BROTHER KILLS BROTHER.

Tilton Seales, Colored, Shot and Killed, Monday Night, at His Home, Seven Miles West of Town, by His Brother, Monroe Seales.

Tilton Seales, colored, was shot and killed Monday night, at his home, on Mr. W. E. Watkins' plantation, seven miles west of town, by his brother, Monroe Seales. The Seales boys are sons of Buren Seales, of White Store township. Tilton was married and was about 25 years old. Monroe is unmarried and is about 23 years of age.

The particulars of the tragedy, as the M. & I. learns them, are as follows: Tilton and Monroe Seales and their mother and another brother were all in town Monday. Tilton had employed Monroe to work for him this year and had gotten some money from his land lord, Mr. W. E. Watkins, which he advanced to Monroe. Monroe soon after getting the money informed Tilton that he was not going to work, but would spend the money. Tilton then told Monroe to give the money back to him and he would return it to Mr. Watkins. Monroe had spent part of the money but handed the balance of it back to Tilton. In the meanwhile Monroe filled up on whiskey and when the party started home in the afternoon all of them had been drinking some, but Tilton was comparatively sober.

The party stopped at the home of Ernest Tillman, colored, who also lives on Mr. Watkins' place, and while there Monroe became so boisterous that Tilton put him out of the house. Tilton and the other brother then went on to Tilton's home. About an hour after they arrived there and while they were at supper Monroe put in his appearance and demanded to be admitted to the house. Tilton refused to admit him and Monroe threatened to break into the house. Tilton then got his single barrel shot gun and went into the yard and told Monroe to leave. Instead of leaving Monroe made at Tilton and the latter turned and ran from him without undertaking to use the gun. Monroe soon caught Tilton and wrenched the gun from him and stepped off about 15 feet and fired, the entire load of shot taking effect in Tilton's abdomen. The shooting occurred about 10 o'clock and Tilton lived until about 4 o'clock the next morning.

Monroe, who is said to be very bad negro, stayed around the home of his brother until nearly day Tuesday morning then he left and has not since been seen. The dead man is said to have been a hard worker and a man of good character.

Coroner E. F. Penton held an inquest over the remains of Seales Tuesday, the verdict of the coroner's jury being in accordance with the above facts.

George Hasty Convicted of Murder at Gaffney, S. C., and Sentenced to Penitentiary for Life.

George Hasty, who two or three months ago, shot and killed Milan Bennett and Abbott Davidson, of the "Nothing But Money Company," at Gaffney, S. C., was found guilty of murder in the first degree, at that place Tuesday and sentenced to the penitentiary for life. Hasty, it will be remembered killed the two men in the hotel of his brother, and the trial was one of the most sensational that has taken place in South Carolina in many years.

Public School Affairs.

Besides transacting routine business the county board of education, at its meeting Monday, contracted with Mr. John Preslar, of Polkton, for the building of a $1,000 public school house at Polkton.

Mr. C. C. Bowman was also given the contract for the erection of a $175 house at Bethel for the colored people. Ten dollars was appropriated for a free rural library at McFarlan.

Itching, Blind, Bleeding, Protruding Piles. Druggists are authorized to refund money if Pazo Ointment fails to cure in 6 to 14 days. 50c.

COUNTY AFFAIRS.

The Board of County Commissioners Order a Special School Tax Election for the Town of Morven, Draw Jurors for April Term of Court and Transact Routine Business.

The board of county commissioners met in regular monthly session Monday and transacted the following business:

A special school tax election was ordered to be held in district No. 2, Morven township, Saturday, May 5th. The amount of tax to be voted on is not to exceed 25 cents on property and 75 cents on the poll. The district in which the election is to be held includes the town of Morven.

C. C. Walters, of Wadesboro township, was relieved of paying poll tax on account of poverty and infirmity.

The following persons were placed on the outside pauper list, at $1.00 per month each: Pleasant Medley, colored, of Burnsville township; Silvey Horne, colored, of Ansonville township; Charlotte Boggan, colored, of Wadesboro township; John Sturdivant, colored, of Lanesboro township.

License was granted L. D. Kirby to operate a distillery on the lot of F. M. Hightower, in the western part of town. License to operate a distillery on this lot had been previously granted C. F. Sheek, of Hamlet, but for some reason the distillery was never opened.

C. A. Winfree presented a bill for $775.80, covering alleged damage to his land, near town, on account of opening and grading the new Stanback ferry road through the said land. The commissioners refused to pay this bill and the matter will be referred to arbitrators.

An order for $496.54 was made payable to Clerk of the Court Robinson, to cover cost taxed against county at January term of criminal court.

JURORS FOR APRIL COURT.

The following persons were drawn to serve as jurors at April term of criminal court: J. C. Beeman, Ed. S. Marsh, H. W. Gaddy, Noah Williamson, Henry Tyson, I. W. Parker, T. J. Lindsey, W. C. Baker, W. B. Gullledge, Joel Wheelis, Will Crowder, A. C. Carpenter, L. L. Beeman, J. Frank Gaddy (Wadesboro township), D. E. Gatewood, J. T. Martin, M. L. Ham, Robt. Kiker, J. M. Taylor, W. F. Teal, P. E. Ratliff, C. R. Hinson, Lem A. Tyson, E. M. Porter, Tyler C. Cox, J. W. Griggs, J. Frank Griffin, J. T. Ratliff (Gullledge), M. C. Walters, Franklin McLendon, D. V. Cranford, J. S. Jones, J. T. Watkins, W. P. Gullledge, J. A. Hildreth and T. R. Covington.

One Colored Boy Shoots and Dangerously Wounds Another.

Ben Harlee, son of Andrew Harlee, colored, who lives three or four miles north of town, and James Little, son of Ed. Little, colored, of this place, got into a fight last Thursday night and Little was shot in the hip with a .38 caliber pistol by Harlee and dangerously wounded. The boys, who are only about 17 years of age, first got into a dispute at a supper given in the colored Presbyterian school house. After the supper the fuss was renewed by Little, near the store of Rich Hammond, colored, on the Charlotte road. Little, it is said, struck Harlee and the boys clinched. Harlee broke loose and ran a short distance, with Little in pursuit. Little caught up with Harlee and, just as he did so, Harlee turned and shot him, the ball taking effect in the left hip. Harlee was arrested later in the night and was committed to jail to await the result of Little's injuries.

Death of Mrs. W. P. Benton.

Mrs. Sarah Gaddy Benton, wife of Mr. W. P. Benton, died at her home, in the western part of town, Friday morning about 11 o'clock, aged 26 years. Mrs. Benton had been in failing health for several months and her life was despaired of some time ago. She is survived by her husband and two small children.

The funeral was conducted from the residence at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon by Rev. C. D. Graves, pastor of the Baptist church, of which she had long been a consistent member, assisted by Revs. M. A. Smith and D. McIver, of the Methodist and Presbyterian churches, respectively. The interment was in East View cemetery.

Doctors Are Puzzled.

The remarkable recovery of Kenneth McIver, of Vauceboro, Me., is the subject of much interest to the medical fraternity and a wide circle of friends. He says of his case: "Owing to severe inflammation of the Throat and congestion of the Lungs, three doctors gave me up to die, when, as a last resort, I was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery and I am happy to say, it saved my life." Cures the worst Coughs and Colds, Bronchitis, Tonillitis, Weak Lungs, Hoarseness and La Grippe. Guaranteed at Parsons Drug Co's, Store, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

TRAGEDY AT MARSHVILLE.

Paul Efrd of This County While Handling a Pistol accidentally Kills His Companion, Charles Simpson.

Monroe Journal, 6th.

Mr. Charles Simpson, son of Mr. George Simpson of New Salem township, was accidentally killed in the hardware store at Marshville about 7 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The pistol from which the fatal bullet was fired was in the hands of his close friend and companion, Mr. Paul Efrd, son of Mr. John E. Efrd, of Burnsville township, Anson county. The boys had been rooming together at the Wingate School. A week or so ago Simpson had left school to work on the farm at home. The two had made an agreement to meet at Marshville to attend the debate at the school Saturday night, and Efrd was then to go home with Simpson to spend Sunday.

The boys met, as arranged, and went to the hardware store to look at some pistols, carrying along one that belonged to Efrd to swap for a new one. The clerk, Mr. Tom Lee, showed the pistols and agreed to exchange one of the new ones for the old one for a dollar and seventy-five cents boot. While Simpson had the new pistol in his hand snapping it, Efrd picked up the old one, and remarking that he thought it was the better of the two, snapped it. To the great surprise and horror of all, the pistol had balls in the chambers, and one was fired into the heart of Mr. Simpson. He dropped dead almost with the explosion. A doctor was quickly called, but of course there was nothing for him to do. The young man was 23 years of age. His companion, who was the unwilling instrument of his death, is about 17. At the request of the family of the latter, the coroner was summoned and an inquest held. The jury rendered the usual verdict of accidental death. The body of the unfortunate young man was carried home on Sunday morning and interred in the afternoon.

Polkton Locals.

The fine weather is opening the way for the next crop. The reduction in acreage will be what the force of circumstances bring about. Every person will plant all he can.

The contract for our new school building has been awarded and work will begin shortly. The building will contain three rooms and will be located near the residence of Dr. L. C. Smith.

Labor is scarce and high priced in this section this spring. The man who cannot make a living now needs to take lessons in practical economy and industrial training.

Mrs. Ethel Thomas' last contribution is a great improvement on "Becky Ann." We hope she will continue to make use of the good English, which she knows so well how to use. Misspelled words and bad grammar are not an indication of genius. If so "Josh Billings" would rank with Shakespeare.

Our public school, taught by Prof. Redfearn and his popular assistants, Misses Gertrude Mock and Katie Ledbetter, will close the 16th, after a session of but eleven weeks. Consolidation has not added to the length of the school term here. Closing exercises will be held Friday night, March 16th. Ex-Senator Beasley, of Monroe, will deliver an address.

Mrs. Frank McCollum has been sick for some time. Her many friends hope for her speedy restoration to health and strength.

Miss Nita Gaddy closed her school in White Store township last week, and is now filling the assistant's position in the high school at Peachland.

Miss Lillie Bricker is visiting in Morven.

Mrs. Anna Mc'ollum is visiting her daughter, Mrs. R. M. Flake, at Portsmouth, Va.

Dr. L. C. Smith and Mr. A. E. Beachum have purchased a six-horse power gasoline engine. The machine will be used driving saws, lather, planers, &c.

There seems to be a desire on the part of some of the school men in North Carolina to reinstate Sanford's arithmetics. We hope the effort will fail. Sanford's arithmetics are not what our schools need. The person trained in them alone, will be an arithmetical weakling. An intermediate book is needed in the course we now have. Then it will be complete and should remain unchanged. PROGRESS.

Barely Possible.

There are families in which even the youngest of four boys occasionally get a new suit of clothes.

In the spring time you renovate your house. Why not your body? Hullister's Rocky Mountain Tea drives out impurities, cleanses and enriches the blood and purifies the entire system. 35 cents. Parsons Drug Co.

"BECKY ANN JONES"

Visits Salisbury and Has a Good Time.

Correspondence of the M. & I.
Well, Mister Editor, I've bin a visitin' when I git all run down, an' mi appeizer outten order, Jeems alters ricebonds change ov air, fer two er three weeks. I've jest bin on a drag an' aint had no life hardly fer nothin'. So totter day Jeems sez, sez he: "Becky Ann, I think yew'd better take a day er two off summers an' recuperate."

Well I packed up mi rickete an' Jeems put me on the kyars fer Salisbury.

The conductor is a mitey fine man an' his life seems awl sunshine an' roses.

Well, I didn't let nobody in Salisbury no 1 wuz a cummin' an' when I got offen the kyars at the switch near the Salsberry cottin mill, it wuz dark es a stack of black cats an' nobody there to meet me.

Now, I did think dat conductor wuz a mitey fine man an' mitey accommodation; but when I axed him to lend me his lantern he sed he cuss't. An' when I told him I wuz skeered to death ov the dark he didn't offer to soort me at all. Well, I lit out down the strete an' soon g't to Mister Haywood Cornelions, but I spent the nite with Miss Bettie Shives, that wuz Sat nite. Sunday a crowd ov us went to the Chestnut Hill Baptist church. The organist wuz absent an' the first thing I note I wuz bustid on to that organ stool an' doin' the honners fer the quire. I don't no "a" from "izz-rd" when it cums to the rals' sience ov music, but thay awl sed mi playin wuz perfectshun.

Sunday evenin I went to the home of mi deer friend who lives on Fult'n st. Mrs. Kate Bruner

Without hesertation, I say positively an' emphatically that is the happiest home I ever entered an' is mi perfect ideal ov what home should be.

She keeps a body full ov tickle with her witty an' eriginal remarks, an' wood mskke her fortin on the stage.

Sunday nite me an' Sue an' Helen aw' went to church an' I had the handsomest 'soort in town, an' wuz the envy ov awl the gals.

Mrs. Bruner give us some fine musiek on the pianner when we got back to her house an' we awl enjoyed ourselves so permiskly that we sot up till two o'clock.

Mondy a crowd ov us aw' went to Spueer on the stete kyars. I wuz mitey glad Jeems persistid on me a takin' 39 cts extry, outside ov mi road expensis. As usual I wuz on the look out fer bargains, an' I got 40 cents worth ov rids' fer that 39 cents.

Well, Mondy nite I spent with mi friends the Cornelions, Grace and Ider's best feller cum an' wanted 'em to go a st. kyar ridin. Mrs. Cornelions b-jected, unless I wud go along an' ehaperone 'em, an' them boys setilly pade mi tray fer the sake ov takin' them gal.

Mister John C. Trexler aint a sellin' whiskey now; he's left that hole an' is a rappin a nice little grocer store on Chestnut Hill. He's a lokkin' a site better an' sez he feals better sence he turned over a new leaf.

The Salsberry cottin mill had bin stoppin' more'n a week an' I see more drinkin' in the three days I spent there, than I did in the two year we lived there.

Well I got home Tuesday eventin', an' Marthy Jane Matlidy had kept everything neat es a pin in mi absence. In a feelin' a hull lot better, mentally an' fisically, an' wish that other tired aives an' mothers cud have the chance of tryin' Jeems' perscription fer tired an' over worked nerves. Bat, then, every body haint got a Jeems!

BECKY ANN JONES.

Miss Moss Entertains.

Miss Barta Moss was at home to her friends Thursday evening, the occasion being a "tacky" party and informal dance. The costumes displayed much originality and many ludicrous effects were produced by the fantastic gowns and the affected mannerism of the guests. The lady's prize was worthily won by Miss Johnnie Dunlap and the gentleman's prize was awarded to Col. Fred J. Cox. Refreshments in keeping with the evening's entertainment were first offered for the guests' delectation, after which a dainty salad course was served. The fortunate ones were: Col. and Mrs. Fred J. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. U. B. Blalock, Misses Johnnie Dunlap, Jennie B. Brent, Eunice Wail, Lora Little, Elsie Bennett, Charlie Belle Craig, Marian Little, Sadie Stanback, Fannie Bennett, Jennie Duke Plunkett, Nannie Howard, Eunice Rose, Claire Lockhart, Rose Monsalvatge, Effie Shepherd Leak and Dora Burns; Messrs. Fred Parsons, Sebor Lockhart, Tom Fetzer, Bennett Leak, Adam Lockhart and Frank Fetzer. Chaperons: Mrs. Moss, Mrs. Dockery and Miss Terry.

Torture By Savages.

"Speaking of torture to which some of the savage tribes in the Philippines subject their captives, reminds me of the intense suffering I endured for three months from inflammation of the kidneys," says W. M. Sherman, of Cushing, Me., "Nothing helped me until I tried Electric Bitters, three bottles of which completely cured me." Cures Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Blood disorders and Malaria; and restores the weak and nervous to robust health. Guaranteed by Parsons Drug Co. Price 50c.

Home Baking

ROYAL

Baking Powder

The United States Agricultural Department has issued (and circulates free) a valuable report giving the results of elaborate experiments made by and under the direction of the Department, which show the great saving from baking at home, as compared with cost of buying at the bakers. All bread, cake, biscuit, crullers, etc., are very much fresher, cleaner, cheaper and more wholesome when made at home with Royal Baking Powder.
