

Chowanian Camera Records Homecoming Highlights

Queen Reba Presenting Ball to Co-captain Lanny Roof.

CLOWNS AT HOMECOMING — Laugh-getters in the Homecoming parade were these two: Mary Hunter, Williamston, (left), and Rebecca Powers, Great Bridge, Va. They hiked along with the procession through the streets of Murfreesboro.

Freshmen Riding on Class Float

Parade Judged Chowan's Best In Many Years

Saturday night, before the Homecoming game with Wingate College, everybody participated in or attended the Homecoming parade.

The parade formed on the campus in front of the "Big House" at 6:45. The Ahsokie High School band, with their high-stepping majorettes, headed the parade. The cheerleaders were behind the band, followed by the various floats, the last of which carried the Queen and her court.

The Monogram Club float depicted a Chowan Brave ready to "scalp" the Bulldogs. This float was very good and much noticed.

The Baptist Student Union featured a church with pupils in front, dressed in green and white.

The Phi Theta Kappa's represented a schoolroom filled with "Chowan minded" students. They were spelling the word CHOWAN as the float progressed through the streets of Murfreesboro.

The float for the Freshman class featured a grave in memorium to Wingate College.

The Sophomore class float was also very good. Three Chowan Squaws were seated in a semi-circle in front of a tepee. Behind these squaws a man was tied to a stake.

The Queen's float was beautiful in every respect. Our lovely homecoming queen, Reba Hale, sat on her throne at the top of the float. Her attendants representing the various organizations were as follows: Betty Jo Lassiter, Phi Theta Kappa; Delores Hill, choir; Brenda Bradshaw, Baptist Student Union; Bonnie Tinkham, Freshman class; Sandra Liverman, Sophomore class; and Kitty Carawan, Monogram club. These pretty girls were all attired in evening dresses and looked very charming.

The parade proceeded through the streets of the town, and to the football field. There it disbanded in time for the kick-off.

NEA Meeting At Elizabeth City

By BEATRICE CROCKER

On rainy October 21, in the Sheep Auditorium in Elizabeth City, the Elizabeth City High School band entertained those attending the National Education Association.

At the general session a Scotchman, Cameron Ralston, spoke on "A Social Interpretation of Education". He was a very interesting and dynamic speaker.

The Northeastern District of the N. E. A., composed of East Carolina and Chowan Colleges met and dined together at the Fort Raleigh Restaurant.

At the business session the district officers for the following year were elected. They are, president, Wayne Forbes of East Carolina; vice president, Audrey Marriner, Chowan, secretary; and Jo Ann Tew, East Carolina.

After the general session the teachers and students visited exhibits in the high school gymnasium.

The Chowan Chapter of the N.E.A. is very young and in a learning process and trying hard to improve. The officers of the Chowan N. E. A. for this year are Gene Williams, president; Charles Perlick, vice president; Audrey Marriner, secretary; Manley Dunlow, treasurer; and James Burnham, publicity.

Those attending the District N.E.A. convention from Chowan College were Catherine Triplet, Philip Bates, Frank Ballenger, David Snell, James Burnham, Audrey Marriner, and Gene Williams.

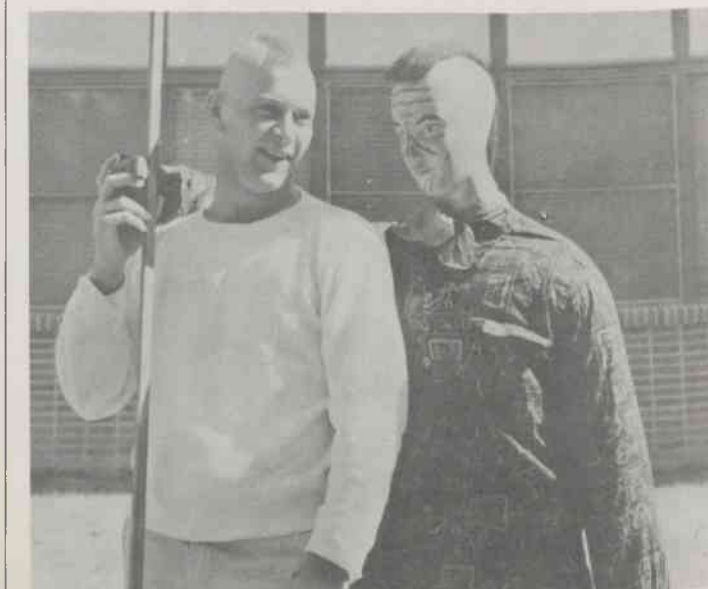

CHEERLEADERS — Fighting along with the Braves this year are these attractive cheerleaders: Left to right, Sandra Pendergraft, Durham; Patsy Picot, Franklin, Va.; Linda Sheek, Yadkinville; Ann Mitchell, Woodville; Jeanne Miles, Norfolk, Va.; Edith Workman, Titusville, Fla.; and Faye Adams, New Bern. Not pictured, other cheerleaders are, Brenda Bradshaw, Franklin, Va.; Betty Jo Lassiter, Ahsokie; Chloe Ward, Durham; and Bonnie Tinkham, Alexandria, Va.

Freshmen Float That Won First Prize

Sophomore Class Float

Guess Which One is Alive