THE CHOWANIA

Volume 1, Number 10, May 2, 1950

Chowan College, Murireesboro, N. C.

Chowan Versus Louisburg Today

Piano Recital Set for Wednesday, May 17

present her piano students in re-cital Wednesday evening, May 17 at 8 o'clock in the college audit-orium and her glee club in con-

The arranged program for the

The arranged program for the piano recital is as follows:

Fur Elise, Beethoven, Jane Ellen Jernigan: Minuet in G. Beethove. La Valle Parker; Aragonaise, Massenet, Betty Jean Taylor; O'Lord Most Holly, Franck, Carolyn Griffin; The Pines, Matthews, and The Firefly, Bilotte Anne Jackson; Clair de Lune Debussy, Evangeline Futrell; To Spring, Greig. Jo Cullifer; To a Wild Rose and To a Water Lily, MacDowell, Barbara McGlaughan; Rustles of Spring, Sindang, Ruth Taylor; Prelude in C Minor, Rachmaninoff, Rulfi Taylor; Fantasie Impromput, Chopin, Ann Campbell; and Wadsaw Concerto, Addinsell, Ann Frances Bun.

The girls' setxet, composed of Mary Lee Visnon, Jane Ellen Jernigan, Ruth Taylor, Margaret Fputrell, Lona Worrell, and Abie Condrey, will sing in the Christian Church, Franklin and the Roxobel Baptist Church, Roxobel, Surday, May 7. They will appear again in Franklin at the Baptist Church, Wednesday night, May 10. They delighted an audience at the Woodland Baptist Church, Sunday night, when they appeared on the program which featured Miss Ballinger at the organ, Miss Ballinger showed her usual adept skill in her organ numbers.

Miss Ballinger showed her usual adept skill in her organ numbers.

Spencer Reveals Facts, Figures

Figures concerned with the operation of Chowan Chief the common reveal the enormous burden assigned to the financial

Mr. Leon Spencer, College bursar, furnished information regarding an overall expense of $80.000 to facilitate a year's (school year) operation. Of this amount, $50.000 is accounted for in salaries of all employees. This leaves an estimated amount of in salaries of all employees. This leaves an estimated amount of $30,000 to be distributed for fuel, lights, food, depreciation, campus renovation, and upkeep.

To present a view of the actual pecuniary value of student charges the bursar related the fact that with an enrollment of 113 students, 77 boarding and 36 day, with an approximity of $300 per person, the students furnish only person, the students furnish only

There are 77 boarding students and 36 day students enrolled at the present time. Since it costs $800 a year to house and facilitate a student and the student furnishes only $300 of this, the remainder must be accounted for and secured through other chan-

Chowan possesses a $5,000 support and friend have assured an imburement to the deficit on this

With an anticipated enrollment of 200 students next year, their is an expectation that these costs will be cut in half.

YWMU Formed At Chowan

Murfreesboro — Mrs. Mary T. Williams, counsel for the Young Women's Auxiliary of the Murfreesboro Baptist Church, and Mrs. B. D. Bunn, president of the Woman's Missionary Union

organized an Ann Harsetline Young Women's Auxiliary at Chewan Monday afternoon.
The purposes of the organization are to promote prayer for missions study of missions were missions, study of missionary message of the Bible stewardship of possessions, mission study and community missions.

community missions.
The following officers were elected: President, Mabel Johnson; vice-president, Carolyn Grif-Jennings; committee chairmen: Community missions, Shirley Davis; stewardship, Nina Turner; mission study, Ann Jackson; program, Ruth Taylor, Mary Catherine Tyus and Mary Jennings.

Miss Dorothy Ballinger, Director of Music, who will present her students in a recital May 17.

Exam Schedule

Saturday, May 27 8:00-10:30 10:30-12:20 1:30-3:30 11 Menday, May 29

8:00-10:00 10:30-12:30 Tuesday, May 30

8:00-10:00 10:30-12:30 10:30-12:30 5:15—MWF Class 1:30-3:30 2:45—TTS class Wednesday, May 31 8:00-10:00 10:45—TTS class 10:30-12:30 11:45—MWF class

Jackson New BSU President

Colon Jackson of Hertford was elected to succeed Shirley Davis as the B. S. U. president for the coming year. Marvin Gibson of Murfreesboro was elected vice-president. Colon and Marvin are the only ministerial students at Chargen.

the only ministerial students at Chowan.

