

LINEMEN—These are among the big linemen for the Chowan College football team who will see action up front for the Braves Thursday (tonight) when they take on ECC's Jayvees in the Kiwanis Bowl game in Ahoskie. At front, left to right: Guard Gary Henmen, Tackle Jim Woodruff and Tackle Tommy Daughtry. Standing: End Jerry Bean, End Salvador Thompson and Guard Bob Cotten. (Courtesy The Herald, Ahoskie)

Where They Are And What They Are Doing; 1957 Chowan Grads

GRAPHIC ARTS STUDENTS

Alecia Cahoon works with The Herald in Ahoskie.
 Bonnie Lou Carroway, with the Kinston Free Press.
 Mrs. Kelton Ray (Lillie Mae Davis), Edwards and Broughton Printing Co., Raleigh.
 Patsy Ann Ivey (now Mrs. Oscar Harrell), Herald, Roanoke Rapids.
 Sanford M. Edwards, Brunswick Times-Gazette Lawrenceville, Va.
 Billy Jackson, Oxford Ledger.
 Denzel Ray Johnson, Dunn Herald.
 Lewis Kearney, Bynum Printing Company, Raleigh.
 Leonard W. Kornegay, News-Argus, Goldsboro.
 Clifton Overby, Reidsville Review.
 John G. Powell, The Herald, Ahoskie.
 Roy L. Thrower, Ellicott City Times, Ellicott City Md.
 James R. McDaniel, Herald Printing House, Ahoskie.
 Bobby Winkler, Lenior News-Topic.
 William Whiting Mooneyham, The Herald, Roanoke Rapids.
 John Joseph Nicholson, Edgecombe Journal, Pinetops.

LIBERAL ARTS STUDENTS

Elsa B. Miranda plans to return to Cuba.
 Noemi F. Miranda (Mrs. Martin Domokos), is planning to go with husband to Guilford College where he will attend school.
 Roger Kent Byrd is attending Phieffer College, Meisenhemer.
 Otis Carroll Darden is attending William and Mary College, Norfolk Division.
 Thomas Leonard Davis, East Carolina College.
 Lynwood Mackie Grice, Atlantic Christian College.
 Eugene Reid Jackson, East Carolina College.
 Randolph Neal Mitchell, Atlantic Christian College.
 Henry Berry Sowell III, University of South Carolina.
 Sarah Virginia Parker, is employed at Chowan College as Dr.

Whitaker's secretary.

Mary Josephine Allen, is at Rex Hospital, Raleigh, studying to be a lab technician.

Gene Autry Britton, N. C. State College.

Nancy Carolyn Brown, East Carolina College.

Betsy Ross Cadle, Meredith College.

Patricia Ann Davis, is at Rex Hospital studying to be a lab technician.

Mr. and Mrs. (Katherine Futrell) Edison Daryl Allen are living in Greensboro where he attends Guilford and she works.

Alton Cutchin Green, N. C. State.

Shirly Sue Harker, East Carolina College

Vassar Wilson Jones, Atlantic Christian College

William Eugene Jones, Guilford College

Nell Robertson Martin, Meredith College

Sally Parker Moore, University of North Carolina

Louis Theodore Stokes, Carson-Newman College

Robert Taylor Story, University of North Carolina

Leroy Trevathan Carson-Newman College

Albert Lee Vaughan, East Carolina College

Elsie Jean Beverly secretary at N. C. Memorial Hospital, Chapel Hill

Dorotha Loraine Gilliken, now Mrs. Tom Hewitt

Coraine Elizabeth Oliver is now married

Fred Hale is planning to farm this year

William Fletcher Worrell, Jr., is farming at Como.

S. F. Duncan, Jr., is attending the Norfolk Division of William and Mary

Calvin Harding Wood is working with his father in Ahoskie.

Can you help us locate these? Mary Lou Baker, Nancy Doris Guthrie, Coraine Elizabeth Oliver, Barbara Frances Winstead, Carroll Thomas Northcutt,

Join Braves Club

Have you joined the Braves' Club? This was formed several years ago to provide increased support for the College Athletic Department. Last year there were 168 members and a goal of 200 members has been set for this year.

Membership cards entitle you to free admission to all football, basketball and baseball games which are played at home. Mr. George Gibbs, of Murfreesboro is the President, and Rev. Ross Cadle, of the College is the secretary-treasurer.

Chowan Braves' Club Seeks New Members for This Season

The Chowan Braves' Club is now accepting membership subscriptions for the 1957-58 school year, according to an announcement by Ross A. Cadle, secretary-treasurer of the club.

Formed several years ago to provide increased support for the College Athletic Department, The Chowan Braves' Club had 168 members last year. Mr. Cadle stated that he and Mr. George Gibbs of Murfreesboro, president of the club, had set a goal of 200 members for this year.

Members of the club are given free admission to all football, basketball, and baseball games which Chowan College athletic teams play at home.

Membership cards can be purchased now from the following "Boosters"—"Braves' Club" members who are handling membership subscriptions: R. G. Whitley, Como; R. G. Lassiter, Boykins, Va.; George Gibbs and Pat Banks, Murfreesboro; Dick Newsome and Merle Vaughan, Ahoskie; Gay Flythe and J. Warren, Conway; Randolph Stephenson, Pendleton; Carol Parker, H. G. Barnes, and K. E. Bridges, Jackson; William Futrell, Rich Square; J. H. Edwards and Tommy Parker, Williamston; J. E. (Jack) Williams, Windsor; Grover E. Howell, Scotland Neck.

Weldon; and R. G. Shields, Scotland Neck.

Membership cards can also be obtained by writing to Mr. Cadle at the college.

SEVERAL

(Continued from page 2)

strative staff. The Reverend John C. Gill, Jr., has been appointed administrative Assistant in charge of college relations. Mr. Gill, a former pastor of sev-

REV. JOHN C. GILL, Jr.
 Director College Relations

Dog's Life

Postal authorities said a woman complained the substitute mail carrier on her route was upsetting her dog.

"The regular carriers gets along with the dog," she explained angrily, "but every time the substitute makes the route it upsets my dog."

"Where is the dog now?" postal authorities asked her.

"Oh, he's under the mimosa tree in my yard," she replied. "And where's the mail carrier?"

"He's up in the tree. It's upsetting my dog and making him bark."

Postal authorities disclosed no names.

eral North Carolina Baptist Churches, was educated at Mars Hill, the University of North Carolina, and the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

Mrs. Van Cuthrell, wife of Murfreesboro High School's new coach, will be Assistant Registrar and secretary to Dean Irving Brooks. Her college training was received at Guilford College.

Also joining the staff as an administrative secretary was Miss Patsy Delany of Woodland. Miss Delany attended Peace College, and is secretary to Miss Arelia Adams.

RETURNING BACKS—These sophomore backs will again be seeing action in Chowan College football battles this year. At front left to right: James Parker and Clarence Lupton. Standing: Bill Steele, Floyd Davis and J. C. Young.