

Recreation Association Is Formed

By SANDRA HARE

The Women's Recreation Association of Chowan College, newly organized this year under the direction of Mrs. Janet Collins, elected officers at its first meeting of the school year. The officers are Janet Leonard, president; Ann Jenkins, vice-president; Carol Holt, secretary and treasurer; Sandra Hare, corresponding secretary; Martha Holland, intramural chairman; and Myrtle Hofler, special events chairman.

Other members include Maggie Griffin and Sue Bunch of Dorm A; Pat Vanderford, Jean Wooldridge, and Donna Andrews of Dorm B; Mary Ann Burroughs of Annex; and Kathy Smith, representing the day students. Representing various activities sponsored by the W.R.A. are Susan Gregory, cheerleader; Joan Knight, interpretations; Becky Paulson, knitting; and Jad Ladd, majorette and drill team.

The purposes of this organization, as stated in the Constitution of the W.R.A., are to "stimulate interest and to provide for participation in a varied program of athletic and recreational activities to promote good sportsmanship, fellowship, and cooperative living among the women of this college, and to maintain high standards of leadership."
