ROBBERS AGAIN AT WORK

VISITED TWO HOUSES ON TUESDAY NIGHT

Fished Out Pants of Messrs. Mangum and Peace—Got the Former's and Latter's Pants.

Fishing pole robbers are again at work in Durham. They sallied forth sometime during the silent watches of Tuesday night and visited two residences. The same tactics were pursued at both places—that of raising windows and fishing out the pants of the heads of the two households.

At the residence of W. Mangum, Jr., on Cleveland street, the robber or robbers secured Mr. Mangum's pants, a fine gold watch and 25 cents in money. The pants were found on the porch this morning, where they had been left.

The other place visited was the home of S. H. Peace, on Liberty street. Mrs. Peace had been sick for several days, and Mr. Peace sat up with her for some two or three or more nights. Her condition was so much better Tuesday night that it was not necessary for him to do so. At 12 o'clock, however, he was up and at that time his pants were undisturbed. This morning a window was found raised a few inches and the pants, which were about fifteen feet away, were gone. In order to do this it was necessary for the robber or robbers to tie the two or three poles together. In the end of the spliced pole was a nail, which was used to hook the pants.

The pants were carried off, together with a three-cent piece, a key and a handkerchief. Mr. Peace says if the robbers will bring his pants back, they can have the three cents.

U. S. Owes Europe Money.

According to reports from the Treasury Bureau of Statistics the United States has no credit balance in Europe now.

On the contrary, we are in debt to Europe for borrowed credits or for money. Later on these debts will be paid in gold or with merchandise, but until this year's crops of wheat, corn and cotton become available for export there will remain a firm foreign exchange market at all times close to the gold export point.

The government estimates of Uncle Sam's present indebtedness to Europe is $25,000,000 for loans, while another $100,000 of American gold will be spent abroad this Summer by American tourists.

To Move Back Here.

R. B. Boone was in the city from Roxboro today, and returned there on the 4:55 train this afternoon. He is making arrangements to move his family back to Durham, and will be here again tomorrow. Mr. Boone has very many friends here who will be glad to see him back in our midst again.

Of the 145 persons on board the ill-fated City of Pittsburg more than half were either cremated or drowned. The origin of the fire is unknown.

MEETING AT TRINITY.

Two Services Are Held Daily by Rev. Mr. Norman.

A good sized congregation attended the services at Trinity church Tuesday night, and the closest attention was paid from the beginning to the close.

Rev. W. C. Norman preached from the 14th verse of the 116th Psalm—"I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all his people." The sermon was an earnest plea for the sinner to forsake his sins and come out and confess the Lord Jesus Christ before men.

After the sermon one person found peace by trusting in Christ. A good interest was manifest throughout the congregation.

Two services are held daily—prayer meeting at 10 a. m., and preaching at 8 p. m. All who are interested in the salvation of their own souls or those of their friends, loved ones or neighbors, are cordially invited out to each of the services.

SEAGRAVES IS BOUND OVER

THE CHARGE AGAINST HIM RATHER GRAVE.

A Hearing of the Case Came Up Before Mayor McCown This Morning.

Joseph Seagraves was arraigned in the police court this morning on rather a grave charge, that of attempted assault upon Mrs. Katie Ray, wife of Dock Ray, who lives in the western part of the city.

Mrs. Ray went on the witness stand and gave her testimony in regard to the matter. It seems that Seagraves went to her home and into the kitchen where Mrs. Ray was cooking dinner on Tuesday. He made an insulting remark, and she spoke to him about it. Thereupon he made a grab at her, and her dress was torn. She eluded him and ran across the street to the house of a relative. The prisoner denies that he is guilty of any unlawful act. He was a little under the influence of liquor at the time.

After hearing the testimony in the case, the mayor bound Seagraves over to the May term of Durham Superior Court under a bond of $100.

Was Out Today.

R. B. Proctor, who was painfully hurt in a runaway Tuesday morning, was able to be at his place of business today. He is still quite sore from the effects of the fall he received, and is thankful that he was not hurt worse than he was. How he escaped being badly hurt by the overturned buggy is almost a mystery.

Jurors From Durham County.
