

Inson Institute, WADESBORO, N. C.

A. MCGREGOR, A B PRINCIPAL. THE FALL TERM BEGINS MONDAY, SEPT. 5TH, 1892. TOTTION IN LITEBARY DEPARTMENT-$2, and $4 per month. Pr No deduction made for lost time.

W. A. ROSE, ENERAL INSURANCE AGENT Represents the leading Fire and Life Insur-co Companies. morrow." Mice-Martin Street, Wadesbore, N. C. 6 how the day had gone in that quarter. Before he had finished speaking, John D. ROBINSON, EE ATTORNEY AND COUNCELLOB-AT-LAW, WADESBORO, N. C. l business given prompt attention

W. F. GRAY, D. D. S., DENTIST, (Office Over L. Huntley's Store,)

The colonel started violently at the ound of the young man's voice, and said, hastily: 'Your voice sounds strangely familiar to me, and yet you must be a stranger to ma."

and in a natural tone of voice.

as long as I have memory. I am John Hewson commander's staff."

"Captain."

headquarters."

hard pressed.

law.

colonel was disappointed in his son-in-

"Impossible, colonel. I must report at once, as soon as the duty is done."

CHAPTER XIX.

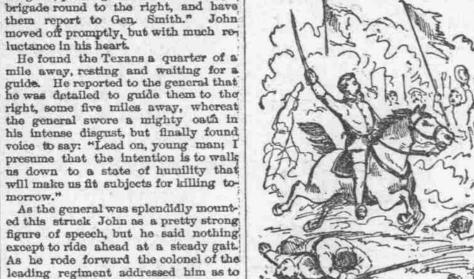

THE SECOND DAY.

feeling:

they are hurt."

John's heart smote him as he thought said: "Capt. Hewson, you seem the least of his wicked wish toward Lanvale, and fatigued, please guide Gen. Wheatley's recognized Col. Gregory's voice, but conhe remembered how gallantly Lanvale trolled his feelings and answered quietly was battling when he last saw him. Irishman lying side by side. Henry general of the army, or a department

HE BODE LIKE A CENTAUR.

"Not a stranger to you, Col. Gregory, had spitted the Irishman with his commander, from headquarters at sword, and in return had been run Charleston, S. C., might see fit in his

I regard the situation as most in business, and, in every conceivable justice would burst into the dawn of expense of the many.

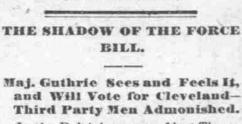

of my health aud earnestly believing State, county and township in the that the questions to be decided by United States, with its control of one our November election are of vital branch of Congress, and comprising importance to the public welfare, I in the popular vote a large majority did begin to combine they had the am induced to contribute, in this of all the people in the Union, being way, my share in the discussion of not strong enough heretofore to effect reform for which it has labored and wished, being without the Senate critical. Since 1860 the legislation of and Executive; they claim the only our country has been almost exclu- chance for reform is to vote for the sively within the power of one candidates of this Third party, whose political party. Naturally it has existence in the national government ble complaint, ceased to be general in its beneficence and power to control its legislation and has become local and partial in are evidenced by three or four memthe extreme. The law making power bers of the House of Representatives has become the fearfully efficient and two in the Senate! Common implement of such classes, corpora. sense and self-preservation would tions, cliques and combinations as seem to dictate that we should help could by fair means or foul obtain the Democrats, who are almost in control of it. It has been made to power, to get altogether in power, subserve purely personal ends. In and trust them to correct abuses as divers ways the taxing power of the they have promised. One strong pull government has been perverted from at the polls in November next would public to private purposes, and give them control of both branches moneys levied thereby to enrich of Congress and the Executive, and manufacturers, to suppress rivalry the long night of misrule and in-way, to help the favored few at the a new and better day. It would be

and all similar attempts to destroy know, I never ceased to expose its inqualities and to advise the farmers the rights and liberties of the States. to organize to resist it. When they In all essential reforms he agrees with me except in the single matter of the free coinnge of silver, and in sympathy and good wishes of almost every just man in the United States respect to this, there is reason to hepe that the same candor and vigorous who was not in some way the recipient of the plunder arising from this investigation which brought him in full sympathy with his party on the abuse. Never was there a political movement of our people founded great question of tatiff reform will upon better grounds or more resona- soon bring him to see the absolute necessity of maintaining both of the

