Dr. and Mrs. Mixon Honor The Faculty

During the faculty of Chowan College, opening on September 8, 1952, for its fourth year since being reestablished, President F. O. Mixon and Mrs. Mixon gave a formal reception September 3, from 8-10 o'clock.

Invitations were issued to the friends of the College in the surrounding Baptist Associations. Many citizens of Murfreesboro also attended the gala occasion.

The home was beautifully decorated with arrangements of red and white roses. Guests were met at the door by Mrs. Roy Parker wife of the Journalism instructor at Chowan. Mrs. Oscar Creech, wife of the Associate to the President of Chowan, presided at the refreshment table with the wives of the other men of the faculty assisting.

At the head of the faculty reception line were President and Mrs. Mixon and Mr. Creech. Others in the receiving line were:
