

"GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN"
Alumnae Column

Mrs. A. Gray, of La Grange, N. C. (Mamie Elizabeth Baugham, '05), recently visited her daughter, Baugham, who is a student at Chowan.

We are glad to learn of the improvement of Mrs. Lula Mitchell Davenport, '83, who has been quite ill at her home in Raleigh.

Miss Annie Aurelia Futrell, '06, who has recently undergone an operation for appendicitis, is able to be at home again.

As a result of a number of letters sent to alumnae and former students, the CHOWANIAN has received a number of subscriptions and many comments of appreciation of the paper, and expressions of loyalty to the college. Mrs. Bessie Worthington Horne says: "You have by far the neatest, sweetest little paper that comes to this house, and that is saying a page full."

Mrs. Lena Gary Harris writes: "Please continue sending me the CHOWANIAN as it is always delightful."

Miss Theresa Cooke says: "I am always delighted to know of any progress dear old Chowan makes, and shall be glad to get your paper regularly."

From Mrs. Ordie Blount: "It is worth several dollars to me. When the CHOWANIAN comes, everything is put aside until I read everything in it—ads and all. It gets better and better."

Mrs. J. N. Ryland writes: "I love the dear old college, and enjoy reading the paper."

Mrs. J. P. Holloman says: "It is a fine college paper, and I was it much success. No one loves Chowan more than I, unless it is Miss McDowell."

Miss Lucille Freeman writes: "I have thoroughly enjoyed reading the CHOWANIAN, and I still think of Chowan as a dear old place."

The CHOWANIAN has received subscriptions from the following alumnae: Mrs. E. C. Boone (Frances Benthall, '17), Rich Square, N. C.; Mrs. J. N. Ryland, (Nettie Gwathney, '76), Walker, Va.; Mrs. E. P. Benthall (Beulah Gertrude Parker, '07), Ahsokie, N. C., Route 2; Mrs. W. C. Askew (Blanch Pritchard, '97), Lewiston, N. C.; Mrs. B. L. West (Estelle Carleton, '26), Pilot School, Thomasville, N. C.; Mrs. Maude Davis Dameron (Maude Davis, '99), 119 East Gordon Street, Kinston, N. C.; Miss Lucille Freeman, '27, Farm Life School, Vanceboro, N. C.; Mrs. Herman Horne (Bessie Worthington, '89), Leonia, N. J.; Mrs. Ordie Blount (Ordie Woodley, '96), Roper, N. C.; Miss Theresa Cooke, '02, 1107 West Market Street, Greensboro, N. C.; Mrs. J. H. To the faculty, officials, and students of Chowan College, and the Murfreesboro people I wish, in behalf of myself and family, to express our deep appreciation for each kindness extended to us in our recent bereavement, the death of my father. UNDER THE GREEN-WOOD TREE

Maidie Wade: Fancy, Eva, in a few years we shall be able to fly to London in half an hour.

Eva Hoggard: But you will still need two hours to get ready.

"Is this a second-hand shop?" asked the young man.

"Yes, sir," came the reply.

"Well, I want one put on this watch."

Bill H.: Try pricing apartments.

Kate M.: Goodness! We'll miss the opera, we've been waiting a good many minutes for that mother of mine.

Kate M.: Ours? Oh! George, this is so sudden!

"What's the matter with your wife? She's all broken up lately."

"She got a terrible jar."

"What has happened?"

"Why, she was assisting at the ladies' aid rummage sale, took off her new hat, and somebody sold it for 35c."

"Father, I want to get married."

"No, my boy, you are not wise enough."

"When will I be wise enough?"

"When you get rid of the idea that you want to get married."

Fred: Busy?

Joe: No. You busy?

Fred: No.

Joe: Then let's go to class.

A certain salesman was proposing to his best girl.

"And, Sweetheart," he finished, "I'll lay my whole fortune at your feet."

"It isn't a very big fortune," she reminded him.

"I know, dear," he replied, "but it'll look awfully big beside your little feet!"

He got the job.

"How did you get on at the dentist's?"

"Fine, Uncle."

"That's a brave little boy. He must have hurt you, didn't he?"

"No, he was out."

Miss Halsell: What do we import from Italy?

Freshman: Italians.