But that which I feared and warn- precious metals on a par, to meet the ed them against soon came to pass. urgent needs of the currency of the world, Harrison, on the contrary, Men who had little interest in agriculture, and much interest in their agrees with me in nothing. There is no chance or reform which I desire own fortunes, aspired to be its leaders. to which he is not bitterly opposed, Often men who had failed to obtain office from either of the old political and his party with him. Why then parties, concluded to FARM THE should I hesitate? Either my vota FARMERS and raise personal crops of for Weaver will help Harrison and injure Cleveland or it will not; it caunonor and profit out of them. They not avail Weaver, for he has no pressed to the front, thrust real farmers aside and involved the Allis chance whatever-will probably not ance in the wildest and most imprac- carry a single State. Why, then, ticable propositions ever heard of should I risk my doing a damage to among sane men; and, in defiance of the candidate who would do most for their constitution soon converted it me, though he does not promise to time enough to leave them and form into a mere political party, composed do all, and contribute to the election The varied corrupting influences a new party when they had been of the discontented and the disap- of the one who promises me nothing but an indefinite sing no fixed political principles or isting wrongs and an insolent threat regard for the constitution of their of other and greater wrongs as soon country, but striving only to obtain as he has the power to perpetrate the very worst of class legislation, them?'

In the Raleigh papers of last Thurslay is a communication from Maj. W. A. Guthrie, of Durham, who was nominated for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court by the State convention of the People's party, but declined. He sees the danger that threatens the South and re unites himself with the Democratic party. Following is a part of his communi cation:

I myself in 1868 voted with the Republican party for the reconstruction of the Southern States under the act of Congress of March 2, 1867, which put the ballot in the hand of the negro, and I did so as a choice of evils between civil government with As his duty tid not call him there, negro suffrage, and military governand there was a lull in the fighting, he ment with no suffrage at all, and just rode back, looking for Henry and Lan- such laws for our government as a Wadesboro, North Carolina. ALL OPERATIONS WARRANTED.

T. J. INGRAM. Corner Wade and Rutherford streets, WADESBORO, N. C., Ill continue to furnish his patrons with

BEEF utton, Pork, Poultry, Butter,

Eggs, Fresh Oysters, Fish, Fruits and Vegetables, nd whatever else can satisfy the appetit f a gentleman-always giving the best the urket affords .- I will pay the highest maret price for Cows Hogs, Sheep, Chicken.

ags. Stc., Stc. Dress :: Making.

-0-I would respectfully inform my friends and patrons that I am prepared to draft paper patterns at short notice and at onable prices. Also that I have reduced my price on dresses. Can be found at my residence next to Mrs. Hutchinson. Mrs. F. E. DROWN.

WADESBORO Shaving Emporium.

Ay Barber Shop is now furnished with the INEST and most COMFORTABLE Chairs any town in this section, and all who wish over. tice, bloodless shave will find mealways at my post, with a steady hand and a desire to please. Hair cut or trimmed in all the latest ityles, and we guarantee to please the most Eben Tillman is now with me and will be leased to serve all his old patrons. Respectfully, Ralph Allen.

Granville Institute, OXFORD, N. C.,

Boarding and Day School for Girls and Young Ladies.

Proprietor, REV. F. W. HILLIARD, Visitor, REV. W. W. WALKER.

PRINCIPLES: MDS MARGARET BURGWYN HILLIARD. Woman's College, Baltimore. MISS KATHARINE HAVEN HILLIARD,

A. B., Woman's College, Baltimore. edstrength and were fighting desperately. John stopped a few moments to Instruction in English Branches, Musisee how matters were going, when he Vocal and Instrumental), Art, German, French and Latin.

TERMS VERY MODERATE.

enemy who had just repulsed a similar For catalogues and full particulars apply charge of another regiment. They were met with equal resolution and for until August Ist., to the Rev. F. W. Hilliard, Sparrow Point, Md.; after that date to the Misses Hilliard, Granville Institute, Oxford, a few minutes all was confusion and stubborn fighting. Then the superior

Ripans Tabules cure the blues. Ripans Tabules : pleasant laxative. Ripans Tabules : for torpid liver. Ripans Tabules. Ripans Tabules cure jaundice. Rinans Tabules cure scrofula

CHILD BIRTH . . . • • • MADE EASY!

