross Buils Cough Syrup; Hoods Sarsparilla; Kilmers Medicines (all he makes) and sold on the BEST OF TERMS. Every patent medicine used in this country. 1500 lbs. Railroad Mills Snuff; 30 gross package snuff; 25 boxes Laundry

Soap; 25 boxes Davis O. K. Baking Powdar; 5 barrels stick candy; ball Pot-

Yours for business, ash; Starch; Soda; Copperas; black l'epper; Spices; Cloves; Nutmegs, &c. Very lowest Wholesale and Retail prices given to merchants and consumers. Call on us before buying. OUR SODA FOUNTAIN IS IN FULL BLAST.

McLENDON Greensboro Female College, GREENSBORO, N. C.

--0-THE SIXTY-NINTH SESSION OF THIS well equipped and prosperous Institution

28th day of August, 1889. SUPERIOR ADVANTAGES are offered in all the departments of instruction usually pursued in Female Colleges of highest grade. Charges very moderate.

For Catalogue apply to Greensboro, N. C. MALE AND FEMALE.

T. M. JONES, President,

The healthiest location and cheapest High School in North Carolina.

Fall Term begins August 20th, 1889, and Spring Term begins January 15th, 1890.

Tuition in English department from $1 to $2.50 per month. Languages fifty cents per month extra. Music on piano or Organ $3.00 per month.

Board in Hatel, including washing, fuel, and lights, can be had for $7.50 per month, and in private families for $6, including washing, fuel and lights.
The Institute is located in 100 yards of even of the best mineral oprings in the State. For circulars, &c., address, rs. &c., address, H. S. Pickett, Principal, Silver, N. C. Executors Notice.

I have duly qualified in Anson Superior All persons are hereby warned not to hunt, dec'd. Persons having claims against the fish, or in any way tresspass upon my lands, one tract lying on Mill Creek and the other near Bethel Church, as the law will be en-ALBERT D. SINCLAIR.

Protect Your Eyes! HHIRSCHBERGS

& PARSONS.

PAT? JULY 111 1879. MR. H. HIRSCHBERG, the well-known Optician of 10. N. Fourth Str., [under Planters House] St. Louis, has appointed Dr. A. B. Huntiey, of Wadesboro, as Agent for his celebrated Diamond Spectacles and Eye-glasses, and also for his Diamond Non-Changeable Spectacles and Eyeglasses, These Hasses are the greatest invention ever made in Spectacles. By a proper construction of the Lens a person purchasing a pair of these Non-Changeable Glasses never has to change these Glasses from the eyes, and every pair purchased are guaranteed, so that if they ever leave the eyes [no matter how rusted or scratched the Lenses are] they will furni the party with a new pair of Glasses free charge.

EYEGLASSES.

Dr. A. B. Huntley has a full assortment and invites all who wish to satisfy them-selves of the great superiority of these Glas-ses over any and all others now in use, to call and examine the same at Dr. A. B. HUNTLEY'S Drug Store, at Wadesboro, N.C.

Neuralgic Persons And those troubled with nervousness resulting from care or overwork will be relieved by taking Brown's Iron Bitters. Genuine has trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper.