| ENGER - INTEELLIGNCER   | A PRISONER FOR 25 VEARS.  | CANNONADING HAIL STORMS.   | Lilesville Loca   |
|---|---|--|---|
| SBORO, N. C., JUNE 13, 1901.. G. BOYLIN, Publisher.   | Paris, June 8The sensation of the weekhas been the arrest of Madam Monnier, a | Mr. Moore Does Not Believe inIt-He Ridicutes the Idea ofthe Uncducated Peasantry ofEurope and Warns Our PeopleAgainst Turning Foois.Washington, June 9 – The extensive re-forts of United States Consul Covert, altyons, France, relative to the success ofthrough the france, as a means of pro-tyons, France, relative to the success ofthrough the france, as a means of pro-tyons, and also for the purpose of initigi-ing or multifying the effects of frosts uponvegetation, have prompted numerous in-storing, acting under the direction of Secre-tary Wilson, has issued to the yeas theMillis L. Moore, the chaef of the Weatherbareau, acting under the direction of Secre-tary Wilson, has issued to the press thetoring statement:— "After an examination of all that thasbeen published suring the past two years,been published suring the past two years,being the suring the past two years,being on both the suring the past two years,being on both the suring the past two years,being on published suring the past two yea | grain are being re-is ont of mind iftime for working oftill dewy eve theybefore their steadwithering. Thearound his place ofresult. Occasionahis quiet disturbeshocked by a colo-enters, and is"T'm out of rashi-little more," Poand see how he"Done got his amThen the silence |
| NOT ASK FOR THIRDTERM.or DePew and RepresentativeI. Grosvenor, who have beeu goon the country advocating a thirdr Mr. McKinley, have caused theat to give to the public, underJune 10th, the following statein the subject:gret that the suggestion of a thirda been mide. I doubt whether Ied upon to give it notice. Buta now questions of the gravestnee before the administration and |   |  |   | importar the country and their just consideration in darkness, lying on a mattress, stark is the behef in the effect of the moon on the hongry. I ges kain't do it. I'm bliged The weary days of sad captivity should not be prejudiced in the public naked, and so emaciated that she appeared weather. The uneducated peasantry of mind by even the suspicion of thought of a third term. In view, therefore, of the vorms, rats and all kinds of vermin. The spend on it a undance of mon*y, time and reiteration of the suggestion of it, I will unfortunate woman, who had partially lost labor than adopt the very simple expedient ther reason, was taken to a hospital. It was the inevitably occur The great 'prosay now, once for all, expressing a long settled conviction, that I not only am not and will not be a candidate for a third proving. Twenty-five years ago she was ducted on too large a scale to warrant any a beautiful brunette and fell in love with a man or nation in attempting to control lawyer without means. Her mother die term, but would not accept a nomination for it, if it were tendered me. approved of their love and confined her in a rain storm, exceeds the combined energy "My only ambition is to serve throughthe room which she has only recently left. of all the stean engines and explosives in the out my second term to the acceptance of The son, after his arrest, pleaded that he my countrymen, whose generous confi acted as he did on account of filial piety dence I so deeply appreciate, and then, and that his mother was responsible. The has had during the past ten years with with them, do my duty in the ranks of lawyer died in 1885 private citizenship."

in the case, to-day. Madame Mounter died States, much less encouraged by the intel-The above is conclusive and shows the in prison of heart disease. The gravity of ligent portion of the columnity. Every her crime was brought home to her at the effort should be made to counteract the President's good sense. He has done well to abide by the precidents set by the judge's examination Thursday. She be- been imported into this country by Consul great Presidents of the past. came ill and died suddenly in the infirmary Covert."

of the prison this morning. A communication in the Charlotte Ob server contains the startling statement

MESSE

LWADE

WILL

Senate

Chas. H.

ing abou

term for

Presiden

date of ment on term has

am calle

there an

"I regt

JAS

Further Details of Strange Case. that the little heiress of Biltmore will be The London Telegraph of May 23 gives fed on milk from a $2,700 sow, during he following details of the Monnier case at the visit of her parents to that magnifi Poitiers, gathered before the death of Mme. cent estate this summer. Cow's milk has Monitier: heretofore been considered good anough "Were it not said at the outset that the for small children in these parts, but I following account of a horrible case just seems, according to the Observer, that lisclosed at Poitiers rests on official evithat faithful animal will have to give way to the pedigreed sow.

Weather and Crop Bulletin.

lady of the highest position and her son. The State's weather and crop, bul formerly a subprefect in the department. letin for the week ending Monday and both connected with several religious night is as follows: ocieties of the district, had for the last 25

All reports indicate that the past rears, conspired to keep the former's dragnreek has been very favorable both er if filegal detention, subjecting her to he most inhuman treatment. r farm work and for the growth crops. The temperature averaged at normal and the days were merally warm without extremes, lady, refused to see him, and reterred him are: Tobacco and snuff, $55,000,gool nights prevailed toward the to her son, living in another house oppo- 000; liquors, $27,584,000; tea, $20, of the week. The light showers site. Here the commissary also failed at 000,000; coffee and chicory, $1,260,h were quite general about the first to obtain admitiance. Having, after 000; cocoa, $1,000,000; rasins, $1,or 7th were very beneficial, soft- much parleying, at last succeeded, he told 000,000.

ng the soil which had begun to the master of the house that he wished at American and British Food Du-, ties. Baltimore Sun. The entire revenue of the United mmunication to the effect that a weakhy $1,042,639; fish, $1,027,830.

"The official called at the house where raised from corresponding sources ings. e unfortunate woman was said to be im- by our national Government. The risoned by her mother. The latter, an old principal items in the British list

cals-Why Labor is Scarce.

know what the harvest waving fields of golden.

dy strokes the grass is either Nashville or Memphis Mr. Halie merchant sits quietly burton received a poem, written by this of business awaiting the brother-in-law Dec. 18th, 1864, and when nally his peace is broken, he reast it to Mr Marshall the latter gentleed or his nervous system lored time customer who asked, "What now?" ions, boss, and wants a unusual merit, he has consented to its pubost him up, Mr. Clerk, lication. Here is the poem: he stands. How is it?"

mount and a little more." e which reigns for a mowith: "A man can't work to have some corn and a little piece cf to be a living skeleton. The room was miraculous. They would rather believe in meat." "Let him have a sack of corn, is yet iny brow intraced by hand of care? covered with fifth, bones, refuse food, cannonading as a means of protection and Mr. Clerk." "And what's dat wuff, boss?" "One dollar a bushel," "Mighty This heavy burden. Would that all thy high, but I'll have to have hit." For independence, then, Rockefeller or Vander- Of ceaseless grief, could suffer thise inbilt is not a circumstance. His former To feel that for the many years of love employer, the one who furnished him And fond devotion you have given me, work and paid him for it, may call on 1 had paid some small recompense, would him for help as in the days gone by, but no sir, he's squatted on a corner of land with an old plug mule or a b b tail bull bull bull bull to f neare?" world. It is useless for mankind to combat nature on this scale "After the experience that this country to plow, with the time merchant at his Will scatter roses in the bloody track rain-making, I am loth to believe that the back, till blackberry time at least, and Of those refeatless years, whose flery suns the back, till blackberry time at least, and I those refeatless years, whose flery suns the back is the back. combardment of hail storms ever will be then the wall goes up all over the land; There was another dramatic development practiced or even attempted in the United "Labor is scarce and hard to get; can't When thou, the noblest of that mighty hast get it for love or money." And so it will Shall be restored to those whose faithful love

> The time may have been when it paid to make cotton to buy provisions, but its not Perhaps still darker hours await, and days now. The uncertainty of prices and labor Replete with that exquisite sense of pain Which only proud and suffering mortals longer. The farmer, as well as other proessions, must keep abreast with the times. The improvement in farming tools of to-

States Government from customs day is a great offset to the scarcity of daties on food, liquors and tobacco labor. Twenty years ago the lighest eral of the Departmen of California, and last year was $93,766,000. Of this work in the harvest fields was the shock- the Federal grand jury are investigating total sugar, mulasses and confection- ing of the grain. To day behind he har- the many reports of fraud committed in tence, your readers would hardly believe ary puid $57,741,823; tobacco, $14, vesting machine shocking is the most the commissary branch of the army ser the story. A few days ago the police com- 382,206; liquors, $8,427,410; fruits laborous task. Then wheat may have vice in this city. That the reports seem pissary of that town received an unsigned and nuts, $5,228,426, vegetables, been as uncertain crop. . Since then fertilizers and grain drills have made it al-British customs duties on food, most a certainty. So as times and coodidrick and tobacco for the same year tions change let the humblest farmer Lewis Abraham & sons, dealers in er amounted to $106,767,000, and this change with them and learn to make his ond hand clothing. The extent of the , ar, aided by the sugar duties, will living easy, for this is all we get out of it alleged frauds has not been determined,

Ben has our sympathy. lon.

The union meeting of the Pee Dee Bap-

A WAR TIME POEM.

My Brother,

woes

of peace"

Whitlock-Crosland. While in prison at Fort Delaware in 1864 Rockingham Anglo-Saxon, 12th.

Mr J. C. Marshall, of This place, had as a An event of unusual social interest was fellow prisoner a gentleman named Halihe marriage of Mr Paul C. Whitlock, a burton, of Tennessee. A brother-in-law of popular and rising young attorney of this eaped down. The time Mr. Halibarton was in the military prison town, and Miss Mand Crostand, a most f we ever knew a busier at Little Rock at the same time. This gen- estimable young lady, which occurred at nen. From early morn | ileman's name was J. B. Garrison and he St. Paul's Church, in Wolf Pitt township y are going, and surely was a lawyer of distinction, and lived at this county, Wednesday evening, June the

> The church was tastily decorated and was a scene of marked loveliness.

The wedding march was played by Miss men was so much struck with it that Mr. Mary Gibson. Halilurton gave it to him. Mr. Marshall Immediately preceding the entrance of found the poem a few days ago while lookthe bridal party, "Because I Love You, ing over some old papers and, as it possess Dear," was sweetly rendered by Miss May LeGrand,

At the appointed hour the attendants receeded by the ushers, Messra, Leslie Fares it well with thee? Doth not Evans and Henry Rogers, entered in the metimes a feeling of despair creep in otlowing order: T. C. Leak, Jr , and Miss Thy bosom, and there make its home? Have Ida Morrison, Sam Steele and Miss Pattie LeGrand, John L. Everett and Miss Jean Left sorrow's impress on thy brave, young Evans, Percy Diggs and Miss Daisy Baldwin, James L. McNair and Miss Lottie Dh! brother, would that I could bear for Rogers, A. S Dockery and Miss Jennie Crosland, Bailey Evans and Miss Bessie Evereit.

This heart, so long accustoment to its weight Then the groom, with the best man, Mr. Alex McN. Page, and the bride, beautifully zowned, with the maid of honor, Miss Liz tie Crosiand, entered the church and pre sented themselves at the marriage alter, where the solemn ceremony was impressively performed by Rev. Mr. Sell, the bride s pastor;

Deep Creek.

Farmers are badly behind with their work, on account of so much rain. Who suffer for the crimes that others do,

Rev. Mr. Hartsell filled his appointment at Deep Creek Sunday and preached a Grews stronger still in their adversity. But, oh! my friend, "The end is not yet" most excellent sermon . Masters Jamie and S. C. Ratliff, of the Pee Dee Institute, are spending vacation with their grandmother, Mrs. Elizabeth Gulledge.

Rev. J. L. Bennett failed to fill his ap Big Army Steals Unearthed. ointment at Rock Spring Sunday on ac-San Francisco, June 12 .- General ount of sickness.

Shafter and Colonel Maus, inspector gen-Mr. Johanie Ratliff and family spent Sun lay with Mr. A. D. Smith and family. Mrs. Laura McRae died June 6th and was laid to rest in the family graveyard to await the resurrection morn. We extend to the bereaved family our most to be based on something more subheart-fult sympathy. stantial than idle rumors is evidenced by

Mrs. H. E. Porter is right such at this the disclousures following the arrest of writing, we are sory to learn. Hope she and 50 cents. will soon be well again. Mr. J. F. Hooks, was married to Miss Mollie Hildreth Sunday. J. T. Gul edge, Esq., officiated. Harvesting 13 the order of the day with Capt. Seymour, of the local detective he grain raisers. force, who is assisting the Federal grand jury, said to-day: "The government has Pincy Woods Dots.

aquestionably been robbed for a long The farmers are all crying "grass" i time past and I believe the amount of his section, on account of so much rain. Mrs S. F. Beverly, who has been visit ing her daughter, Mrs. M. A. Bullard, for daggie Ballard last Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. Fred Staton was in this section

Miss Maggie Ballard is on the sick lise

Reduction Sale at Crowson's.

What We Advertise We Sell. What We Sell Advertise Us.

a Few Prices-LISTEN! Calico, 4 and 5 ceuts.

Lawns, 3 4-2c., were 6c. Lawns and Dimities 6c., were 8c. Lawns and Dimities Sc., were roc. Lawns and Dimities roc., were 12 1-2c. Lawns and Dimities 12 1-2c., were 15c.

Solid Colored Organdies 9c.

Percales, all prices, 6, 7 1-2, 8 1-3 and 10 cents. Ginghams, 5, 6, 7 and 10 cents. Crash, in plaids, solids, &c., were 10, 12 1-2 and 15, now 8c. Duck in all colors, were 10c., now 8c. Black Sattene, 5, 7 1-2, 8 1-3, 10, 15 and 20c.

Pant Cloth===All Grades. Linen

White Lawns, 5, 8 1-3, 10, 12 1-2, 15, 20, 25 and 30c. White Organdy---70 inches-40, 50 and 60c.

The very newest thing in Belts, from 10 to 50 cents."

Gaase Vests, 6 for 25C., 3 for 25C., others 12 1-2, 15, 20, 25

Hose, 5, 10, 12 1-2, 15, 20, 25 and 35 cents,

The Famous Brands---the R. & G. and Thompson's Glove Fitting in all styles and sizes.

Our Shoes have all had the selling price cut. This sale also be as long as existing circumstances last. spread of the Italian delusion which has will not justify this kind of business any amount to about $122,000,000 or any way. Passing this sad picture for the and there is a diversity of opinion on the $28,000,000 in excess of the revenue present we notice aj few of the happen-subject.

Mr. Benj. Lowe has had_the misfortune to lose his left eye. He says he was struck in it by a small stone while chopping cot-

Ferry Knotts, col, lost his house last week by fire. It caught from a stoye flue, the losses sustained by Uacle Sam The house and contents were nearly all lost. through the treachery and dishonesty of hought she would die, but she is now im- cesses going on in the atmosphere are con lawyer without means. Her mother dis- the production of a hall storm, a tornado, or be hard to work. The amount of once to see his sister. He met 'a perempinshine was abundant. Farmers took advantage of these favorable wing of the building. Before the door of ish Isles, the somewhat surprising conditions to push work as much as possible; many fields have been aid: 'My sister lives there.' The police taxes on food and drinks are more cleaned of grass and are well culti official intimated that he must enter the than twice as heavy as those levied vated, but the amount of work to be apartment, and after much demur his comdone was so great that grass has not pinion op med the door

"The commissary entered the room, all been subdued, and another week of fair weather is required. Crops which was dark, and, throwing open the window, saw lying upon a straw mattress, still average from two to three weeks late, but have considerable growth and show renewed vigor. earance. Her arms were hardly an inch | imply.

Chopping cotton progressed very and a half in diameter. The room was in rapidly, but is not yet finished. an indescribably dirty state, large rats run-Where good fields have been cleaned ing about the place, and vermin of all the crop shows good stand and bet kinds swarming everywhere. The floor was ter color, but large areas are still strewn with mildewed food, which must have lain there for years. very grassy, and some fields have been abandoned or will be plowed up for corn. Cotton seems to be almost the smallest for the season on record. the utmost wonder at the comfort of her Corn is doing fairly well and has renew surroundings Her mother and brother gained color where cultivated; grassy have been arrested, the former having been fields show little growth, yellow colplaced temporarily in an asylum on account or, and very poor stands. Much corn of her advanced age. was planted in lowlands throughout "The unfortunate daughter, who is now

State during this week. Wheat d winter oats are ripening rapidly ing has begun in the south, and harvest will become general next , averaging ten days late. There uch complaint of scab and rust, the damage is not widespread -h to materially lessen the faoutlook for the cereals oats are very fine. While Strike at Modeua Mills, Gasuits promise fair yields, i that the apple crop will be filure, on account of the he Modena Cotton Mills quit work this

g from the trees.

They received 40 cents a cut for the plain tories of the Civil goods and no advance was made on the finer goods. They objected that they could he struggles of the w York times, "are not make so much, but the mill people said that they would furnish helpers by war can possibly which they could make as much, there being one helper for several weavers But r sacrifices, and the weavers say that they made from $1 beir immediate remember in to $1.45 per day before and can now make moves to deep tiff tearful, rec only from 80 to 90 cents per day. They are now getting 4) cents a cut and 1 bey years of sufferdemanded 45 cents, and because this was would be impos nat granted they quit work to day. Mr e of any form o J. D. Moore, the secretary and treasurer, the people o of permitting the and Mr. J. O. White, the superintendent, to fade so soon t are both in Lenoir. Nothing definite will the qualities which be done till their return. The strike was history must have not ordered by the auton. Some of the ies, and we should of the Southern strikes belonged to the union and some

if they were less read did not; Everything is peaceful, and the the dwindling colum ite veterans or to gree prospect seems good for a satisfactory ug strains of their settlement of the differences. It long ago ceased tle.

ngs of crosses and hearts have been found on the walls of the room where she was shut up. Her present weight has been ascertained at the hospital, and is 44 pcunds.

tonia.

morning. Two or three we ks ag ) they

Gastonia, June 11 .- All the weavers of delphia Times.

Bearing in mind that the popula- tist Association will be held with the Baptory refusal. On his threatening legal ac- tion of this country is within 8,000,- tist church at Edesville 5th Sunday in June. tion he was taken to an apparently disused 000 of being double that of the Brit- beginning Friday before. The annual protracted meeting of this courch begins one of the rooms the master of the house fact appears that the British tariff Ist Sunday in Angust. The pastor will be assisted by some one of his own choice. Rev Mr. Mclver's next appointment is the 4th Sanday p. m., in the Methodist by the United States. They are church, at 4 o'clock.

none of them levied, however, to Amongst those who come and go we nocheck imports or "protect infant in- lice Miss Sophie Brown, of Robeson county, dustries." They are "for revenue who is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. E. Tiddy which was in the most filthy condition a only," to pay for a big navy and a Mrs E P. Liles and children left Saturvoman naked and like a skeleton in ap- big army and all that such things day for Shelby on a visit to her parents and

> We are sorry indeed to hear of the illness at the Mountain home of Mr. T. J. Ingram. Notice to Pensioners. Mr. Benj. Wall, who lives there, has had

The county board of pensions, typhoid lever for some weeks and now Mrs. composed of the County Commis- Ingram is ill, it is feared, with the same dissioners, the Sheriff and the Clerk of ease, while some of the colored people have "The unfortunate woman was later con- the Superior Court, also the advisory of Morven, are attending them. Ided to the care of nurses, and is now in a board of pensions, will meet at the Uncle Benj. Saunders, we are glad to rispital, where she continuanty expresses | Court House in Watesboro on the learn, has nearly recovered from his recent first Monday in July 1901, for the very serious spell of sickness. He is nearpurpose of considering and passing ing the 80th mile post and is the same upon all applications for pensions, "Uncle Ben"-always glad to have his under the law of North Carolina. At friends call to see him. Total blindness that time and place all applicants forbids him the very great pleasure of see-52 years old, had never since the first day of for pensions, including all those aling them It is a pleasure to note that all of the six per imprisonment been approached by any ready on the pension roll and required uman being except her unnatural brother. | to appear for examination and classipassenger trains stop at Lilesville now, that he died a few days after entering such inscriptions as 'When shall I see the fication. If any are physically unable when there are passengers for them. This the hospital. Now the four-year old is ight?' 'Liberty! Liberty!' and rude draw- to attend they are required to send a will add greatly to the convenience of our dead, and the physicians say that Mrs. people, and the railroad people deserve as Spera, who is 24 years old, is in a serious physician's certificate to that effect. vote of thanks for stopping the Vestibule JAS. A. HARDISON, when necessary.

Ch. Board Commissioners. Congratulation, Mr. Editor, on the successful operation of electric lights and Vance Cotton Mill Has Trouble F. C. ALLEN, water works, making yours the new town Ch. Advisory Board.

J. T. GADDY, Sheriff. or Wadesboro. THINKER. JOHN C. MCLAUCHLIN Clerk of Superior Court. A. & M. College Catalogue, the sec The catalogue of the A. & M. College is changed from plan cloth to a dimity. Burglars Who Robbed Postreceived. It shows 302 students and 28

Office at Emma Convicted. teachers. The students earned by work Asheville, N. C., June 11-In last year, $2,455. Every member of the graduating class and some of the Juniors the Superior Court today Hush Gates had engagements for work the following and Frank Johnson, white, and Ben year in desirable business. Foster and Harry Mills, colored,

