Indoor Parking

(ACP) — A University of Iowa graduate student had parking problems. He drives a motorcycle.

"It's not a bike so it can't be parked in bike racks," he said. "It could park with cars, but I can't get a sticker."

Finally, he figured out a way. "I drove it in the back ramp of the chemistry building — I work there — and took it up the elevator. Then walked it to my lab . . . Here I parked it next to my lab bench. It's tiny, and doesn't hurt anyone. . . . "But by 3:05 — that's what it says on my ticket — I got hit."

The offense? There were four: "No sticker, no parking zone, parked against traffic, and not within the lines."

Herman Gatewood, faculty advisor for THE CHOWANIAN, took the cover picture Murfreesboro Baptist Church. Its pastor, the Rev. Roland S. Pruette, authored the cover message for this Thanksgiving issue.

Faculty and staff members of Chowan College are very active members of Murfreesboro Baptist Church, as can be seen from the following impressive list:

Mrs. Bruce E. Whitaker, one of two teachers for the College Young People's class; Jim Garrison and Wilson Johnson, deacons; Anna Bell Crouch, music committee; Bob Mulder, choir director; Jim Garrison, usher and nominating committee; Ben Sutton, finance and budget committees; Charlie Helms, Royal Ambassador's leader; Dr. Taylor, Baptist Training Union, young people's director; William McCraw, intermediate leader, Baptist Training Union; Jack Hassell, teacher in junior department, and Carl Simmons, assistant teacher in intermediate department.

Leo Bishop, teacher for Warren Taylor Men's Class; Clayton Morrisette, assistant teacher in intermediate department; Mrs. F. O. Mixon, teacher of Fellowship Class; Miss Frances White, teacher of LLL class; Wilson Johnson, teacher for Men's Bible Class, and Warren Sexton, assistant teacher for the Local Young People's Class.

The Young People's Department, which includes several Sunday School classes, meets each Sunday at 9:45. Many Chowan students attend. Morning worship is at 11:00. Evening worship is at 6:30. Student Fellowship Time is at 7:15 and the Training Union meets at 7:30, both every Sunday.

The Murfreesboro Baptist Church has grown with the growth of Chowan College, and through the good work of the Rev. Pruette. There are now 535 resident members and 135 non-resident members.

Draft Dodgers

(ACP) — After years of putting students through the machine, the University of California committed the final ignominy — the distinctions between the male and female students have finally been erased, says the Daily Californian.

At least that seems to be the case since the University began putting draft deferment forms, bureaucratically known as "SSS Form 109 for undergraduates" in registration packets sent to women students.

Happily, most of the women students weren't too distressed by the complete disregard of their sex. One smiling frosh co-ed said, "I thought it was a sign of their non-discrimination."

A spokesman in the registrar's office explained that the cards were automatically put into all of the registration packets sent out. "However, the instructions were clear," she said.

The Old Timer

"The trouble with opportunity is that it always comes disguised as hard work."