"MOTHERS' FRIEND " is a scientifically prepared Liniment, every ingre-dient of recognized value and in constant use by the medical profession. These ingredients are com-repulsed were reforming their shatgenerous and loyal soul. If in her MOTHERS more brought the 'gingerbread gun The Democrats re affirm their ad- there are very few other white men and then refuse to abide by the to his shoulder. But it did not 'wob dy can't cure you, no matter how red ranks close to him heart of hearts she made a comparison, Throwing off his cap and drawing his not favorable to her husband, and rehad or of how long standing your herence to the constitution, their of North Carolina who are outside of decision of the tribunal of our own ble this time. He put a bullet in the catarrh in the head may be, sword he rode up to them like a flamgretted for a moment the mistake she opposition to tariff robbery, to bank- the penitentiary or who ought to be selection then there is an end of all exact centre of the target, then shot The makers are the World's Dis ing centaur. had made, who shall blame her? pensary Medical Association, of Buf ing monopoly and to corporate op- outside, who entertain sentiments so personal honor among men, and the two more through the same hole, fale, N. Y. They are known to every newspaper publisher and every drug gist in the land, and you can easily desire to have the power to control that under Democratic rule they combined effort is gone forever. The Davy Crockett, came the reply, John paid Henry a visit, and cheered In a voice that rung like a bugle he WILL DO all that is claimed for shouted: "Men, shall our comrades be up that young man mightily by assur-It AND MORE. It Shortens Labor, ing him that they would certainly make destroyed before our eyes and our help Lessens Pain, Diminishes Danger to gist in the land, and you can easily ascertain that their word's as good as elections where the constitution left have had good laws, low taxes, man who bets, proposing to collect if and the party adjourned to the nearhim a captain. be withheld? Let every brave man fol-Life of Mother and Child, Book When Janet asked her husband if she their boud. it, and where it has resided for more economy and purity in the adminis- he wins and to repudiate if he loses, est saloon without another word." bow me." to " MOTHERS " mailed FREE, con-Without waiting to see the effect of should have Capt. Hewson in to see raining valuable information and You wind your watch once a day. than one handred years. Primarily, tration of their affairs, and I hope is in all countries among all classes of his words he started forward. His sud-him, he broke out into bitter imprees-Your liver and bowels should act as it would seem that no Democrat, and and believe they will not lightly risk prople considered a dishoneat man. Joseph Ruby, of Columbia, Pa., voluntary testimonials. den and striking appearance and stir-ring appeal electrified the emotional "I suppose you will all make fools of. suffered from birth with scrofula Gent by express on receipt of price $1.50 per bottle The key is-Dr. Pierce's Pleasant especially Southern Democrat, could its overthrow by casting uscless or But if the considerations of good humor, till he was perfectly cured by DRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., Allanta, GL southerners, and with a wild yell tha yourselves now over that ill-bred ani- Pellets. One a dose. faith do not hill suco men's actions Hood's Sarsaparilla. heaitate a single moment as to which I hopeless votes in Noven ber. BOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

The colonel reached out his hand in the darkness and grasped the young hurt man's as he spoke in a voice shaken with A little way off Lanvale was lying in-

"My lad, my lad, I am glad to see you. I feared I should never again see you. And you have turned soldier, too. I told the folks at home that you were solid metal. With what command are, you serving?"

"I am at present attached to the corps" Gregory detailing the facts and rode away to the left where he expected to "Then you are a commissioned offifind the general

CHAPTER XX. IN RICHMOND,

"Jerusalemi but you are climbing. I knew it was in you, lad, but I did not: For the remainder of that bloody know it could so soon get out. Well, I week, John had no time to think of personal matters. In the saddle eighteen am glad. I did not think this terrible war would ever let me feel glad again. hours daily, hungry and thirsty, riding recklessly through the tangled and but I know now that I have some natural swampy woods, amid dead and dying feeling left. But Henry and my son-inmen, with every pathway strewn with law are both in my regiment, and you the wreckage and red with the carnage must see them before you go back to of cruel war, often shuddering and sad. I do that all other party differences but never faltering, our hero put aside pale into insignificance when con-John noticed that the kindly man spoke rather constrainedly of "my sonall selfish feelings and with an eye single to his duty obeyed the orders of his in-law," and felt in a moment that the chief without hesitation or question. He heard nothing more of Col. Greg- sentiments on this subject, standing ory, though he knew that his command now where I did in 1868. I shall cast was hotly engaged in several of the battles. After the last disastrous strug-As they rode along the colonel got by. gle at Malvern Hill, when there came a hull, he got leave of absence for a day dint of hard questioning a pretty accurate record of John's adventures after and went up to Richmond to look up leaving Texas, and in return gave John his friends. Knowing that the woman a succinct account of everything that had transpired and exacted a promise he loved had married another man, it did not occur to this single-minded, from him to yisit his wife and daughter in Richmond after the campaign was loyal man, either to whine, or to feel entmity. He resolved if they would per- judicial office in your gift. I thanked As John rode back to beadquarters mit it to drop back into the old relationhis mind was in a maze of thought, out ship, and to watch for any opportunity to serve them.