The College offers complete instructio were found guilty of burglary in the in Agriculture, florticulture, Civil Engineering, Mecaanical Engineering, Electrifirst degree. Under North Carolina cal Engineering, Coemical Engineering aw the penalty for burglary is death. All four men will be sentenced to be hanged before the term of court ends. On the Sth of Felruary these men entered the store and postoffice at dairying borticulture and agriculture. Emma, two miles from Asheville, The board of Agriculture has just estaband holding pistols on Samuel Alexlished 120 scholarships especially for agriander, opened a safe and began to cultural students and appropriated $2,000, rifle it. Alexander watched for an for agricultural work by these students in opportunity and when the burglars' order that they may be instructed along these lines and also may be helped in payattention was diverted, grabbed a pistol and opened fire, seriously log their expenses For catalonge address President Geo. 7 reach the hundreds of thousands of dol Wadesboro. lars. The Federal grand jury has the matter of prosecution in its haids and Eula Waters last Sunday, the secret service men are doing its bid-Misses Alice Sullivan and May Harding, the pilice merely ren lering assistingion, of Wadesboro, were visiting Miss ance when such is found necessary and is called for. I believe that arrests will he made, probably by the Federal officers, that will startle the community."

some of his army officers and others will

Died of Starvation in New York

Mr. Frank Tyson was visiting in the City. Brown creek settlement last Saturday New York Sun, 9th.

nd Sunday. Four-year-old Katie Spera, who, with Mr. Merritt Tyson was visiting his unher mother and infant brother, was rele, Mr. S. P. Tyson, Sunday. moved to Bellevue Hospital a few weeks Mr. J. D. Hancock was visiting Mr. A ago from two dingy rooms on the top B. Wheliss last Sunday. floor + f 217 Bowery, where all three were Mr. Richard Maner and Mr. Henry his week.

Sunday

it also. Drs. Kerr, of Litesville, and Ross, starving, died yesterday at the hospital Threadgill passed through this section of consumption, induced by lack of food last Sunday. and nourishment. Mrs. Cora Wheliss was visiting Mrs.

Neighbors of the Speras reported to Emma Wheliss Sunday. ROSE BUD. he police on May 23 that the mother and ---- two children had bad nothing to eat for Gold Brick Men Sentenced. over two days and that they were so ill Greensboro Dispatch, 11th.

hat they could not rise from the floor When the Superior Court con ened this morning the gold brick The year-old boy was so emaciated swindlers, against whom a verdict of guilty was rendered yesterday evening, were brought in and sentenced. Judge Councill gave J. L.

Howard, the miper, and H. D. Hawcondition and cannot live. ley, the assayer, ten years each, and A. L. Doley, the Indian, seven years in the penitentiary. Doley was given a shorter term because it appeared With Operatives. Salisbury, June 10 .- The Vance Cotton that he had been the tool and scape-Mill, located near the city limits, is shut goat of the other two. own, for the present. Trouble beween the operators and the management $75,000,000 Plow Trust Formed.

of the mill has been brewing for the past Chicago, June 10 .- Plans for a combi three weeks. It has been known for some nation of 21 of the largest plow factories time that the owners of the mill objected toin the country were practically completed he operators joining the Textile Union. Their desire to become members caused the to day, at a meeting over which Chas. H. dut-down this morning. The manage- Deere, of Moline, presided. Former Judge ient presented a paper to each of the opc- Vincent, of Chicago, has the details i ratives as they came to the mill this morncharge, and expects to have the combine ing, the purport of which was that the signers incorporated within a month with a capiyould neither join not in any way affiliate tal of $75,000,000? The election of officers will probably be held to-morrow. Ohio, Kentucky," Wis consin and New York will be in the It is stated authoritatively that the mill trust. It is positively denied that the

Ladies Can Wear Shoes

ne size smaller after using Allen's Foot

-----

One Pistol for Two.

Ease, a powder to be shaken into the shoes makes tight on new shoes feel easy lives instant relief to corns and bunion It's the greatest comfort discovery of th ing of the bed well tucked about them but the revolver clutched in the right hand of the husband told the story of the double tragedy. Of the pair that courted death so successfully nothing is known ome time, has returned to her home i Causes Cut Prices in Millinery. Mr. Jesse Ballard was visiting Mis

> Our Miss Jones will be glad to suit your wants before leaving. It will be your loss if you overlook the fact that her season is drawing to a close. We guarantee all millinery work and prices. Come in and try us and you will see we have the goods, the prices, the styles and are most auxious to please and serve one and all,

