Marching Bands Parade Feature

Homecoming Day at Chowan College will feature Miss North Carolina's annual appearance, the college's own beauty and personality contest winners, outstanding marching bands and drill teams, a sky-diving student who plans to drop in on the festivities, and the gridiron classic between Lees-McRae Bobcats and Chowan's Braves.

Miss North Carolina

Miss Nanette Jackson Minor, Miss North Carolina for 1967, who has been featured organist and pianist in concerts and also sang starring roles in opera, will ride a convertible along the route for the Homecoming Parade and be featured during halftime ceremonies at the football game, starting at 2 o'clock. She is also scheduled to appear during a pep rally and a student talent contest Friday evening.

Chowan College's Homecoming Queen will be crowned during halftime ceremonies at the gridiron classic. She will be chosen from the Homecoming Court, previously elected by the student body.

Sophomore court members are Nancy Adams, nursing student and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Adams, 1029 Hinton Street, Petersburg, Va.; Patricia Gay Brower, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Brower, Route 5, High Point; Judy Lynn Hancock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hancock, 718 Oak Summit Road, Winston-Salem; Pamela Dee Heishman, daughter of Captain and Mrs. J. C. Heishman, Pensacola, Fla.; Ann Rushmore, daughter of Colonel and Mrs. R. W. Rushmore, 31-A Wright Avenue, Langley Air Force Base, Hampton, Va.

Freshman Nominees

Freshmen are Diana Boykin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Boykin, Jr., 802 North Smithfield Street, Williams- ton; Lyna Marie Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Phillips, Faber, Va.; Janet Morris, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frank E. Morris, 25 Garrett Drive, Hampton, Va.; Pamela Rosser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Rosser, Jr., 4018 Chesapeake Avenue, Hampton, Va.

Dr. Bruce E. Whitaker, Chowan College President, will crown the Homecoming Queen.

Jim Wells, 23-year old ex-Marine, will drop in on pre-game ceremonies by parachute. The sky-diving Chowan student will come down during a lull between performances of the Cavallettes, girls' precision marching and drill team from Virginia Beach's Princess Anne High School, the Princess Anne Marching Band and Virginia Beach's First Colonial High School Marching Band.
