

A Skin Disease

In a Terrible Condition with Scrofula Sores

Took Hood's Sarsaparilla and is better than for 10 years.

"I had a skin disease which was very troublesome. I took a great deal of strong medicine which did not do me any good and I was at last obliged to give up. I was in a sort of stupor some of the time. Scrofula sores broke out and I could get nothing to do me any good. My daughter told me of a woman who was afflicted as I was and who found relief in Hood's Sarsaparilla. I concluded to try this medicine. At that time I was in a terrible condition with sores on my head and body. The first few doses of Hood's Sarsaparilla seemed to give me relief, and in a short time the sores began to heal. My appetite improved and I felt like a new man. I am now in better health than for 10 years." S. M. GRIFFIN, Wadesboro, Fairfield Co., Little River, South Carolina.

A CRY FOR RESCUE.

A SOUTHERN WOMAN'S PLEA.

A Lady of Eastern North Carolina Pictures the Dreadful Conditions in that Section of the Fair State Under Negro Supremacy, Brought About by Greedy Politicians Who Have Sold Their Soul for Gold--White Girls Who Teach School Must go to Negro School Committees for Their Pay--How Would Western Men Like Their Wives to be Arrested by Negro Constables and Tried by Negro Magistrates?

A Southern Woman, in Charlotte Observer.

Men and women of North Carolina, to the rescue! They tell me it is waste of time to appeal to a Republican for help. The idea in eastern Carolina is that there is not one on the face of the earth that would not drag men and women and children to perdition and hurl them in for ten cents per head. That is why the very name is a stench in their nostrils, but I have reason to know that there are men in western Carolina, and amongst them to save us from a degradation worse than death, who would not vote for fusionists if they knew what it means to us.

It would be useless to speak of the disgraceful acts perpetrated in our State capital two years ago; the very prince of darkness might well shirk the reading of such a record. I will only speak of the effects of some of their actions on us. How would you like for that fair young daughter of yours to have to get permission from three negroes to teach the white free white school? We have to submit to it and they have to go to a negro to get their wages. Every school in Vance county is under negro rule, directly or indirectly. The superintendent appoints three negroes, and two white men, for the committee, or if there is a white man men; enough to vote against his race, he puts him and two negroes in. Last spring the appropriation for free schools in this township was somewhere about $300. The three negroes divided it thus: Seventeen dollars for the white school and the remainder to the black.

One of the white men complained to the superintendent and he said: "Go back and tell them if they do not allow you more than that I will appoint another committee." Then they agreed for themselves to invest in the State of North Carolina, and management of estates for Guardians, Administrators, and Executors.

IN DEFENCE OF REV. JESSE H. PAGE.

Mr. H. A. Gilleland an Honest Populist, Resents the Insolent Attack of a Negro Upon the Good Minister, and Calls Upon White Men to Steer Clear of Trafficking in Principles.

To the Editor of The Charlotte Observer: I am an old man, a peaceable man and have always lived an honest man. Never in my life have I taken any active part in political affairs and I should not do so now if it were not in defence of my dear old pastor, Jesse H. Page, when I see him assailed by a negro who does not care for the feelings of the white people. Oh! ye Republican office-seekers! Cloth your wives and children in purple and fine linnen and let them fare sumptuously every day. Build palatial homes to shelter them with your ill-gotten gains, but as sure as the sun shines in the blue canopy of Heaven you will see the time that all your money will not shield you from the worm that dieth not, and the fire that is not quenched. And you Populists--poor, pitiful jackals, crawling after the Republican party, if perchance you may find some fragments on the bones of truth and honor, and justice, with which to glaze yourselves--may God have more mercy on you than you have had on us when the day of reckoning comes!

On the back of everything else, nine-tenths of our postoffices are kept by the most contemptible negroes that you can find in the State. They have turned out widows with no other means of making a living, and honorable white men that gave every satisfaction to all concerned, and put in negroes, that have not sense enough to know to which end of the road a letter ought to go. Persons send letters to the office to go off in haste, and perhaps in a week the same letter will come back to them, never having left the office at all. If it is a matter of life and death, sometimes you can't get your mail from the office till it is a week old, though you ask for it every day and regular office hours here to go all over the village to find the post-negro to open the office and let you have your mail. It is not safe for any young lady to go to the office without a body guard. And what is all this for? Why must we suffer such things? Veil your faces, oh ye angels, while I write! Simply because some men, made in the image of God, want to get his hand in the public treasury to steal the hard earnings of farmers and other business men in North Carolina. Every one of them has stood in the presence of God and man and angels and sworn to protect the constitution of the United States, but they care not that they stand perjured. They care for nothing but money and power. The cries of the oppressed is music in their ears. God pity them! God pity them!