which he evolved only one definite idea, and that was that he hated Lanvale and When he walked up to their door in hoped he would be killed. At two Richmond, he was perfect master of o'clock he reported at headquarters, himself. The colonel, who had also prothrew himself down on the ground and cured leave, met him at the door with cordial welcome and called loudly to his slept as only a thoroughly tired man. wife to come and take a look at his other soldier boy. Mrs. Gregory came out of and generally believed, broken faith Henry's room hurriedly, and for a mo-At six o'clock in the morning, he was appearance; but eatching the affectionin the saddle, and from that until ten ate gleam of the unchanageably honest o'clock was in a rush of orders. At that eyes, exclaimed, as she embraced him: hour the fighting was getting warm, "Ah, John, I am so glad you cannot bill with its attendant evils and the and news from the right was not favorchange your eyes, as you have your able. The general sent John back with face with that great beard, and ohl I orders to a Georgia brigade a mile or so am so glad that the colone! and you in the rear to reinforce the right, and have come through these dreadful batto guide them. It was nearly noon tles unhurt. The colonel could tell us when they arrived at the scene of the nothing about you and we feared the heavy fighting and found the right saw Col. Gregory's regiment make a He found them all very much occudesperate charge on a body of the pied with the two wounded men, and after a few minutes Mrs. Gregory went out to see how things were going with them. While she was out of the room, ed by orders from the headquarters John learned from the colonel that of a military chieftain such as our Henry was doing well, and would rocover rapidly, but that Lanvale seemed through by the Irishman's bayonet. | fancy to prescribe for the people of Both were seriously, if not mortally, North Carolina. I voted with the Republican party in 1868 to get rid sensible. He had been cut down by a of the military. Could I consistently saber blow from a field officer and noth- vote in 1892 for men and measures ing but his cap had saved him from incalculated to bring the military back? stant death; as it was, he had an ugly, While negro suffrage alone has wound which might prove fatal. John turned out to be bad enough in all saw them safely in the hands of the conscience, I don't want to supplefield surgeon, sent a hasty note to Col.; ment it now, with possible and even probable military rule on top of it.

John's eyes glistened at the good The federals had developed unexpectlady's affectionate greeting, and the proof of loving thoughtfulness in inquiring about him, as if he had been truly one of the family.

We have had enough reconstruction of the South for one generation at least. I for one believe to day in the doctrine advocated by Mr. Lincoln in 1860, even though it be given the color of law, that the 'lawless invasion by armed force of any State no matter under what pretext, is among the gravest of crimes.' Believing as sidered side by side with this, and as the only hope of giving effect to my my vote in this election for Mr. Cleveland in preference to Mr.

Harrison. A word to you, my People's party friends. A few weeks ago you ten dered me, without my solicitation, your nomination for the highest you then and I still feel and shall ever feel grateful to you for this manifestation of confidence, though I had to decline it. Since then the with you and put up a State ticket. turning over our State government to men who favor the national force vote of North Carolina might decide that contest. Let me beseech you as patriots, rebuke that spirit by your votes and let us stand together and maintain inviolate the rights of the States which are "essential to that balance of power on which the per fection and endurance of our political power, once subverted and destroyed, we may bid a long farewell to the constitutional republic. We may expect, too, in its stead to be govern eyes have seen in this Southland not

WM. A. GUTHRIE.

Those who believe that Dr. Sage's

If you happen to be one of those who don't believe, there's a matter upon the business world arising from tried and had proved faithless. this legislation produced their natural But the leaders of this new party. effect. The classes whose business falsoly called the "People's" insist was thus favored, flourished apace, that you shall abandon the D mowhilst the unfavored have experi cratic party now and vote with them. enced in the midst of peace and plenty I am grieved to know that there are which is their sole idea of statesmanail the losses and hardships com- quite a number of our fellow-citizens ship. monly felt only in time of public in North Carolina who propose to calamity; and the extraordinary follow that advice. It strikes me as spectacle is presented of a nation the very extreme of unwisdom, and, whose aggregate wealth is rapidly when done with a full knowledge of and vasily increasing whilst the in- the consequences, it ceases to be mere dividual wealth of its chief toilers folly and becomes a crime. For, and wealth producers is diminishing whatever may be the hopes or the in proportion thereto. wishes of these men, they know as From the Republican party, with well as they know of their own exisits disregard of the limitations of the tence, that this party has not only constitution and its natural depend no chance of electing their candidates ence for support upon the money of at the polls, but also none of throwthe people whom it has enriched, all ing the election into the House of of this corrupt legislation has pro- Representatives, about which they ceeded. Without it, there was noth appear to be most sanguine.

