WE notice that the Governor of Nebraska has pardoned a "gentleman" who was sentenced to serve 20 years for robbing the State of $550,000, after serving only four years. It is a fact that gentlemen who succeeded in the business so convicted never stay long in the pen.

SENATOR Simmons has introduced the Durham Federal building bill in the Senate. It has already been introduced in the House by M . Kitchin. We are told that the entire North Carolina delegation will appear before the committee and urge its passage. It is to be hoped that they will not let it slip this session. The facts and figures already libraries have been added in Durto give us a building, if any place is entitled to a building on its business and revenue receipts.

DURHAM extends a cordial welcome to Governor Aycock, and for. Auditor Dixon, who are now within our gates. The latter delivered a most interesting address before the Daughters of the Confederacy and citizens at the Lee memorial exercises in the Public Library this dresses the Junior Order and citiis a pleasure to have these gentlemen here in the most progressive town in the State and listen to their earnest and eloquent words upon their respective subjects.