The first, second, and third vice presidents are to be Mabel Johnson, Shirley Davis, and Ann Jackson. Elected to succeed Eva Hunt, as Secretary of the B. S. U. is Lona Worrell of Colerain, Gene Proctor of Heriford will fulfill Shirley Bright's office as treasurer, and Ann Onley will be the B. S. U. reporter for next year.

The votes for the election were cast by secret ballot, and all who were interested in the Baptist Student Union were asked to vote.

Moore Announces Play Committees

John Moore, Senior class president has appointed a number of committees to work on the presentation of the class play "Come Out of the Kitchen," to be given Committee chairmen are Ry-Committee chairmen are Rylard Bradley, property; Lonnie and Leslie Walston, lights and effects; Henry Boyd, advertising; Mary Jennings, make-up.

The play will be the clinax of the May Day celebration and is being directed by Mrs. Edwin Brown.

Proceeds from the play will be used for the purchase of a class gift to the school.

Pictorial Bulletin

Chowan College is now having prepared a pictorial bulletin to help further publicize the college.

Students Hear Varied Messages With Profit

Religious Emphasis Week was held at Chowan College the week of April 17-21. The program brought to the campus several outstanding speakers

Mr. Jimmy Ray of Raleigh. State B. S. U. secretary ,opened the week's activities Monday morning His subject was "Believe You Me". That night Mr. W. W. Finlator of Elizabeth City spoke on "Wanted-A God Not Too Peron "Wanted-A God Not Too Personal".

Tuesday morning, Mr. Warren F. Taylor of Murfreesboro had as his subject "Strictly in the Groove", illustrating his points with teen-age slang terminology. Tuesday evening, Mr. Ray spoke on "Youth Seeks a Master".

Wednesday morning, before a capacity crowd of students and visitors, including the Honorable Clyde R. Hoey of Shelby, North Carolin'a senior senator, Mr. Boyce Brooks of Albermarle spoke on "My Church". That evening, Mr. Brooks as Youth." Among the visitors were the members of the Woodland Baptist Church.

Mr. Finlator was in charge of the Woodland Baptist Church.

Mr. Finlator was in charge of the Woodland Baptist Church.

Mr. Finlator was in charge of the Woodland Baptist Church.

Mr. Finlator was in charge of the Woodland Baptist Church.

Mr. Finlator was in charge of the Woodland Baptist Church.

Mr. Finlator was in charge of the Woodland Baptist Church.

Mr. Finlator was in charge of the Woodland Baptist Church.

Mr. Finlator was in charge of the Woodland Baptist Church.

Mr. Finlator was in charge of the Woodland Baptist Church.

Mr. Finlator was in charge of the Woodland Baptist Church.

Mr. Finlator was in charge of the Woodland Baptist Church.

Mr. Finlator was in charge of the Woodland Baptist Church.

Mr. Finlator was in charge of the Woodland Baptist Church.

Mr. Finlator was in charge of the Woodland Baptist Church.

Mr. Finlator was in charge of the Woodland Baptist Church.

Mr. Finlator was in charge of the Woodland Baptist Church.

Mr. Finlator was in charge of the Woodland Baptist Church.

Mr. Finlator was in charge of the Woodland Baptist Church.

Mr. Finlator was charge of the Woodland Baptist Church.

Mr. Finlator was charge of the Woodland Baptist Church.

Mr. Finlator was charge of the Woodland Baptist Church.

Mr. Finlator was charge of the Woodland Baptist Church.

Mr. Finlator was charge of the Woodland Baptist Church.

Mr. Finlator was charge of the Woodland Baptist Church.

Mr. Fooks spoke on the subject woodland Baptist Church.

Mr. Foo

That Counts".

Seminars were conducted every afternoon and evening by Mr. Finlator and Mr. Brooks on Love. Courtship, and Marriage" and "What's Right. Whar's The visiting speakers visited in the classrooms during the week, discussing many timely topics with the students. They spent the week in the boys' dormitories.

