

Seven Join Faculty

Here are seven of the new faculty members. Everyone at Chowan wishes to welcome each one to the campus.

CHARLEY L. SANDIFER—New on Chowan's faculty this year is Mr. Charley L. Sandifer. He hails from the state of Mississippi, attended the Crystal Springs Consolidated School in Crystal Springs, Mississippi, Copiah-Lincoln Junior College in Wesson, Miss., Mississippi College, New Orleans Baptist Seminary, and the University of Mississippi. Mr. Sandifer lists his hobbies as fishing, music, and traveling. He is married and very happy. At Chowan he is teaching English composition and literature. Mr. and Mrs. Sandifer have six children.

LEVI GILLIKIN, JR. — Mr. Gillikin is a native of Norfolk, Va. He is a professor of mathematics in the business department. This is his first year at Chowan. Mr. Gillikin's interest is religion and his hobbies are fishing and reading. His first impression of Chowan was "How old are these trees?" His favorite food is eggs.

JAMES M. CHAMBLEE — From Chapel Hill, Mr. Chamblee has been appointed professor and acting chairman of the Daniel School of Music at Chowan College. He was graduated from Walter Williams High School in Burlington, and holds the A. B. degree in music from the University of North Carolina, and M. A. degree in music from Columbia University. He has also done graduate work at U. N. C. toward the Ph. D. degree. Mr. Chamblee's favorite food is hamburgers and his first impression of Chowan was, "I like it." He is married to Carla S. Chamblee, who is also a new teacher at Chowan this year.

MRS. JAMES M. CHAMBLEE Teacher of piano and organ, Mrs. Chamblee is from Chapel Hill. She is a graduate of U. N. C. and has done study toward her M. A. in music. Her pet peeve is nothing in particular and everything in general.

WARREN G. SEXTON—Mr. Sexton is another new member of the faculty of Chowan College. A native of Lansing, N. C., he holds the A. A. degree from Lee-McRae College, the B. S. and M. A. degrees from Appalachian, and has done additional graduate work toward his Ph. D. degree. He likes sports and listening to music. Mr. Sexton collects material that will aid him in his teaching. His pet peeve is being late and his favorite food is ham. Mr. Sexton is married and has a baby girl three months old.

DR. WILLIAM C. YOUNG—A graduate of Stetson University, Deland, Fla., he holds the B. D., M. R. E., and D. R. E. degrees from the New Orleans Seminary. He is a native of New Orleans, Louisiana. Dr. Young has assumed leadership responsibilities in the Baptist Student Union program at Chowan College, is college chaplain, and is in student guidance and counseling. His interest is golf and fishing, and his favorite food is rice with gravy.

Enrollment Up

This year Chowan has the largest number of students enrolled in its history, which is 462. There are 334 living on the campus. Also, there are 58 students living off campus in the homes of families in Murfreesboro. There are 290 freshmen and 172 sophomores.

Chowan has 70 day students. Fourteen different religious denominations are represented. There are 301 Baptists; 88 Methodists; 18 Presbyterians; 4 Catholics; 19 Christians; 10 Episcopalians; 3 Holiness; 7 Lutherans; 7 Church of Christ; 1 Buddhist; 1 Quaker; 1 Nazarene; 1 Jehovahs Witnesses.

Chowan has 4 foreign students this year. They are Ed and Jay Maybud from Iran; Primchai Patchimsawat, Thailand; and Louis del Reigo, from Cuba.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION OFFICERS — At a recent meeting officers for the Alumni Association were elected. Pictured after the meeting are, Mrs. J. Grady Bridgers, Jackson, president; Mrs. Harold Brown, Murfreesboro, vice president; Mrs. R. H. Underwood, Murfreesboro, secretary and treasurer; and Mrs. Craig Revelle, Murfreesboro, executive secretary.

Thumbnail Sketches of Professors

Here are thumbnail sketches of the "old" teachers at Chowan. (Old referring to time of service, only.)

If any members of the faculty are not included they failed to fill in and return the questionnaire given to each one.

MRS. NEVA CAMPBELL—A native of Murfreesboro, Mrs. Campbell is a graduate of Chowan College and the University of North Carolina in Library Science. She has been at Chowan as librarian since 1957.