We rejoice in the prosperity of the colored race--are always glad to know of any good fortune that may come to any colored man, but they are too ignorant to rule us, or even themselves, and no one desires such a state of things, except some one who is lost to every good impulse--one that has given himself to Satan for a certain amount of money. There is little doubt in the minds of any one who understands the situation that there will be blood shed unless there is a material alteration in political affairs in the extreme eastern counties, and the brand of Cain will not sit lightly on the brows of politicians, hardened sinners though they be. If I could die to day, and save my mother State from the horrors that threaten her, I think I would willingly lay down my life to save her, but that would not avail anything; so I appeal to you, honest, faithful Christian men, both white and black, to help us; and may the Supreme Ruler of this Universe bless you in your store, your children and grandchildren, your body and your soul, as you listen to the prayer of

A SOUTHERN WOMAN.

Cigarette Stops a Wedding.

Midville, Neb., Dispatch, 18th.

Because her fiancé, Harry Keldar, detected the odor of cigarette smoke on her breath he left Miss Geneva Ransom at the altar, where they stood, awaiting to be married. He had previously discovered that she smoked, but she had promised him that she would discontinue the habit. Shortly before the hour set for the marriage one of the bridesmaids offered her a cigarette and she smoked it. As the clergyman commenced the ceremony, Keldar sniffed suspiciously. He leaned forward with his face close to the bride's.

"You've been smoking again!" he exclaimed.

Miss Ransom vouchsafed no reply. Without another word Keldar turned and walked out of the house. The bride fainted. The bridegroom's friends hurried out to bring him back. But Keldar wouldn't go. Nor would Miss Ransom have accepted him had he changed his mind. The match has been declared off.

EXCITED NEGROES TO ASSAULT.

The Infamous Speech of a Republican in Richmond County.

Laurens, N.C., Oct. 21.--The Republican county candidates, in company with a white Republican by the name of Henry Covington, are now making the county canvass. Yesterday Covington spoke at Old Hundred and made a villainous speech. He told the negroes they were the best race of people on earth. He also told them that when our white girls return from colleges and schools the negroes are usually employed to look after them and drive them about over the country, he added: "If I were in your places I would put my arms around them."

To-day they were billed to speak at Mason's Cross roads, near here. The best citizens of Gibson, Laurens, and Laurens, and the community generally, resolved that they would not have a repetition of the occurrence. So they were promptly met by three hundred of our most determined citizens, and advised to make no more infamous speeches in lower Richmond.

As for Covington, he was made to stand upon a buggy and retract, saying he was sorry for what he said, and promising never to do so again. He was then put in his buggy and told to hit the grit, which he did.

Dead Bodies--A Misrepresentation.

Charlotte Observer.

This is from The Asheville Register, a Republican paper.

"It is reported that Mr. Craig, the Democratic nominee for the Legislature in this county, has been misrepresenting the law relative to the delivery of certain dead bodies to the medical institutions of the State. Mr. Craig tells the people, so it is said, that the law of 1897 provides that the bodies of those who die in the almshouses and insane asylums are given to the medical schools; and on this misrepresentation makes a pitiful appeal. Now we are willing for the truth to be developed, and will stand or fall by it. The law of 1897 provides that the bodies of criminals who die in jails and prison hospitals, and who have been executed for crime shall be given to the medical schools. If, however, the bodies of these criminals are claimed by relatives who will inter them at their own expense, the authorities are required to deliver them to their kin people. The law applies only to the bodies of criminals who die in jails and prison hospitals, and who are executed for crime, and only then when the expense of burial must be borne by the State or county. The unfortunate in the poor house or the insane asylum is as secure from the operations of this act as the wealthiest family in the county, and Mr. Craig knows it."

They Will Come Back.

News and Observer.

Judge Hines, of Atlanta, who, as the Populist candidate for Governor, received the highest number of votes any Populist ever received in Georgia, sees that there must be an end to his party in the South, and he proposes a pleasant way for all Populists to get back home. Here is his idea:

"In the next State election I am willing to let the Democrats and Populists run separate tickets in a white primary. If the Democratic ticket gets the most votes in such a primary, let the Populists retire, and the Democrats have an open field. If the Populists carry the day in such a primary, let the Democrats retire from the field, and not oppose the Populist nominees."

