"The Best is the Cheapest."

Experience teaches that good clothes wear longest, good food gives best nutrition, and a good medicine that cures disease is naturally the best and cheapest. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best medicine money can buy, because it cures when all others fail.

Poor Health: Had poor health for years owing to rheumatism, back and hips, with constant headache, nervousness and no appetite. Used Hood's Sarsaparilla, gained strength and can work hard all day; eat hearty and sleep well. I took it because it helped my husband to whom it gave strength. Mrs. E. J. Giffels, Moose Lake, Minn.

Hood's Sarsaparilla NEVER Disappoints

Hood's Pills cure liver, bile, the non-bruising and only cathartic to take with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

COMBINED EFFORT AND THE COTTON CROP.

Ex-Commissioner of Agriculture
R. T. Nesbitt, Points the Way to the South's Golden Opportunity.

Atlanta Constitution.

Editor Constitution:—Thoughtful men everywhere, who take an interest in industrial conditions at the south, are impressed with the peculiar features which have marked the cotton business of this season. Notwithstanding the strong "bear" influence at work and the testimony of so-called experts as to a phenomenally large crop, the market has steadily advanced and cotton has commanded a higher price here at our own doors than in New York or Liverpool—a state of affairs almost undreamed of, inquiring into the causes of this anomalous condition, we find that for many years the industrial south has been in a cause of hard training, but the disappointments and disasters of that trying period have been silently working out their emancipation. The lessons have been severe, but the farmer has learned to produce his cotton at less cost; to curtail his expenses; to buy less on credit and to diversify his crops; and thus a mighty agricultural evolution which has been developing from year to year has now assumed definite shape. Also these and other influences have materially reduced the crop. We find that foreign spinners, relying as usual on the reports of their paid agents, who have declared and reiterated that the cotton crop would reach the enormous amount of 12,000,000 bales, concluded that all they had to do was to lie in wait and when the large bulk of the crop was forced on the market and the farmer was compelled to part with his cotton for less than the cost of production, they would, according to the usual programme, gleefully step forward and seek upon it. But in planning this wholesale confiscation they were ignorant of three important and heretofore unknown factors operating against their cherished plans.

Representative Bellamy and the Croatan.

Washington Post.

"One of the prettiest romances could be written about the Croatan or Hatteras Indians in my district," remarked Representative Bellamy, of North Carolina. "They are the descendants, as you may know, of Raleigh's lost colony. I once mentioned the case of these Indians to Thomas Nelson Page, and he was inclined to write a story about them. I have just introduced a bill to give these Indians $50,000 for public schools. They live in Robeson, Scotland, and Richmond Counties. There are about 3,000 of them, including 600 voters. When Sir Walter Raleigh's colony numbering 100 souls came over here about the year 1585, as I remember, they settled at Roanoke. Sir Ralph Lane returned to London for supplies and more colonists, but when he reached Roanoke again every trace of the colony had disappeared. It is supposed that the men were murdered, and the women became wives of the Indians. All the traditions of the Croatans point to that, for these traditions tell of mothers who were white women. The present Croatans are land owners. In fact, the negro representatives from Mississippi for many years was half Croatan."

Not Double-Faced.

Washington Post.

Decidedly the homeliest man in Congress is Eddy of Minnesota. He rather glories in the distinction of ugliness, especially as all his other characteristics are enviable. During his last campaign the enemies of Mr. Eddy charged him with being double-faced. He met the charge in a manner that disarmed all criticism. "Great heaven," said Mr. Eddy to his audience, "do you think that if I had two faces I would wear the one I am showing you now?"

Not Face Alone.

Detroit Journal.

The woman who had fallen from her bicycle glared up at the man with the camera. "That takes faces!" she hissed, indignantly. "It takes whatever is in focus," replied the man. "After that he went his way, with a weird laugh."
