GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN

Important Announcement

Chowan College Alumnae Association will meet on Monday afternoon, May 28, at 3 o'clock. All graduates and former students are urged to be present at that session.

The Alumnae and former students will be the guests at a supper given by their Alma Mater. Come, let's all be girls again!

For Example

It was not in vain Miss Carrie McLean

Went down to the legislature; She helped a house quorum Monkey laws to ignore 'em

And she did it with utmost good nature.

She was gentle and gracious, Not once ostentatious, And the boys all thought she was great;

So we hope she goes back That the assembly won't lack One member whose concern is the State.

Mrs. E. G. Boone (Frances Benthall), '17, is the president of the Northampton County W. M. U.

Mrs. A. L. Gardner (Lelia Norfleet), '76, paid a short visit to the college recently.

Miss Georgia Piland, '13, who has been county demonstrator of Pender County, was recently transferred as an assistant in the Department of Education, Raleigh, N. C., and has charge of landscape planting.

Miss Gladys Lassiter, '19, of Potecasi, attended the Wake Forest College Glee Club here on Friday evening, April 20.

Mrs. A. L. Lassiter (Josephie Parker), '08, attended the Wake Forest College Glee Club here on Friday evening, April 20.

Miss Jessie Marie Parker, '26, attended the Wake Forest College Glee Club here on Friday evening, April 20.

Miss Marietta Bridger, '26, visited Miss Imo Vinson Sunday afternoon, April 22.

Holland-Winborne

We are happy to publish the following announcement which will be of interest to many people throughout the State:

Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Winborne, of Como, N. C., announce the engagement of their daughter, Helen Jones, to William Joseph Moore Holland, Jr., of Franklin, Va. The wedding will take place in June.

Miss Winborne's father has long been a beloved trustee of Chowan College. Miss Winborne is a graduate of the college, having received the diploma in piano in 1916, after which she studied two years in Peabody Conservatory of Music. Two years ago she studied with Mrs. Crosby Adams, of Montreat, N. C. In 1919 Miss Winborne was secured to teach at Chowan. In the summer of 1922 she taught at E. C. T. C. and from 1922 to 1925 she was instructor of piano at Columbia College, Columbia, S. C. Since 1926 she has done splendid work as instructor in piano in Chowan College, and has a wide circle of friends in the college and community. Her beauty, her sincerity of manner, her accomplishments and her attractive personality win for her immediate and lasting friendships wherever she goes. She has left an enviable record wherever she has studied or taught. Mr. Holland is a handsome young business man of Franklin, and one of the most promising and dependable citizens of the town. Chowan, the Alma Mater, would say: "Bless you, my children."

DON'T

—Brag about your rich relatives. —Chew gum or use toothpicks in public.

—Depend upon your father's reputation to get you through school nor try to ride a high school medal through college—hard work is more effective.

—Slam the door or talk loudly—your fellow student is in the next room.

—Repeat rumors—they are likely false.

—Study on Sunday. —Be a kicker. If you are too big for Chowan, there are busses passing daily.

—Lambast your teacher if you "flunk." He wants you to pass. Adapted from Wingate Triangle.

FRESHMEN CLASS OFFICERS ELECTED FOR COMING YEAR

The Freshman Class met a few days ago and elected the following officers for 1928-29:

President, Elizabeth Cullipher; vice president, Mary Frances Mitchell; secretary and treasurer, Agnes Lassiter; student council representative, Myrtle Jenkins; Chowanian reporter, Julia Hobbs.

The Freshmen have had quite a successful year, but they are looking forward to a better one, next year, when they have become Sophomores.

UNDER THE GREEN-WOOD TREE

EAT AND GROW FAT, LAUGH AND GROW THIN; IF YOU DON'T LIKE OUR JOKES—HAND SOME IN.

Billie T: "Mac do you love me?"

Mac: "Why certainly, dear."

Billie: "Would you die for me?"

Mac: "Er-r-no—my dear; mine is an undying love!"

"If a thief stole in a cellar, would the coal shute?"

"No! But the kindling wood."

Miss Poe: "Your answer is as clear as mud."

Hilton J: "Well, that covers the ground doesn't it?"

"You would be a good dancer but for two reasons."

"What are they?"

"Your feet."

Advice to Girls

1. Keep away from track men; they are usually fast.

2. Never make dates with biology students; they enjoy cutting up.

3. The football man is all right; he will tackle anything.

4. You can trust a tank man; he will dive in and do his best.

5. The tennis man is harmless; but he enjoys a racket.

6. Watch out for the baseball man; he hits and runs.

7. Be careful of the member of the dramatic club; he usually has several good lines.

8. Don't play cards with a civil engineer; he's a bridge specialist.

9. Always let the member of a band talk about himself; he enjoys blowing his own horn.
