fourth conference game of the season. Both teams proved to be strong at bat as they had nine hits apiece.

Richard Hubbard and Beasley Jones of Chowan had two hits each to lead Chowan to victory. Campbell's big men were Tommy Mangum, Bob Harris and Bill Koonce who each had two hits apiece.

Coach Jerry Hawkin's boys now stand with a very fine record of 4-0 conference and 5-1 over-all record. This put Chowan as number one team in Junior College Conference.

Wins Over EMI

The Braves came back in the ninth inning to down the Cadets of Edwards Military Institute by the score of 7-6.

The game moved along very fast and neither team was able to do much until the bottom of the fourth inning when Chowan broke the ice with two runs to go ahead.

It didn't take long for the Cadets to get back into the game as Tommy Winston started off a wobbly fifth inning by allowing two hits and walking four men. E. M. I. scored five runs in that inning.

The Braves managed to put out the fifth inning fire, and came back to score runs in the fifth and seventh innings to tie the game at five each.

It looked as if E. M. I. might send the Braves to the showers for their first defeat. In the eighth inning each team scored one run and the score was tied at 6-6. In the bottom of the ninth E. M. I. pitcher walked Wayne Cosby and Nelson Hardister, and then came the big hit of the day when Roy Robertson hit a long single into right field scoring the winning run and making the final score 7-6.

PJC Downs Braves

On April 26, the Braves of Chowan played host to Presbyterian Junior College on Chowan's diamond. The boys from PJC took home a well deserved victory as they beat Chowan 6-1.

This defeat was the first conference loss of the season for Coach Jerry Hawkins and his Braves.

The starting pitcher for PJC was Jimmy Boyles. Boyles allowed Chowan only five hits and one run as they committed three errors. Chowan's starting pitcher, Alton Lowe, allowed 13 hits and gave up six runs on five errors.

Bill Leviner led PJC at bat with four hits at five times at bat. Shortstop Orbison was the leading hitter of the day as he drove in three of the six runs for PJC. Nelson Hardister, Pete Smoak, Richard Hubbard, Roy Robertson, and pitcher Alton Lowe each had one hit for the Braves.

The games started March 22, when rooms 109-120 played rooms 121-133. The following Thursday, rooms 109-120 played 209-220.

On March 29, rooms 121-133 played rooms 209-220. Rooms 209-220 won the first two therefore they did not play the third game. Rooms 109-120 also won two games.

The playoff was held on April 5 between the two winning teams. Rooms 109-120 topped the other rooms to win.

Campbell Wins

The Chowan Braves hopes for the Junior College baseball championship were dealt a blow when Campbell College defeated them 3-2 in 14 innings on May 5. The game, played under lights at Campbell, lasted 4½ hours.

Chowan opened the door for Campbell's runs by committing some very costly errors. Campbell's leading righthander Carl Koonce, shut the Braves out for five innings and with good defensive support. He yielded 11 hits, walked four and struck out 19 batters.

Alton Lowe started for Chowan and did a great job, allowing only nine hits, walking five and striking out 20. He allowed one run in the third inning and held Campbell scoreless until the ninth.

Braves Lose

The Seahawks of Wilmington College took over first place in the North Carolina Junior College Conference baseball standings on Saturday, April 30, at Wilmington College, with a 8-7 victory over Chowan in a long 12-inning game.

The victory gave Chowan a 5-2 conference record and Wilmington a 7-2 conference record.

A squeeze bunt by Cam Morgan which scored Jerry Richardson won the game. Morgan had tied the game up when he singled home Bobby Conner.

Richard Hubbard led the Braves at bat with three hits and Roger Coon had three for Wilmington.

The starting pitcher for Chowan was Tommy Winston, later relieved by Alton Lowe. Bobby Conner was the winning pitcher.

Chowan Wins Two

Chowan defeated Frederick at Chowan in a double-header on Tuesday, May 10.

In the first game Tommy Winston pitched Chowan to a 2-1 victory. Jerry Strickland was the losing pitcher in the seven inning game.

In the second game, Alton Lowe won for Chowan with a two-hit 1-0 nine inning game.

Pitcher Lowe, one of the outstanding righthanders in the league, has had performances watched by big league scouts. Lowe struck out 21 batters in the Campbell game.
