SHOT AT DOG KILLED FRIEND. Sad Death of Young Jusper Almerson

Johnson Gets $1,300 Damages. GOLDSBORO, N. C., Jan. 30 -Jasper Aimerson, aged about twenty years, a promising young man of Nahunta township, was shot last evening by his companion and relative, Pharaoh Davis, near Fremont, N. C., death resulting this morning The young men were en route to Fremont and on the road were assailed by a dog. Davis drew a pistol to shoot the dog, but while in the attempt to cock the weapon it went off, the ball passing through his left hand and into the side of Aimerson.

Mr. Richard Johnson was awarded damages in the sum of $1,500 by the jury today. The action was egainst the Atlantic and North Car olina Railroad and damage asked was $10,000. It will be recalled that Mr. Johnson in getting off a train at LaGrange, fell and broke his arm.-Raleigh News and Ob-

Mr. Gillette's Clover Description of How to Make a Play.

Wu Ting Fung, his excellency the Chinese minister, on one occasion listened with intense approval and much industry of thought to William Gillette's performance of his own play, "Secret Service," and asked in reverential courtesy to be presented to the author-actor, says Short Stories.

Into Mr. Gillette's 4 by 6 milk white dressing room crowded his excellency and his suit, all bowing gracefully and unrolling their little tan hands from silk sleeves to be clasped in Gillette's firm American grasp. " "Do you work this way every night for many weeks?" asked the diplomat, driving a piercing glance at Mr. Gillette.

"Yes; many months, and years if people will stand it," quoth Sir William of Manhattan.

"How do you make this sort of a play-so beautiful a story-not interfered with in any way by the characters?"

To this question Mr. Gillette could not unfold an impromptu drama recipe, so he took refuge in the ambush of the special Gillette RICHMOND, Jan. 30.—The amount wit in its solemn vein of boyishness