This was the first such program that the college has had, but plans are being made for a Religious Emphasis Week next year.

ious Emphasis Week next year

Bradley Elected Lucalian Head

Ryland Bradley of Jackson has been elected as president of the Lucalian So Vety for the next school term. He will succeed Jane school term. He will succeed Jane Ellen Jernigan of Aulander.

Other new officers are Colon Jackson of Hertford, vice-president; Gene Proctor of Hertford, treasurer; Carolyn Griffin of Red Oak, secretary; Jack Peele of Roxobel, sergeant-at-arms; and Mabel Johnson of Conway, renorter

Organist to be Heard Here Thursday, May 4

Calendar of Events

May 4 —Organ Recital by Hal Lyon theate May 15—Regitration 1950-1951 estate.

May 17-Music Department Re-

May 19—May Day Festival
May 19—Senior Class Play,
"Come Out of the Kitchen"
May 27-31—Examinations
May 28—Commencement Ser-

on June 1 —Class Day Exercises
June 2 —Graduation Evercises

College Library Receives Gift: To Be Rated Soon

The library received a gift of 97 books recently from the Duk's University library. Included in the collection are a set of world classics, Dickens' 'David Copperfield' several biographies one of FR Roosevelt, books on psychology, education, sociology, Spanish literature, and vocational books.

The books will be cataloged and placed on the shelves for use in the near future. Mrs. T. W. Walktion for the visit of a group of committeemen who will be at the college to rate the library, as well as the college. It is expected that the library will meet requirements for accredited needs.

the library will meet requirements for accredited needs.

Mrs. Walker requests that students thaving overdue books check them in and aid in the search for any lost books. She states that the 1949 copy of "World Aknanac" has been misplaced as well as several copies of popular and current magazines as the "Readers Digest" and that a large number of books checked out several months ago have not been returned.

Biology Trip

The biology students made a trip to Southport Saturday, April 29 under the instruction of the biology professor, Elbert O'Connell.

The class studied various forms of btanical life on the trip and observed the forms of marine life at Southport.

Oak, secretary: Jack Peele of Roxobel, sergeant-at-arms; and Mabel Johnson of Conway, reporter.

Retiring officers in addition to the president are Ryland Bradley vice-president; Betty Griffin, secretary; Barbara McGlaughan, treasurer; Jimmie Coker, sergeant-at-arms; and Jack Peele, reporter.

The society at its regular meeting Wednesday night decided to hold its annual banquet on May 25. Eileen Burden is chairman of arrangments for the socman of arrangments for the social affair.

Downs, Lona Nell Worrell, Charles ial affair.

the organ. A native of Waterloo, ist, presents an organ recital here Thursday night, May 4, at 8 o'clock. The westminister Choir School of Music and has toured the country and the westminister Choir School of Music and has toured the country and the westminister Choir School of Music and has toured the country and the westminister Choir School of Music and has toured the country and the westminister Choir School of Music and has toured the country and the westminister Choir School of Music and has toured the country and the second that the country and the second that the country and the second that the country and the organ. A native of Waterloo, is, presents an organ recital here organ. A native of Waterloo, is, presents an organ recital here organ. A native of Waterloo, is, presents an organ recital here the organ. A native of Waterloo, is, presents an organ recital here the organ. A native of Waterloo, is, presents an organ recital here organ. A native of Waterloo, is, presents an organ recital here the organ. A native of Waterloo, is, presents an organ recital here the organ. A native of Waterloo, is, presents an organ recital here organ. A native of Waterloo, is, presents an organ recital here organ. A native of Waterloo, is, presents an organ recital here. try giving concerst. He ras served as organist at several churchved as organist at several churches including those at Franklin, Richmond, and Riverside Church in New York city. At present Mr. Lyon is manager of Lyon Enterprises in Franklin, which includes a chain of theaters, Town House, and real actals.

estate.

On his program to be presented here Mr. Lyon will play popular semi-classical and classical numbres. His selections are chosen to suit the particuar audience and the is generous in his encores which are always demanded of him.

