Miss Chowan College 1959-60

The weather was fine and the crowd was great as the fifth annual Kiwanis Bowl parade was held in Ahoskie, Saturday, September 26.

The parade started in the afternoon with the Ahoskie High School band leading the way. Riding in the parade were Murfreesboro Mayor R. T. Vann, Chowan President Dr. Carolina representative in last year's Miss Universe contest; Miss Jackie Anderson of Severn, and a student at Chowan, later crowned as Miss Chowan College; Misses Bonnie Tinkham, Norfolk; Audrey Marriner, Hickory, Va.; Geneva Congle-ton, Washington, N. C.; Vivian Burgess, Conway; "Bunny" attendants for Miss Chowan; Kiwanis President W. H. Bryan; the Past-President Dan P. Boyette, Jr.; Chamber of Commerce Manager Ray Cantrell; Ray Whitley, Nell Whitley, and Melvin Ray Nichols, crippled children who attended the monthly clinic in Ahoskie.

The parade was followed by which the latter won 27-6.

G W Bulldogs Win 14-0 Over Chowan

The power-laden Bulldogs of Gardner-Webb College ground out a hard-fought but well-deserved 14-0 win over the Chowan College Braves in a contest played on the high school field, Saturday night, September 19. end John Young gathered the Bruce E. ## Staunton Cadets Defeat Braves In Kiwanis Bowl

Staunton Military Academy gave the Braves from Chowan a 27-6 whipping September 26, at the annual Kiwanis Bowl game held in Ahoskie.

Tom Urbanik scored early for Staunton from five yards out. The tally was set up by a pass from Chowan's Bobby Little. The pass was intercepted by John Snider for the Cadets, and Staunton's score came four plays later.

Staunton was penalized 180 yards in the game while Chowan had only 55 yards in penalties.

For Chowan, it was the second loss in as many games year. In the opener, Chowan lost 14-0 to Gardner-Webb.

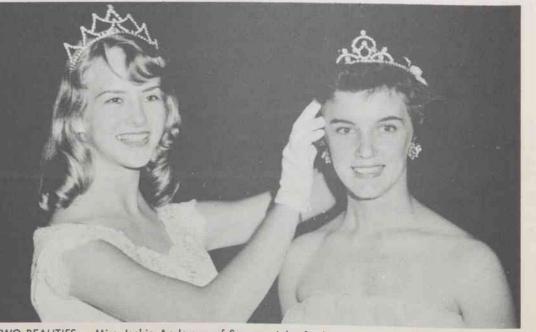

The only touchdown for the Braves came late in the final period when sophomore Charles Iddings grabbed a pass in the end zone from Bobby Little. The try for the extra point was unsuccessful.

Other scores for the Cadets came in the second and fourth quarters. In the second period, quarterback Tom Black ran the ball for 64 yards for another of Staunton's touchdown's. While Chowan was trying to score, Bobby Little's attempted pass ball in and ran down a clear points. The point after touchdown was not good.

ond TD. The drive was sparked by an 18 yard gallop by Nix and climaxed when Halfback Fred Ensley dove over right end for one yard and the score. Nix again converted.

The Braves threatened three times in the second half. The first threat was throttled when an alert Bulldog lineman recovered a Brave fumble on the G-W 24. Ensley forestalled the other ess, one on the Bulldog 8 yard line, the other on the Bulldog 15.
