CRAIG LAST NIGHT.

North Carolina's Next Governor Spoke to a Court House Full of People Last Night.

Hon. Locke Craig, North Carolina's next Governor, arrived here yesterday afternoon from Lexington over the Southbound railroad. A number of citizens of the town met him at the Union station in automobiles and escorted him to the National Hotel. During the afternoon Mr. Craig held an informal reception at the hotel and met a large number of Democrats of the town.

The speaking commenced at 8:30 o'clock. Mr. Craig was introduced by Mr. Jas. A. Lockhart in a short and happy speech. The court room was crowded to its capacity, many ladies gracing the occasion with their presence, and the speaker was at his best. Since the death of the lamented Aycock Mr. Craig is probably the greatest popular speaker in the State. His eloquence is more than sounding words, and his charm of manner and resistless logic never fails to capture his hearers. He commenced his speech last night by expressing his appreciation of the support his friends in Anson gave him four years ago, after which he launched into a general discussion of the political issues of the day.

Mr. Craig will leave over the Southbound this afternoon for Albemarle where he speaks tonight.

Death of an Old Citizen.

Mr. Henry Wright, of near Morven, died Tuesday night about 9 o'clock, at the ripe age of 91. He was a remarkable man in many respects and was held in high esteem by all who knew him. Until a few years ago, he had never needed the services of a physician, and until quite recently has been wonderfully strong and vigorous. He was an unusually fine mechanic, and during the war he worked in the gun factory that was located near Wadesboro. He was a member of and a believer in the Presbyterian church and its doctrines.

Two sons and two daughters survive him. They are: Mr. W. H. Wright, of Wadesboro, Mr. C. M. Wright, of Union, S. C., and Misses Martha and Jane Wright, of Morven.

The funeral and burial was at the family burying ground near the home of the deceased, and the services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Church, pastor of Morven Baptist church, the Presbyterian minister being absent. A large number of friends and relatives attended.

Recorder's Court.

The following cases were disposed of in the Recorder's Court Monday: Stanley Burgess, assault with deadly weapon; not pressed with leave.

Charley Smith, colored, keeping liquor for sale; six months on roads; defendant appealed.

Walter Phifer and C. J. Bryant, assault with deadly weapon; judgment suspended in both cases on payment of the cost.

George Moore, colored, assault with deadly weapon; 60 days on the roads.

Frank Montgomery, larceny; 4 months on the roads; defendant appeals.

Geo. Moore, colored, selling liquor; 90 days on roads, sentence to begin at expiration of 60 days for which he was sentenced in another case.

George Hough, Calvin Watkins, Jule Marshall, Giles Marshall, Will Kendal, gambling, prayer for judgment continued until 12th of November, costs to be paid now.

Mrs. J. N. Hill, Homer, Ga., has used Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for years, and says she always recommends it to her friends. "It never fails to cure our coughs and colds and prevents croup. We have five children and always give them Foley's Honey and Tar Compound for a cold, and they are all soon well. We would not be without it in our house." Parsons Drug Co.

COUNTY AFFAIRS.

Board of Commissioners Transacts Routine Business and Draws Jurors for Two-Weeks Term of Civil Court.

The board of county commissioners met Monday in regular monthly session and transacted the following business:

Dock Lilly colored, of Wadesboro township, was allowed $1.50 per month as an outside pauper.

It was ordered that a public road be laid off commencing at a point on the Camden and Fayetteville road near the residence of Peter Jones and Holden Gaddy, and running northward to a point on the Camden and Wadesboro road near the residence of Geo. T. Little. Said proposed road will cross the lands of W. F. Ratliff, Peter Jones, J. T. Webb, B. F. Gullede, R. J. Beverly, Elijah Gullede, E. H. Chewing, Dr. J. E. Hart, Bennett Bros., Geo. T. Little and others and will be about seven miles in length.

It was ordered that a public road be laid off from the old plank road where W. E. Hendley's and Barry Timmons lands join and runs with the line of said lands and church road to Concord church lot; then with said church road to a point on said road two hundred yards north of J. A. Crump's residence; then in an easterly direction through the lands of J. A. Crump, A. E. Hendley and J. A. Hendley to intersect with the Salisbury road; then with old road from J. A. Hendley's across A. E. Hendley's to Salisbury road where said road crosses Camp branch. Also to discontinue as a public road a portion of new depot road from A. E. Simpson's road to its terminus on Salisbury road, and extend said new depot road from point of its discontinuance as public road to a point where it will meet and intersect the contemplated road where said new road leaves Concord church road.

A special tax election was ordered held in Rocky River school district, Burnsville township, on Saturday, Nov. 2, 1912. The election will be held at Rocky River school house. The amount of special tax sought to be levied is 30 cents on property and 90 cents on the poll. J. T. Mills was appointed registrar for said election and S. B. Lee and J. B. Hyatt poll holders.

