

Trustees, Advisors Hold Meeting

Approval of a record budget and employment of three additional professors highlighted the semi-annual meeting of the board of trustees of Chowan College Sept. 28 in the office of Dr. Bruce E. Whitaker, president.

A budget of $2,425,000 was approved for the 1970-71 year. The budget for 1969-70 was $2,265,000.

Faculty additions authorized were Miss Shirley Diane Thorne, mathematics; Juan Antonio Huerta, Spanish; and Howard A. Perkins, English.

The trustees, meeting jointly with the board of advisors, also heard reports on the need for a new science-engineering facility from Dr. B. Franklin Lowe, Jr., dean of the college, and George Hazelton, acting chairman of the science and mathematics department.

The board asked that a committee be named to investigate methods of obtaining the facility. The chairmen of the advisory and trustee bodies, Charles L. Revelle, Sr., of Murfreesboro and Irwin Belk of Charlotte, respectively, and Dr. Whitaker were appointed to select the committee in cooperation with the executive committee of the board of trustees. The committee will report to a joint meeting of the trustees and advisors.

Resolutions

In other action, the board authorized resolutions of appreciation for Dr. Ben C. Fisher and Miss Arelia Adams. Dr. Fisher, who has served since 1962 as executive secretary of the Council on Christian Higher Education of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention, will assume the position of executive secretary-treasurer of the Education Commission of the Southern Baptist Convention Oct. 1.

Miss Adams served as bursar for 17 years until her recent retirement.

Also discussed was the dedication of South residence hall and the adjacent lake, set for Oct. 24 with Congressman Walter B. Jones as featured speaker.

Dr. Whitaker presented his annual report, a review of the previous year's operation and financial standing of the college.

Commended for his service to Chowan and the progress experienced under his administration was Dr. Whitaker, who has served as president since May 15, 1957.

Among those present was a new member of the advisors, Dr. Edward H. Pruden, pastor emeritus, First Baptist Church, Washington, D. C., now of Raleigh.

MONEY FOR CANADA

Americans traveling in Canada spent $900 million in 1969, compared with $1.1 billion in 1967, the year of Montreal's Expo.

President Addresses Boards

Dr. Bruce E. Whitaker, president, addresses the joint meeting of the boards of trustees and advisors held Sept. 28 in his office. Seated at the front desk from the left are Irwin Belk, chairman of the advisors; Charles L. Revelle, Sr. chairman of the trustees; and Ben Sutton, business manager.

Mrs. Helen G. Burgwyn, professor in the business department, serves coffee to A.L. Jameson of Williamston, a member of the board of advisors. A group of Mrs. Burgwyn's secretarial students assisted the hospitality committee, headed by Miss Vicki Tolston, left, dean of women, in receiving the trustees and advisors at their joint meeting Sept. 28.

Ahoskie Representatives

Maxine Gilliam serves refreshments to two members of the board of trustees, Ollie M. Brown, left, and J.L. Darden, Sr. All three are from Ahoskie, N.C.

Two members of the board of advisors, James B. Powers, left, of Rocky Mount and Irwin Belk, chairman from Charlotte, are served refreshments by Joan Raybon of Wendell.