"I am willing to extend this method to Congressmen and other officials."

BLACKBURN'S FATAL ADMISSION.

"No White Man of Property or Respectability Will Live in a Community Dominated by Negroes."

Senator Pritchard was not the only Republican oratorical pebble on the beach in Statesville this week. Assistant District Attorney E. Spencer Blackburn was his forerunner, he having spoken at the court house Tuesday evening. Blackburn is noted for his attempted sky-scraping oratory, his poses and his utter recklessness of statement. Life is short and space in The Landmark is valuable, therefore we didn't follow Mr. Blackburn's speech, but in the course of his remarks he made one startling admission which deserves notice. He was complaining about the Democratic speakers were doing the State great damage by representing that communists were governed by negroes. "What worse could you do for Statesville," he exclaimed, "than to let it be known abroad that the town was dominated by negroes and controlled by negro officers? No white man of respectability or property would come and locate among you!"

That's it, Mr. Blackburn. That's the Democratic argument, and you didn't think how it sounded when you made it. What white man of respectability or property wants to live in a community controlled by negroes, as you say; and yet your crowd turned over Greenville, New-Berne, Wilmington and other towns and communities to them. Even if there are a few white men in office in these places the negroes control them.

And Senator Pritchard in his speech bemoaned the fact that this negro cry was damaging the reputation of the State and working harm by creating race antagonism. Who made it possible, pray! Does any sane man suppose that the white people of the east who pay the taxes and own the property are going to sit quiet and be controlled by negroes put over them by Senator Pritchard's friends? No; and when they resent what has been done for them by these fusionists, these latter cry out in alarm that the State is injured and a race class is threatened. Much regard had they for the State's reputation when they brought these things about.

"COLORED LADIES" ADDRESS TO VOTERS.

Wilmington Messenger.

The "Colored Ladies" Association of Wilmington publishes the following in the "Daily Record," the negro paper that slandered white women:

"Resolved, That every negro who refuses to register his name next Saturday that he may vote shall make it our business to deal with him in a way that will not be pleasant. He shall be branded a white-livered coward who would sell his liberty and the liberty of our whole race to the demons who are even now seeking to take away the most sacred rights entrusted to any people. We are further

"Resolved, To teach our children to love the party of manhood's rights and liberties, trusting in God to restore order to the present confusion. Be it Resolved Further, That we have these resolutions published in our Daily Record, the one medium that has stood up for our rights when others have forsaken us.

Probably a Mistake on the Part of the Populists.

Raleigh Post.

The Republicans, five-sixths of whom are negroes, have not the brass to deny that their's is the negro party. Not having the brass to make this denial themselves, they have put forward Butler, Ayer, Thompson & Co., to deny it for them.

These funnest of orators and writers say that the Republican party is the white man's party, and that the Democratic party is the negro party. Is it not strange that the 120,000 negro voters don't know which is their party, and that for 30 years they have been voting with the wrong party?

And is it not strange that Holton and Hyams have printed the names of negroes on their tickets for Congress and Solicitor? And will print the names of negroes on local tickets in thirty counties?

It is not strange that negroes exclusively attend the conventions of a party to which they do not belong, and often nominate the ticket? May be those good and truthful men, Butler, Ayer, Thompson and Jenkins are mistakes. And may be the party which has 120,000 negroes to 30,000 white voters, and which sends negroes to Congress, to the legislature, makes solicitors, magistrates, coroners, treasurers, constables, policemen of nearly a 1,000 negroes, is really a negro party.

And may be the party of 155,000 white men, with none but white voters, candidates or officers, and asking for none of the most prominent Baptist ministers in the State, say: "Not one-twentieth of the horrors of negro domination has been published in the papers. It is impossible to print the picture as black as it really is. The patriotic white men of the west ought to come to the rescue of their brethren in the east at the ballot box in November."

Oliver Dockery says the conditions in eastern North Carolina are ideal. Rev. O. L. Stringfield, one of the most prominent Baptist ministers in the State, says: "Not one-twentieth of the horrors of negro domination has been published in the papers. It is impossible to print the picture as black as it really is. The patriotic white men of the west ought to come to the rescue of their brethren in the east at the ballot box in November."