The following named persons were drawn to serve as jurors at a two weeks term of civil court to be held in October:

Miss Minnie Lou Dunlap is Hostess to the Electric Club and Friends.

On Wednesday afternoon, Aug. 21st, Miss Minnie Lou Dunlap, assisted by her sister, Miss Ethel, was hostess to the Electric Club and quite a number of friends at their hospitable home, Buffalo View.

Miss Dunlap abounds in resources as hostess, so the visitors were entertained on the wide, cool veranda, where tables were arranged for various games.

The club members were conducted to the drawing room, and at once proceeded to business. In spite of the oppressive weather a goodly number were present, and much interest was shown in the proceedings.

A delicious ice course was served, by the gracious hostess.

The afternoon was thoroughly enjoyed by the club members and the following guests: Mrs. W. L. Scales, of Rockingham; Mrs. Henderson, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. W. S. Doyle, of Tampa, Fla.; Mrs. W. S. Dove, of Wynona, S. C.; Miss Verna Mae Dunlap, of Norwood; Miss Octavia Scales, of Rockingham; and Mrs. Myra Doyle, Mrs. J. M. Dunlap, Misses Louise Gaddy and Evelyn Clarke, of Ansonville.

LILESVILLE AND WALLTOWN.

Blewett Falls Power Being Installed—Improvements in the Town—Movements of People.

The Yadkin River Power Company have a large number of electricians and line men at work in Lilesville installing electrical appliances to run the Lilesville glinning plant by electricity. These appliances consist of one transformer for raising or lowering electric pressure, and one motor for imparting power. These appliances will cost Mr. E. P. Liles, who owns the plant, about $1,000.

Lilesville cotton receipts from Sept. 1 to Aug. 31 were over 4,000 bales. Perhaps more cotton in one and two hundred bales lots is sold in Lilesville by large farmers than in any other town in the county. Lilesville is not only a first class cotton market but is a good market for beef, cattle and milk cows. A fine drove of 20 beef cattle sold from Mr. Frank Spencer's stock farm attracted a lot of attention on the streets of Lilesville recently. The sight was animated by the presence of Mr. Frank Spencer driving his magnificent horse in the midst of the cattle. Mr. Jack Tice is shipping a car load of beef cattle and milk cows today.

Messrs. A. G. Wall, C. L. Fredrick and Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Liles have returned from the Northern markets, where they went to buy their fall stocks of goods.

Recently a great deal of work has been done toward adding to the "dressy" appearance of Lilesville. Its streets are being improved, new bridges have been built, ditches cleaned out. These additions tend largely to promote the health and safety of the community.

The many friends of Mrs. T. N. Camp and Mrs. J. S. Bookhart will be interested to know they are in Lilesville, visiting their mother, Mrs. Pat Cox. They are from Powder Springs, Ga., and are sisters of Messrs. T. C. and F. J. Cox, of Wadesboro. Their many friends are delighted to see them.

Miss Bennie Hiat, of Ellerbe Springs, the guest of Mrs. W. R. Cox, has returned home.

Miss Sue Cole, after an extended visit to relatives and friends in Rockingham, has returned to Lilesville and is the guest of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Diggs.

The many friends of that clever gentleman, Mr. Will Smith, of Charlotte, were delighted to see him in Lilesville Tuesday.

Mrs. Smith, of Spartanburg, S. C., mother of Mrs. J. F. Alexander, of Lilesville, died Sunday. This intelligence will pain many friends in this State, especially in Lilesville, where she has visited her daughter. Mrs. Smith was a most estimable and lovable lady. Mr. and Mrs. Alexander attended the funeral. They have the deepest sympathy of the community.

Misses Mary Wall and Mary Cole, daughter and niece of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Wall, and Miss Kathleen Spencer, have returned home after a delightful visit to Miss Helen Ashe, of Wadesboro.

Misses Allie Mae Spencer and Kate McAlister are enjoying the delights of Jackson Springs.

Miss Copeland, of Virginia, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Wall's governess, is expected in Walltown Saturday.

Mrs. Frank Spencer and little son, William, who have been visiting Mrs. Spencer's parents near Greensboro, are expected home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Watkins, of Albemarle, after visiting relatives in Walltown, have returned home. Their host of friends are always glad to see them.

Miss Winnie Spencer, the bright young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Spencer, will have charge of the Walltown school this fall.

Miss Allie Mae Spencer will teach. Mrs. Edwin Wall is visiting her sons, Messrs. B. R. and M. P. Wall.

If you know of the real value of Chamberlain's Liniment for lame back, soreness of the muscles, sprains and rheumatic pains, you would never wish to be without it. For sale by all dealers.

Miss Minnie Lou Dunlap was hostess Wednesday afternoon, primarily to the Eclectic Club and secondly to many invited friends. While the club members convened in the drawing room, the visitors enjoyed games on the porch, while later all assembled to be served refreshments.