ing evil done that was done. It Let no man be deceived about this. follows as an undeniable truth, that The handful of votes which will be whoever directly or indirectly upcast for Weaver in this State, be it as holds, helps or supports that party is large as they can honestly claim, a friend to the corruptions which it cannot wrest the electoral yote from has produced, and is an enemy to both Cleveland and Harrison, so as those who would repeal that legisla- to help throw the choice into the tion and reform the abuses founded House. It is abaurd to hope so; but upon it. There is no escape from thirty thousand (30,000) votes taken from Cleveland and given to Weaver

The Democratic party, on the con- will throw the vote, not indeed into tray, believes in the strict limitations a Democratic House, but into the of the constitution, and has as a par | hands of Harrison.

that noble class of men who, under This result is so plain that the Rety steadily opposed all abuse to the the providence of God, give us our taxing power, or any other power of publican leaders, notwithstanding daily bread, will ever consent to this the general government for private their professions to the contrary. degradation of their cause into the Republican managers who hold the purposes; and has unceasingly advo- determined to not let slip the opporobsequious tool of unscrupulous, am-Republican party in North Carolina cated the most absolute and perfect tunity, and they are now ready with bitious men, forfeiting the sympathy by the throat, have, as it is reported equality of all citizens in the legisla- full tickets and a complete organizaof all moderate people, and making tion of our country. There is not a tion, to avail themselves of everythe very name of Alliance to stink in single wrong or injustice of which thing which the dissension and folly the nostrils of justice and common ment was bewildered by John's changed The danger now confronts you of complaint is made in our laws for of our people may throw into their sense, 1 can but believe that the good judgment of our farmers will enable them to see where there leaders are taking them, and that their draw back in time to save their

Indeed, it is so plain that no intellagent man can fail to see it, or an honest one deny it, that the only proba

Now, what is the situation? What ble, not to say pos-ible, result to the thing, and the duty of a true man is it the manifest duty of our people Third party movement in North after that nomination has been fairly to do in the coming elections? The Carolina this fall will be to elect a made, is another and very diftwo great political parties into which full Republican State ticket and to ferent thing indeed. In the one case our people are mainly divided are aid in the election of a R-publican a preference may be indulged prop once more in the field with their President and House of Representa- erly, without danger to the princip es

It seems to me, fellow citizens, that the path of duty was never more

Their proposition to purchase and plain or the necessity of walking in control all the lines of transportation it more imperative than it is at this and telegraph in the United States.

are approaching that state of dema goguism and communism which mark

a people as unfit for self-government.

Rest assured that no real friend of verted and debased.

ountry.

Let me beg your carnest consideraat the expense of many billions of tion of the situation before you vote dollars, and of refunding to the soldiers the difference between paper in November; and before you cut and gold at the date of their pay- loose from the old, constitutional ment, at least a billion more; of Democratic party, which in times of loaning people money on real estate our extreme peril has so often at lower rates of interest than the brought us forth out of the nonbondage, and abandon its shintng market rates, and kindred schemes, banner to follow reckless and incomare so prepostcrous that to argue them seriously is a slander upon our petent men into the wilderness of civilization; and the advocacy of such their unreal schemes. Think well of measures by the hitheto most con- the possible result of your action; servative element of our society is a how easy it is to destroy-how hard notification to all the world that we to rebuild.

I recently cut down in my mountain forest in about five hours, a tree that had taken five hundred years to My unfaltering confidence is in the grow. The Democratic party is true farmers of North Carolina, who, strong and able and willing to help as members of that Alliance, will, I you. Its arm is not shortened that trust, not permit their noble order it cannot save you. To cherish and and their just cause to be thus per- uphold it is the dictate of patriotism and common sence.

Your fellow citizen. Z B. VANCE. Gombroon," near Black Mountain, Sept, 17th, 1892.

