

Matthews, Prince On J. C. All-American Team

DONNIE MATTHEWS

Chowan College of Murfreesboro, N.C., was the only school to come up with more than one first team selection on the 1963 all-star football squad announced last week by the National Junior College Athletic Association.

Chowan got two players, tackle Bob Prince and halfback Don Mathews, on the first team.

Other selections: ends, Mike Heston of Mason City, Iowa, and Lane Hurley of Lees-McRae of Banner Elk, N.C.; tackle, Ken Opple, Grand Rapids, Mich; guards, Gary Jamison, Coffeyville, Kan., and Vern Voss, Joli, Ill.; center, Nelson Salemi, Hutchinson, Kan.; quarterback, Jerry Reagan, Garden City, Kan.; halfback, James Jones Phoenix, Ariz.; fullback, Bob Wilcinski, Ellsworth of Iowa Falls, Iowa.

Second team: ends, Jerry Murphy, McCook, Neb., and Clarence Lee, Northeastern of Sterling, Colo.; tackles, Rick Gilkison, Highland, Kan., and Dick Leach, Hutchinson, Kan.; guards, Brent Bradbury, Snow College of Ephraim, Utah, and Paul Ott, Arkansas City, Kan.; center, Jim Growden, Ellsworth of Iowa Falls, Iowa; quarterback, Don Neves, Boise, Idaho; halfbacks, Corvell Champion, Trinidad, Colo., and James Nixon, Grand Rapids, Mich.; fullback, Frank Fencl, Thornton of Harvey, Ill.

HONORABLE MENTION JUNIOR COLLEGE ALL-AMERICAN

David Whaley - Chowan College, Murfreesboro, N. C.
Quarterback

BOB PRINCE

DAVID WHALEY

