SHEPHERD SUIT ON TODAY.

THE CITY AND TRACTION CO. THE DEFENDANTS.

Plaintiff and His Brother the First Witnesses on the Stand Today.

The suit of J. S. Shepherd vs. City of Durham and the Durham Traction Company, was called in the Superior Court Thursday afternoon.

In this case Mr. Shepherd sues for $10,000 damages for injuries received last year by being caught and impaled on a large meat hook at the market house. He came in contact with an electric light wire that gave him such a shock as to throw him against the meat hook. The hook caught him in the back of the head or neck, and inflicted a very painful wound, which laid him up for some time. The plaintiff claims that had insulation of wires been used the accident would not have occurred.

The introduction of testimony was begun today and will continue probably until tomorrow.

At this morning's session, J. W. Shepherd and J. S. Shepherd, the latter the plaintiff in this action, were upon the stand. A number of witnesses were summoned, and it is thought that the case will not end before sometime Saturday.

The law firm of Boone, Bryant & Briggs represent the plaintiff. Manning & Foushee are counsel for the Traction Company, and Jones Fuller for the city of Durham.

S. S. INSTITUTE.

To be Conducted at Trinity Church by Prof. Hamill.

Prof. and Mrs. H. M. Hamill will conduct a Teachers' Sunday School Institute at Trinity church, in this city, beginning Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The place of meeting will be in the Sunday School room of the church.

Prof. Hamill, who is one of the ablest workers in the interest of Sunday Schools, has visited Durham several times before, and our people have enjoyed having him here. All interested in Sunday School work, and those friendly to the cause, are cordially invited to attend. It is expected that a large number will avail themselves of the opportunity of hearing them.

"NOT AFRAID."

Dangerous Practice of Playing on the Railroad by Children.

A gentleman from the western section of the city calls our attention to the reckless manner in which a number of school children walk and play on the railroad track between Duke's factory and Trinity College. He tells us that they walk over the railroad trestle, and play upon it unmindful of danger, in spite of the fact that they often have barely time to pass over the trestle before an engine approaches. When remonstrated with and told of the danger, they reply: "We are not afraid."

It is this spirit of reckless exposure that fills the daily papers with heart-rending accounts of just such accidents as this dare-devil amusement is sure to lead to, if means are not adopted to keep these children from walking along the railroad track and passing over this trestle.

A word of caution to parents should be heeded. This matter is a most important one, and if by allusion to it, we should directly or indirectly be the means of saving a human life, we will feel that we have not lived in vain.

A Pretty Successful Hunt.

D. S. Cates, who lives out in the Cole's mill neighborhood, and known among his friends by more familiar name of Sam, went out Wednesday afternoon about 4 o'clock for a small hunt around his plantation. In two hours time he had one opossum, two squirrels and a fine wild turkey gobble. He saw the gobble in a tree, muffled up, without signs of life, and at first thought it was a squirrel's nest and he fired one shot at it to see if it was inhabited, when to his surprise down came the gobble.

Change on O. & C.

Next Sunday the Southern Railway will change the schedule of their passenger train between Richmond and Durham, which arrives here now at 2:40 p. m., daily. It will reach Durham at 4:15 p. m. There is some talk to the effect that ere long there is a probability of this train being run through to Raleigh, if the company can see that the demands of the public will be sufficient to make it pay.

Attending the Meeting.

Dr. C. D. McIver, president of the State Normal and Industrial College, passed through the city this morning going to Raleigh to attend the meeting of superintendents of city schools.

Was Bound Over.

Milton Peace was arraigned in the police court this morning on the charge of larceny of a bottle of wine and a bottle of whiskey from the saloon of Proctor & Co. The defendant waived examination, after which he was bound over to court under a bond of $50. Bail was given and he was released.

To My Friends and Customrs.

On Monday I will move my restaurant from the present location on West Main street, to 209 Parrish street, opposite Parrish's old stables. I do not propose to miss serving a meal to my customers and they can get dinner on that day at my old stand and supper at the new place. I will be better prepared to serve the public in my new quarters and ask them to give me a call. Don't forget the new place will be at 209 Parrish street. Yours to serve,

IN DEATH'S DARK DOMAIN.

MRS. NELSON AND MR. FARTHING PASS AWAY.

The First Named Buried at Hillsboro and the Latter in the Farthing Burying Ground.

Mrs. Luke Nelson died at her home on Liberty street this morning about 2 o'clock, of cerebral hemorrhage.

Deceased was about 28 years of age, and leaves a husband but no children. A large number of friends are also left to mourn her death.

Mrs. Nelson was a most excellent lady, and in all relations of life was true and faithful. A gentleman in speaking of her this morning said that he never knew a lady that was more attentive to every duty that came under her supervision than the deceased.

The remains were carried to Hillsboro on the 9:30 train this morning, and laid to rest there today. The pall-bearers who accompanied the remains to the depot were Messrs. A. J. Weatherspoon, R. P. Hackney, M. V. Ferrell, Fred Womble, Harvey Bolton and J. H. Shields.

The bereaved have the sympathy of all in their hour of sorrow.

MR. HARGIS FARTHING.

Mr. Hargis Farthing passed away Thursday afternoon a few minutes before 4 o'clock, at the Watts Hospital, from the result of injuries received a few days ago by a fall.

The deceased would have been 80 years of age had he lived until April. He was one of the most highly esteemed citizens, having resided in Durham most of his life. He recently returned from Richmond, where he spent several months with a niece. But for the accident in which he broke his shoulder bone, there are reasons to believe that he would have been spared for many years yet. He had been a consistent member of the Primitive Baptist church for 60 years.

M. Farthing was an uncle of Messrs. G. C. and William S. Farthing, of Durham. He leaves other relatives in Richmond and Raleigh. These have the sympathy of all in their bereavement.

The funeral services took place from the Primitive Baptist church this afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by Elder T. Y. Monk, after which the remains were carried out to the old Farthing burying ground, about three miles from the city, for interment.

Splendid Tobacco Sale.

The Banner Warehouse made a splendid sale today. 17,018 pounds of tobacco were sold at an average of over 20 cents a pound for the entire sale, including everything. The most of this tobacco came from Person county, a good deal of it bringing as much as $38 per hundred.

Durham is the place to market tobacco. The highest prices that can be obtained anywhere always prevail here; in fact, farmers have told us time and time again that figures are a little better here than on other markets.

Pulled Out Her Eye and Died.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 23.—Mrs. Bula Abbey, wife of a young merchant near Sparta, Tenn., is dead as the result of a pulling out of one of her eyes in a fanatical and literal interpretation of the scripture injunction:

"If thine eye offend pluck it out and cast it from thee, for it is better to go into heaven having only one eye, than to suffer the torments of hell fire."

She became much excited over religion last autumn and since that time, it is said, has been very strange.

She Carries a Revolver.

A press dispatch from Suffolk, Va., says that when Miss Minnie Rhodes, a pretty young woman who teaches school near there, was asked if she was always ready to protect herself said:

"Yes, I always carry a revolver when driving to my school, and I keep it with me while teaching. Should any suspicious man attempt to enter the school house he will first have to meet bullets."

Husbands and fathers indorse Miss Rhodes' innovation, which is being copied, and some of them are urging that their wives and daughters practice with weapons, that they may become more proficient.