Davy Crockett and His Gun, St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

'I once saw Davy Crockett clean up a crowd of crack shots,' said Judge Asa Musgorve, one of the early 'paths finders,' who is an route to his home in Norther Indiana. 'It was in 1834, shortly before the outbreak of the war between Texas and Mexico, I was in Sauta Fe, N. M. A party of a native honesty will impel them to dozen or more were shooting at a target with rifles, when a stranger rode up, threw his leg across the Many of our people, it is true, have pommel of his saddle, and watched objected to Mr. Cleveland, and prethe sport. He had a long rifle strap. ferred that he should not have been ped across the back of his saddle, one nominated. I confess that I was of those old fashioned affairs, heavily among that number. But an ornamented with silver. He was inindividual preterence before the clined to criticise the shooting, and nomination of a candidate is one was invited to set the pace. He replied that he never threw away any ammunition, but that if they would put up their crack shot he would shoot with him for ten Mexican dollars.

weight of the enemy began to tell. The Thecrowd agreed, and the stranger to make no progress, which he (the very many years ago, I myself platforms of principle and their can- tives. What is to be gained by that we profess or the party which has Texans commenced giving ground, very inslung his 'gingerbread gun,' as his didates, State and Federal, thereon. result I need not ask. How the re slowly at first, but with constantly acthose principles in charge; in the colonel) believed was due to the fel would prefer the very worst system opponent dubbed it. 'Perhaps y'd celerated speed. He saw the colonel low's "cantankerous" disposition, as he of civil government to the best from The Republican profess all of their forms which they profess to desire other case we endanger both and liket' raise the betl' said the stranger, and Lanvale making frantic appeals to old doctrines from which have come are to be obtained through Republican falsify our pretension by contribu expressed it. as he ambled up to the crowd. It of military depotism the men not to retreat. He saw, and Janet came in, somewhat embarwas doubled, then trebled. He then the evils of which the people com success is something which surpasses ting undeniably to the success of our groaned as he saw it, the colonel and rassed in manner, and looking very offered to bet his gun against that of plain; they glory in that abuse of the human conjecture. No true friend of adversaries. his horse go down, and shouted joyfulworn. John met her with a cheerful his opponent. The wager was acly as the next minute he saw the galtaxing power, which has made a few this Common wealth, I am sure, will If we refuse to abide by the voice cordiality that, soon put her at ease, and cepted, and the stranger brought his lant colonel on foot, cheering on his of the majoricy of our fellow Demos rifle to his shoulder. The muzz a then the baby was brought in and rich and millions poor; and, seeking contribute to this result. men. He felt that his wicked wish about straightway made friends with him, Catarrh Remedy will cure them are new fields of injustice and oppression, It is reported that a prominent crats freely and unmistakably ex-'wobbled' badly, and some one cried Lanvale was likely to be gratified, and which she proved by tugging most unout that he was going to shoot a circle more liable to get well than those who they openly declare their intention to candidate on the ticket of the Third pressed in friendly convention, there all in a moment the wickedness of it mercifully at his beard. The young around the target. The stranger came to him. He tingled with shame don't. take from the States the right to party says he had rather submit to is an end of all associated party mother in looking at the honest, strong lowered his gun and offered to wayer down to his very toes and in a second control the election of their own rep | negro or any other kind of rule than effort in the government of our his horse against forty Mexican dotface, with eyes kindled into animation his resolution was taken. of $500 to help your faith. It's for resentatives, which is the chief bul- such as we have at present; but I am country: if we personally participate lars on the result. His proposition at the baby's antics, felt ashamed that The Texans who had previously been she had ever abused or doubted such a you if the makers of Dr. Sage's rem- wark of their rights and liberties. forced to believe that, if this be true, in that consultation or convention was promptly accepted, and he once bined in a manner hitherto unknown

this

thirty years past, which can justly laps. Their promises to run no State be charged to the Democratic party. Licket were manifestly made with NOT ONE. It has ever been a break- the intention of alluring a Third water against the tyrannical tenden- party ticket into the field, trusting cies of the Republicans; and, though that when men get hot and bad blood in a minority, has been able to pre prevailed, they might walk off with vent some of the worst legislation the prize in both State and Federal ever attempted and to modify other elections. AlasI that want of reflec laws which in their original iniquity tion or patriotism should render this would have been intolerable. This ucheme a probable success. statement of the acts and purposes of

be trutbfully denied.

faith depends." That balance of the two great political parties caunot