Mr. Rhinhardt, who is living a Bohemian life in the Piney Woods, entertained a number of Ansonvillians at a dinner party Saturday evening.

Saturday afternoon little Miss Myra Doyle entertained in compliment to her friend, little Miss Ida Mae Richardson. Fairy tales and games were accompanied by ices and sweets. Kodak pictures of the smiling little faces were taken, and dainty little baskets of bonbons given to each as souvenirs.

Educational Affairs.

The county board of education transacted the following business at its meeting Monday:

The apportionment for teacher at Oak Dell school, Lanesboro township, was raised from $120 to $140.

Charlie Trexler was appointed a committeeman for Gullede township to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of M. W. Gaddy.

The county superintendent was authorized to select sights for school houses at Rocky River, Burnsville township, and Cedar Hill, Ansonville township.

The implicit confidence that many people have in Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is founded on their experience in the use of that remedy and their knowledge of the many remarkable cures of colic, diarrhoea and dysentery that it has effected. For sale by all dealers.

SETTLE HEADS G. O. P. TICKET.

Platform Declares for Local Option on Liquor Question.

Charlotte Observer.

The Republican State convention met here yesterday, preserved "its integrity and autonomy" by excluding from participation all but avowed Taft supporters, nominated Thomas Settle of Buncombe for Governor, and a full State ticket and by a vote of 506 to 159 adopted a platform demanding local option on the liquor question. The convention adjourned at midnight.

The rejuvenated steam roller was never in finer shape. It began its deadly work at the morning meeting of the State executive committee, which turned the far-famed engine of destruction upon itself and expelled six members who were avowedly anti-Taft. When this resolution, introduced by J. J. Mott, declaring that no persons except supporters of President Taft had a right to voice or vote in the committee had been adopted by a vote of 8 to 6 after a prolonged discussion, an indignation followed which resulted in the unseating of Charles H. Cowles, C. E. Green, George E. Butler, J. J. Jenkins, I. B. Tucker, and J. D. Parker.

The big game thus disposed of, Thomas Settle introduced a resolution even more sweeping in its nature. It slammed shut the doors of the convention hall to all delegates who do not purpose casting ballots for the present President. It passed 9 to 5 and the withdrawal of the Roosevelt men became inevitable.

With most of the unruly elements safely out of the way the course of true love ran smooth. Unanimous was the re-election of Chairman John M. Morehead. By acclamation was the nomination of Settle. Enthusiastic was the motion to declare the seat of Richmond Pearson in the national committee vacant, and the virtual election of E. Carl Duncan to that post. All the elections were without contest.

A Liberal Offer.

Youth's Companion.

One evening, at the Eastern Star Fair, one of the fattest members sat down to rest her weary feet for a moment. Every one who passed by seemed to be much amused.

As she is very sensitive on the subject of her size, she rose to go in search of a less conspicuous seat. She glanced round, and saw that she had been sitting in front of the guessing-cake table, directly under the placard:

"Guess my weight and I am yours."

MOOSERS HAVE STATE TICKET.

Roosevelt Adherents Form Organization of Their Own in Charlotte.

Charlotte Observer.

Renewing their pledges of allegiance to the Roosevelt-Johnson Progressive cause and declining to treat further with the Taft Republicans in session at the Auditorium, the assembly of Roosevelt Republicans, self-styled, in conference at the county court house yesterday afternoon went on record in ringing resolutions denouncing the alleged arbitrary methods pursued by the regular Republican State executive committee in unseating six Roosevelt members and declining to allow representation to others except such as would "bend the knee to Baal," and concluded by putting for a separate electoral and State ticket for the coming primaries to be held in November.

The fight was distinctly spectacular and thrilling at times, when such well known leaders as Richmond Pearson, Charles H. Cowles, Zeb Vance Walser, Marion Butler and others took the floor and held it by the force either of argumentative power or as the result of thrilling messages which they brought.

There was no question as to the opposition of the great body of Roosevelt followers present to former Senator Marion Butler, who in turn was defeated at every point.

There were three sessions held during the day, one in the morning at 10, a second in the afternoon at 3 and a third last night at 8:30, the latter adjourning after a brief gathering to reassemble at 11:30 for the purpose of adopting the electoral and State ticket.

Eclipsing in interest last night was the nomination of Mr. Zeb Vance Walser of Lexington for Governor on the Bull Moose ticket. Mr. Charles H. Cowles was also nominated but he requested that his name be withdrawn. The other members of the ticket were also filed in and today the Progressive party presents to the people of the State a ticket just as does the Democratic party and also the Republican party. This marked the parting of the ways in the State.

A feature of the evening session was the reading of a telegram from Dr. Cyrus Thompson, forwarded from Wilmington, stating that it would be impossible for him to make the race as candidate for Governor.

Few, if any, medicines, have met with the uniform success that has attended the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The remarkable cures of colic and diarrhoea which it has effected in almost every neighborhood have given it a wide reputation. For sale by all dealers.
