

New Men's Dormitory

A new addition to the Chowan campus this year is the new dormitory for men. Here are some pictures of the building and residents. 1) A portion of the front of the structure which houses 216 male students; 2) the houseparents of the new dorm, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Pappendick; 3) Jimmy Clayton and Charlie Ansell tune their instruments for rehearsal; 4) Clarence King and Francis Orem take advantage of the snack machines in one of the three lounges; 5) recorded music is the order of the day for Al Forest and and Bryon Palazzdo; 6) David Stutzman carries on a conversation with a fellow resident through an ingenious communication device; 7) Prince Edwards does a little room cleaning; 8) second floor residents watch TV in the lounge; 9) Joe Marett starts the day off right; 10) most people, like Eddie Deans, study here.