Mr. Lyon will bring his organ with its many and expenseive attachments to Chewan for his

The concert will be free; however an offering will be taken for the benefit of the Chowan library fund, Mr. Lyon is rendering his program without a fee.

Eugene Williams of the college faculty is chairman of the entertainment and has arranged for its presentation. He is being assisted by Miss Hazel Griffin.

Hoey Thinks Chowan Has Great Chance

er at the meeting of the 23rd District of Home Demonstration Work at Chowan. April 19th. He was also a guest at the luncheon given for the members of the

During an interview at lunch Senator Hoey was asked if the had ever been to Chowan College. Senator Hoey was asked it he had ever been to Chowan College. To this question he replied that he had not been recently but had made a campaign specth in 1928 in the college auditorium. When asked what his impression of Chowan was he said, "I think Chowan College is a fine institution and has a great chance of becoming one of the leading Jr. colleges in North Carolina."

On the other subject of which he so greatly concerned, the cold war with Russia, he commented, "I realize the job of settling affairs with Russia is a great one, but my hope is very high that these problems will soon be settled short of war."

The Senator was dressed in his usual swallow tail suit with his wing spread collar and his ever present red carnation. His dress and his shock of which hair give tim the appearance of the dress and his shock of white hair give him the appearance of the distinguished SOUTHERN GEN-TLEMAN that he is

High School Day Proves Success

Visitation Day was opened Friday. April 14, by Colon Jackson, a ministerial student, who spoke on "Prayer and its benefits." on "Prayer and its benefits."
Announcements were also made as to the winners of the Chowan College sponsored essay and recitation contests.

Eunice Jenkins of Aurelian Springs placed first in the essay contest. Peggy Johnson of Sunbury claimed first place in the recitation contest. Miss Johnson presented her recitation to the students and Miss Betty Jean Taylor, a student, read the winning essay to the audience at the absence of its author. The title of the essay was "Chowan's Place in Northeastern orth Carp-Place in Northeastern orth Carolina and Southeastern Virginia

Second place winners proved to be Sarah Perry of Colerain and Frances Griffin of Route 1, Murfreesboro, who tied in the essay contest. There was no second placement in the recitation contest.

First prizes were $60 in tuitions fees and second prizes $30.

Bryant, Thomason to Head Publications 1950-51 Term and school paper staffs for the next school term.

Chowan College is now traying prepared a pictorial bulletin to help further publicize the college. In he bulletin are pictures of various campus and interior scenes. These pictorial scenes will include the columns, flashes of the girls' dormitory rooms, the college lounges, the cafeteria, the library, and campus panorama scenes.

The booklet will also contain a brief message describing the purpose of the college and a short outline of its Christian heritage.

Kathryn Bryant who served as journalism. I deditor for the chowanoka, the editor-in-chief of the Chowanoka, the captor for the chowanoka, the editor-in-chief of the Chowanoka, the pearbook, for the 1949-50 term will again be editor for the same publication next year. Harry Jarvis, faculty adviser to the annual stafff, states that Kathryn Bryant who served as editor-in-chief of the Chowanoka, the editor-in-chief of the Chowanoka, the pour sequence of the chowanoka, the pour sequence of the various campus and interior same publication next year. Harry Jarvis, faculty adviser to the annual stafff, states that Kathryn Bryant who served as editor-in-chief of the Chowanoka, the editor-in-chief of the Chowanoka, the pour sequence of the chowanoka, the pour sequence of the chowanoka, the editor-in-chief of the Chowanoka, the editor-in-chief of the Chowanoka, the pour sequence of the Chowanoka. High School for the Chowanoka.

Mabel 1949-50

Mabel 194 Kathryn Bryant who served as

The publications board has an- for the fall term of 1950 will be nounced the chiefs of the annual Barbara Thomason who at the and school paper staffs for the present time is feature editor of the paper and also a student of journalism. Barbara has had previous experience on the Norview High School paper staff in Nor-Mabel Johnson will be business manager of the school newspaper. Mabel has worked on the staff during the present school year in the capacity of advertising assistant and reporter. An advertising manager will be appointed later.

The college publications board is composed of student staff members and faculty advisers to the