

A Picture from the Past

LOUNGE AREA—An area of the second floor of McDowell Columns building, which former students will remember as a lounge area during the time when the floor was used as a dormitory, has been renovated and furnished with attractive furniture. The area also houses many portraits of former Presidents of Chowan College. The remaining areas of the second floor, formerly used as dormitory rooms, now houses the offices of the Department of Development and Public Relations, and the offices of the Dean of the College.