See Us For Deering Reapers, Deering Binders,

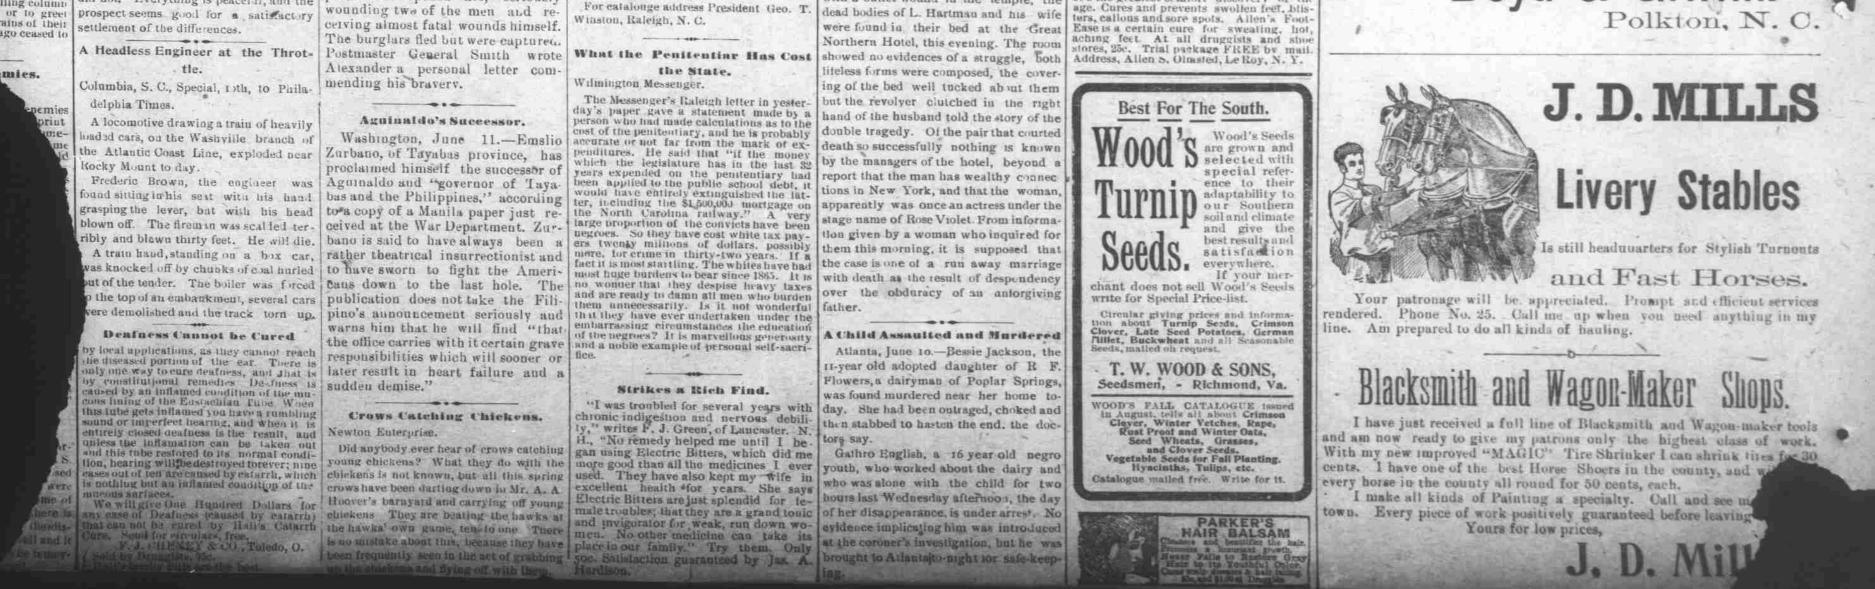

Deering Machinery Repairs, Knife Grinders, &c., &c. Oliver Chilled Plows, Points and other Fixtures. Farmers Favorite Grain Drills.

Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Mhiacnes.

Hawkes Eye Glasses and Spectacles. We have right prices and best values.

Boyd & Griffin.

Cotton Manufacturing and Dyeing. There is manual training in carpentry, woodluraing, machine-work, drawing and designing, engine-buller and dynamo-tending

Chicago, June 10 -- Side by side, each with a bullet wound in the temple, the dead bodies of L. Hartman and his wife with the Textile Union. This the operatives refused to do and every one of the one hundred employed, returned to their homes near the mill. nanagement is set in its determination not prices of plows will be raised. to make any concessions The operatives seem to be just as determined.

which they were using as a bed.