J. IRVING BROOKS — Mr. Brooks, dean of the college, is from Richmond, Va. This is his third year at Chowan. He graduated from William and Mary with a B. A. degree, and from the University of Virginia with a M. A. degree.

BELA UDVAROKI— Chairman of the department of social science, he is a graduate of the University of Budapest, University of Hamburg, University of Chicago and Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. He is a native of Budapest, Hungary. He has been at Chowan since 1952.

LINYEAR MAYO WALLACE, JR.—A second year man on Chowan's campus, he is a native of Washington, N. C., and a member of the department of business. He is a graduate of East Carolina College. Mr. Wallace's interest is "dates", and he says he's not married "but would like to be."

ANNA BELLE CROUCH — Assistant dean of women and a native of Missouri, Miss Anna Belle Crouch is a graduate of Southeastern Missouri State College, Carver School of Missions and Social Work, School of Music of Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, and East Carolina College. This is her second year at Chowan.

LIONEL L. BISHOP, JR.—He is a native of Greenville and a teacher of mathematics at Chowan. This is his fourth year here. Mr. Bishop received his B. S. and M. A. degrees from East Carolina College.

JERRY L. HAWKINS— Assistant Coach Hawkins is a native of Shelby. This is his second year as one of Chowan's coaches. His interest naturally, centers around sports. The coach says his hobby is working with crafts. He is not married, and his pet peeve is people who gripe.

HAROLD F. BROWN—He is a Graphic Arts graduate of Chowan College and teacher in that department for the fourth year. Mr. Brown is a native of Hamlet. His hobbies are golf and fishing.

FRANCIS M. TUCKER — A graduate of the University of North Carolina, he is in his second year at Chowan. He is a member of the department of science and his interest is botany and zoology. Mr. Tucker is married, and his favorite food is broiled steak.

JOHN MCSWEENEY — Mr. McSweeney is the director of the department of Graphic Arts and is a Master Printer. He has been at Chowan since 1952.

MRS. F. O. MIXON — Mrs. Mixon is a native of Anderson, S. C., and a chairman of the department of religion. She has taught here eight years and she enjoys traveling.

JAMES ROBERT MASTERS A native of Oak Ridge, Tennessee, and a professor of the department of business, he received his B. S. degree at Berea College in Berea, Kentucky, and did graduate work at the University of Tennessee.

F. MILAM JOHNSON—Mr. Johnson is a native of Eure and a graduate of East Carolina College with a B. A. and M. A. degree. He is chairman of the science department and in his fifth year at Chowan.

WILLIAM I. MARABLE—Mr. Marable is a teacher of English Literature. He is a graduate of William and Mary, with a B. A. degree. He also has degrees from the University of Virginia and Duke University.

WILLIAM B. SOWELL — William Sowell of Pageland, S. C. is a teacher in the school of printing. He has been here for five years. His interest is sports, and his favorite food is steak. Mr. Sowell is a graduate of the School of Graphic Arts at Chowan College.

THOMAS E. RUFFIN, JR.— Mr. Ruffin, of Ahoskie, N. C., is head of the department of business and a graduate of East Carolina College. He is beginning his third year at Chowan.

MRS. BRUCE WHITAKER— Wife of the president of Chowan College and teacher of religion and speech, she is in her third year here. Mrs. Whitaker is interested in students and her family. Her hobby is sewing, and her favorite food is ham. Mrs. Whitaker's first impression of Chowan was a "friendly and cordial campus." Her pet peeve is "students who say there's nothing to do!"

FRANCES E. WHITE — A native of Boykins, Virginia, and a teacher in religion and English, she has taught at Chowan for six years. She is a graduate from Radford College and Carver School of Missions and Social Work. Her hobby is scrabble and her pet peeve is "lazyness, a disease of some students." When asked if she was married Miss White said, "Not quite!"

JAMES G. GARRISON — Chairman of physical education and head coach, Mr. Garrison is a graduate of Gardner-Webb Junior College and Western Carolina College. He received a B. S. degree in education. This is his second year at Chowan. He is coach of the football, basketball, and track teams. His favorite food is home-made rolls, and his hobbies are fishing and sports.

M. EUGENE WILLIAMS — Chairman of the department of modern languages. He graduated from the University of Richmond and Duke University, and L' University de Dijan, France, with Premier Degree.