Saving Sight.

Self-imposed duties begin with the attention you owe your eyes. Of all the organs that constitute the human masterpiece, the eye is at once the most precious—the most useful and at the same time the most delicate. Forgetfulness is the chief cause of most eye failures. One is so apt to unthinkingly overtax the willingness of the ever ready eyes. My mission is to help you save your sight. You may consult me at any time free. I am capable, both through theory and experience, to detect the least defect of vision, to make and adjust glasses that should relieve and correct any eye ailment. Don't delay longer! Avail yourself of this opportunity to do your eyes a good turn. And the only expense will be the moderate cost of the glasses.

RETIRED SPONGES.

"Disabled" Army Officers Who Are Drawing Double Salaries.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The Army appropriation bill which passed the House yesterday contains a provision which will greatly interest the four hundred and fifty retired officers of the army. It authorizes the Secretary of War to order the re-examination of any officer on the retired list of the army who was retired for disability, and whom there is reason to believe is physically qualified for active service. It is said that the retired list of the army contains quite a number of army officers who in addition to drawing retired officers' pay, are receiving large salaries for civil work, and it is proposed to cut down the large appropriation for the pay of retired officers by returning to active service any officer who upon re-examination by a board of army officers, is found to be physically competent. The present appropriation bill carries $1,043,381 for the pay of retired officers. When before the House Committee on Military Affairs, Secretary Root testifies on this subject as follows:

"I know one gentleman who is receiving pay on the ground of total disability, and he is or was receiving a salary of $10,000 a year. I know of another who was retired on total disability who is practicing his profession of medicine regularly, just as any other doctor do, and who was retired on total disability as lieutenant of artillery, and who turned up in the Spanish war as a captain of volunteers."

EVANS TO STEP OUT.

He Places His Resignation in the Hands of the President.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Commissioner of Pensions Evans has placed his resignation in the hands of the President. It will not take effect until some important position in the diplomatic service is found for him. The Pension Committee appointed at the last annual encampment of the G. A. R. to investigate the affairs of the Pension Bureau has made its report to the President. It has not yet been decided as to when the report will be made public, if at all.

It is stated that the policy of Commissioner Evans will be continued by his successor.

Soon after General Torrence left the White House, Commissioner Evans called at the request of President Roosevelt and remained with him for some time. He declined to discuss the question of his retirement from the office of Commissioner of Pensions.

Skipped With the Funds.

New York, March 28.—President Copeland of the Riverside Bank, announced today that H. G. Bell, the receiving teller, had disappeared with a sum estimated at from $20,000 to $100,000.

The Riverside is the leading "society" bank of the upper west side of the city. The money was taken between February 12 and Monday last.

Bell was engaged to a prominent society belle on whom it is reported he spent the money.

Lady Gets Whole Town.

The Raleigh correspondent to the Charlotte Observer says: The Supreme Court decides the interesting case of Mrs. Scott vs Ingram, involving the title to the whole town of Star, in Montgomery county. Mrs. Scott, a married woman, living in South Carolina, sold the land on which the town now stands, for a trifle, it seems. The town was built, and it is said the land is now worth $70,000 or thereabouts. The Supreme Court decides in favor of Mrs. Scott and so the property owners lose it.

They Will Take Her Back.

A very pretty young girl has been brought out of the depths of a house of ill fame in this community, by the efforts of Rev. T. L. Troy. She was from a good family in Pennsylvania and expressed a desire to reform. She was found in Durham having come here from a neighboring town. Her people expressed a willingness to take her back, and yesterday she left on the afternoon train, in company with a lady, for her Pennsylvania home. This is another gratifying evidence of the good work that city missionary Troy is doing in our community.

EAST DURHAM NEWS

INTERESTING ITEMS FROM OUR NEIGHBORS.

Movements of People and Things in General, Reported Daily by E. F. Abernethy.

The exercises at the Graded School become more interesting as the weeks go by. The debate yesterday was the best yet had. The query was, "Resolved, That the Indians have suffered greater wrongs from the American government than the negroes." The speakers for the affirmative were Arthur Barcham, Murphy Boyd and Josie Turner. Those on the negative side were Miss Mary Cheek, Fred Hamlin and Willie Clark. The judges decided in favor of the negative. Jose Turner won the prize on the affirmative, and Willie Clark the prize on the negative. The prizes were presented by A. W. Ellison. More of our people should attend these debates. They are well worth hearing and it encourages the youthful debaters to have a number of visitors present. When we send some of these young men to Congress, Durham would not have to wait much longer for a public building.

Miss Mary Turner recited an Easter piece very nicely. She is a talented girl, and will be a fine elocutionist some day if she pursues her studies. The exercises closed with a song, "Christ Arose."

Mrs. May J. Bennett, of Chatham, has moved to East Durham.

Robert Stallings paid a short visit to his aunt, Mrs. M. F. Perry, yesterday.

Misses Mary Hall, Cora Kerr and several others went to the Union Meeting at Olive Branch yesterday.

There were so many pretty faces in our store last night I could not write. That accounts for there being no more East Durham news in the Sun today. Come again, ladies. I would rather look at you than to write for any paper.

Miss Alma Knight left today for Effand.

Miss Sarah Roundy, of Goldsboro, is visiting her sister, Mrs. D. R. Day.

Charlie Howard, of Rookingham, is a visitor to our village.

Miss Sophronia Langston has gone to West Durham to spend Easter with her parents.

Little Misses Rosalind and Carrie Young and Carrie Morris, of Angier Avenue, went to Morrisville today to visit at the home of Dr. A. T. Cotton.

Mrs. Lizzie Stephens has gone to Chatham to visit her brother, Thos. Johnson, who is very sick.

Durham Leads the State.

Raleigh News and Observer: There are thirty-three public schools for white children in Durham county. A public library has been established in every district except two, and Superintendent Massey will soon send orders for libraries for the remaining two, so that within thirty days there will be a public library in every white public school in Durham county. The State provides the money for not exceeding six in each county. The other twenty-seven libraries are made possible by the generosity of General Julian S. Carr, of Durham, whose intelligent and zealous devotion to the cause of public education has been marked during his whole career.

The value of these rural libraries is much greater than can be appreciated now. They will grow into educational institutions that will bring cheer and education to young and old alike into every community in which they are located.
