COMPANION CLUB.
 A Most Delightful Social Affair Friday Night.
 A most delightful entertainment was given Friday evening at the Central Hotel annex, by the Fireside Companion Club, complimentary to the young lady friends of the Club.
 Those present were Misses Annie and Addie Ramsey, Mabel and Lottie Tomlinson, Lora and Vera Lyon, Nellie Fuller, Hattie McAllister, Annie Wall and Pearl Duke, Nannie and Grace Mangum; Messrs. Matheson, Carroll, Coffin, Craig, Vader, Rose, Bost, White, Satterlee, Willingham, Davis and R. G. Jones.
 Mrs. Peter Arrington, Mrs. Lizzie Jones, and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Lagree were the chaperones.
 Luncheon in four courses was served at 11 o'clock. A souvenir consisting of a pen and ink sketch representing a fireside scene was presented to each guest. A dainty little pipe with a red ribbon was attached. The following words appeared: "Fireside Companion Club, April 18, 1902."

Durhamites in Raleigh.
 The east bound Southern train had on two or three extra coaches this morning in order to take the crowds of people to Raleigh to witness the Virginia-Carolina ball game this afternoon. There were numbers from Hillsboro, Chapel Hill, Durham and other places on board.
 Among those who went from here were Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Burroughs, Stapler Fuller, S. P. Mason, W. W. Mason, Miss Loraine Proctor, Bascom Proctor, Edward Thompson, Mrs. J. G. Patterson, Misses Duke and Lyon, Mrs. H. R. Goodall, C. D. Rigsbee and others.
 You can get a straw hat at A. Max's for almost nothing. Now is the time to get one while prices are so low.
 Miss Minnie Lumsden has returned to Raleigh after a visit to Miss Jessie Allen, in this city.

GRAND EXHIBITION Of Wall Papers, &c.
 The public is cordially invited to call and see our new line of WALL PAPERS and ART GOODS, now on exhibit in over C. C. Thomas & Co's Wholesale Grocery.
 We have papers ranging in price from 4c. to $10 per roll. Our chamber patterns and panel effects are perfect "dreams of beauty"; our raw silks in Moorish designs, and "French Silk Flocks" are the most beautiful effects that the art of man can produce. It is no longer simple paper hangings, but ART DECORATIONS.
 Our prices are lower than ever and it will be a pleasure to show you our line of goods. We have the best and fastest paper hangers in the State, and the only one that employs regularly fresco painters and paper hangers. We are prepared to meet any and all competition.
 Twelve years experience in decorative work on most of the best houses of Durham, including Trinity Church, and on many residences, hotels and churches in other parts of the State, qualifies us to select with taste and to advise our customers what they should use.

LOCAL HURRYGRAPHS.
 Gathered From Highways, Byways, Railways and Otherways.
 —Dr. W. H. Edwards will preach at Piney Grove tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.
 —See changes in the advertisement of the Seaboard Air Line, on the third page of this paper.
 —Elder P. D. Gold will preach at the Primitive Baptist church tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock.
 —Forecast of the weather for North Carolina: Fair tonight and Sunday; light fresh southeast to south winds.
 —F. S. Mangum has a new advertisement in the Sun. He does all kinds of work and repairing about residences and business houses. All orders are attended to promptly and in best manner.
 —Sheriff F. D. Markham, of this city, who has gone to Dallas, Texas, to attend the Confederate reunion, will meet two of his brothers while there. A. L. Daniel, of Granville, who has also gone to the reunion, expects to meet three of his brothers while at Dallas.
 —Rev. A. B. Crumpler preached at the Gospel Tabernacle last night from the 30th verse of the 17th chapter of Acts—"What must I do to be saved?" There was perhaps the largest congregation present that has been out during the week. Right good interest was manifested.

MOVEMENTS OF PEOPLE.
 Durhamites as Well as Others Are Constantly on the Move.
 Dr. Joseph Graham, of Hillsboro, passed through the city this morning going to Raleigh.
 Mrs. Hampton Fleming left this morning for home in Richmond, Va., after a visit to relatives in this city.
 E. C. Hackney left this morning over the Norfolk & Western road for Lynchburg, Va., on a business trip.

Buried in Same Grave.
 A double burial took place at Rose of Sharon Baptist church Friday afternoon, and two young ladies were laid to rest in the same grave.
 On Thursday night, Miss Fannie Malone passed away of pneumonia, and on Friday morning her sister, Miss Bessie Malone, died of the same disease. Both were daughters of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Malone, of West Durham. The heart-broken parents have the tender sympathy of all in their dark hours of sorrow and bereavement.

Wants to Find Her Husband.
 A negro woman by the name of Mamie Alexander writes from Lodo, N. C., to Chief of Police J. A. Woodall, inquiring for information concerning her husband, Foster Alexander. She states that he left her sometime ago and she is anxious to hear from him or know where he is. So far as we can ascertain, no one by that name is known here.

Tabernacle Services Sunday.
 The Sunday services at the Tabernacle will be as follows: Preaching at 11 a. m., by Rev. A. B. Crumpler, on "The Second Coming of Christ; at 3:30 p. m., preaching by Mr. Crumpler, on "The Millennium," and at 7:30 p. m., there will be evangelistic services. The meetings continue throughout next week.
