CITY AND COUNTY.

The Notes that are Gathered in a Reporter's Rounds.

On the Market.

There was more activity in cotton circles today than has been seen for sometime. Several bales of the fleecy staple was sold here.

A wagon load of apples was brought here this morning by a farmer from an adjoining county and was quickly disposed of.

Died from Consumption.

Mrs. Bettie Duke, wife of Alphonso Duke, living on Jackson street, died this morning at 3 o'clock from consumption, after a long illness and much suffering. She was about 35 years of age and leaves a husband and two children to mourn her loss. She was a very estimable woman and a patient sufferer.

It was Growing Corn

The best reports of the corn crops still continue to come in from all over this section of the country. John Mesley's tailors goose tells it that a farmer was heard to say that he had planted a good crop of peas with his corn, and the seasons were so favorable, and the corn grew so fast that it pulled the peas up by the roots.

Mr. and Mrs. Babbitt Here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Babbitt, of Bayboro, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon to see their son, Vance Babbitt, who attempted to commit suicide Thursday morning at the home of Mr. T. L. McClees. When they arrived there the young man wrote on a slip of paper to let his father come in his room, but not to let his mother come. He seemed to dread the meeting with his mother. The young man is getting along very well indeed.

Saving the Water.

Some time ago Guss Duncan, of Person county, came over to Durham with a two horse wagon load of chickens. A member or two of his family were with him. Near Eno church he stopped at a well to get a cool drink of water and also refresh his team. The well was full of water, but he was forbidden to water his horses. The lady of the house told him he could get a drink, but no more—she was saving that water for the Eno Association which is now being held out there and so Guss had to drive on.

Committee Elected.

The Democratic delegates from the various townships, to the county convention, held a meeting today at eleven o'clock and elected the following Executive committee for the party in this county:

Cedar Fork—F. P. Williams.
Durham—J. S. Manning.
Lebanon—Dr. E. M. Holt.
Mangum—C. C. Hampton.
Oak Grove—John E. Suit.
Patterson—G. A. Barbee.
The committee then unanimously elected J. S. Manning chairman. Mr. Manning thanked the committee for the honor conferred upon him for the second time, and made a patriotic Democratic speech, urging harmony and expressed himself as gratified with the outlook.

Early Morning Fire.

About 2 o'clock this morning there was an alarm of fire. It was discovered in the Blackwell prize houses on Green street, west of Five Points. They are wooden buildings and but for the efficient work of our fire department they would have been destroyed, but they were saved without damage save some burnt parts in the interior. How the fire originated no one seems to know. One contained tobacco owned by G. A. Reams, upon which there was an insurance of $3,000 with W. H. McCabe. The other contained tobacco owned by W. L. Cooper, on which there was an insurance of $500. The damages have not yet been estimated.

AN AGREEMENT AT LAST.

The Senate and House Conferees Reported to Have Come Together.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—After the cabinet meeting today four members announced, each to a different person, that an agreement had been reached by the Senate and House conferees on the tariff bill. The basis of agreement was not disclosed, but one of the most distinguished members of the cabinet said to a press representative, "You can announce that the President will sign a tariff bill within ten days." The explanation of this, which is current at the Capitol, is that a sugar schedule has been agreed upon and has been accepted by the House conferees as follows: Forty per cent. ad valorem on all raw sugar, and the same amount on all refined sugar, the duty to be collected, however, on the basis of the saccharine strength. In addition to this there is to be a differential to the refiner of one-fifth of a cent a pound, and a discriminating duty against those countries that pay an export bounty on refined sugar equivalent to the bounty so paid. It is understood that the government will also regulate in some way the prices of foreign sugars so as to prevent any attempt to juggle with the quotations.

In Compliment to Miss Briggs.

A correspondent writing from Rutherfordton to the Charlotte Observer says: "An Evening with the Poets" was the heading of invitations received by numbers of our young people asking their presence at the residence of Prof. and Mrs. Britton, on Institute Heights, and a very large party spent a delightful evening in listening to sketches of the lives of Paul Hamilton Hayne, James Russell Lowell, Edgar Allen Poe, and recitations, readings and songs from these poets. The close of the evening was spent in discussing cream and cake in the handsomely decorated dining room of the host and hostess. This entertainment was in compliment to Miss Blanche Briggs, of Durham, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Britton.

He Paid the Forfeit.

Oxford Ledger: Messrs. H. T. Beasley and A. A. Crews got into a discussion about a matter and finally agreed that whoever was wrong should roll the other up to the Asylum and back in a hand cart. It was decided on Friday in favor of Mr. Crews, and Mr. Beasley rolled Mr. Crews from Howell Bros. store to the Asylum and back. The boys claim that Mr. Crews had a good whip in his hand and put H. T. in mind of the time when he urges his horse to reach some good farmer's home to buy a crop of tobacco ahead of another fellow.
