

WHEN THE SNOWS CAME—Hundreds of Christmas card scenes could be found on Chowan's campus following the recent fall of snow. The Chowanian's camera shot these scenes, which are reproduced by offset. The ever-beautiful campus was a greater delight to college students and community children for several days while the snow lingered. Sleds seemed to appear from everywhere. (Graphic Arts photo.)