TUESDAY, APRIL 29.

The man who is painting Trinity church steeple is certainly climbing high in Durham.

JUDGE CLARK has not answered his accuser yet, and the people are wondering why this protracted silence.

"The Rivals," as played by the A. & M. College Dramatic Club, of Raleigh, bids fair to rival some of the best professional companies on the road. They give a most creditable performance for amateurs.

The Catholic bishop of Savannah does not seem to be very charitable in his remarks concerning the President, but as like begets like, the President has possibly heretofore been too strenuous in some of his remarks.

There are a great many things in store for the good people of Durham. Some of the stores advertise and some do not. You will find the good things in the newspaper invitations the merchants extend to you to visit their places of business.

The press dispatches tell us that a great railway system for the Southern States that will equal the immense traffic lines of the Pennsylvania road is the latest ambition of John W. Gates. If this be the case we hope a union depot for Durham will be included in the plans, and we call Mr. Gates' attention to this before we forget it, and he lets it slip his mind.

The Iowa State Legislature has before it a bill contemplating the relief of editors from existing libel laws, by placing the responsibility upon the author who may furnish libelous matter to any owner, manager, editor or reporter of any newspaper, magazine, etc. Upon conviction the vendor of such news is to be fined not less than $500, or imprisoned in the county jail, not to exceed one year, or both. Several States have enacted similar laws and news managers are fast finding out that in many cases "Silence is golden."

MR. ROOSEVELT and Senator Hanna have locked horns on the Isthmian canal question. Senator Hanna has been openly leading the obstructionists for sometime, determined, if possible, to prevent any canal legislation at this session. Now, Mr. Roosevelt has taken the other side and is insisting that there shall be definite canal legislation before Congress adjourns. There can be no doubt that Mr. Roosevelt has got on the popular side of this important question. In fact, there is reason to believe that is why he is demanding canal legislation.

The Durham Odd Fellows had a field day of it yesterday and last evening. There was a feast of good things, a flow of fraternal spirit, and a charming banquet of humor, fun, eloquence and encouraging speech. They ought to be proud of this occasion, in this age of automobiles, electricity and bicycles. We were glad to see such a great Wheeler among them. By the way, if we read sacred history aright, some 5,996 years ago the first odd fellow set foot upon earth. Adam was the first Odd Fellow, but he was Eve-n with the world before he died. We hope the order will continue to add 'em to its membership from this time on.

SENATOR CARMAK is just now the most talked about member of the Senate. He has been steadily going to the front ever since he took his seat, and he "arrived" when he made that two-day speech, in which he gave the President and Mr. Funston the most severe oratorical spanking that either has received since they have been conspicuously before the public. The speech was against the Philippine bill, now before the Senate, and charged Mr. Roosevelt and Gen. Fred Funston with being as largely responsible for the Philippine revolt as any two men in this country.

The man who struggles and toils to earn an education is the one who makes the most of it, hence it is held by many that charity schools are not fruitful sources of benefit to the average beneficiary. The two great military and naval government schools, though surrounded by environments that are the least objectionable, have not always produced the best results. Viewed in that light the benefit from the noble ideas and the magnificent bequest of Cecil Rhodes is disparaged as to the amount of probable good it will accomplish. The men whom this money sends from this country to Oxford may turn out to be supercilious cads or the lowest types of ingrates. Akin to this experiment may be named the experiences of the South in its contributions for the education of the negro, and the danger of educating men improperly. The negro has had too much of what Cecil Rhodes has made possible for unworthy men.

EVENING CONSTITUTIONALS.

Some of Sam Small's Snap Shots for Saints and Sinners.
Champ Clark was renominated for Congress while a cyclone was careering over Missouri. It seems, then, that when Champ can't be on hand in person he has a substitute on duty.

Senator Beveridge rode the K. of P. goat in Indianapolis the other night. This ought to be a good time for him to let off a speech or two while getting able to resume his seat.

Colonel Bryan announces that he will not under any circumstances be again a presidential candidate. That statement wets down a lot of Republican editorial fireworks.

Governor Jim Hogg returns with the opinion that however hard-headed the British, they are the most tenderfoot crowd he ever tackled with a neat oil proposition. Congressman Cochran says senators are bought and sold in some states. We hope this charge will not get to the ears of any of the senators.

The House leaders are still puzzled to understand how they came to be dragged around the arena. It does look like a scurvy trick on "leaders!" Mark Hanna and Lewis Nixon dined together at a New York hotel and all the people are wondering which was the lady and which the tiger.

The Danish West Indies have voted for annexation. That is clever of them, seeing that we have already bid them off the block.

Senator Platt is said to favor the renomination of Governor Odell. The easy boss is always reasonable when he can't help himself.

Baltimore will give Schley a magnificent silver service and so get itself in contempt of the cloture order.

Senator Hanna doesn't act like a man who is trying to avoid the public eye.—Atlanta Constitution.

The May number of Everybody's Magazine opens with a most interesting article by Dr. Henry Gannett on "Famous American Mountains," superbly illustrated with photographs of the notable peaks of the Rockies, the Sierras and the Alaskan Range. Especially timely is T. P. O'Connor's estimate of Cecil Rhodes—the "Napoleon of South Africa." It is a skillful character study, representing the curious admixture of traits which make Mr. Rhodes the great personality of his period. Another valuable contribution is Dr. H. W. Wiley's "Man as a Machine," in which the functions of the human body are compared with mechanical process.

A Deep Mystery.

It is a mystery why women endure Backache, Headache, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Melancholy, Fainting and Dizzy Spells when thousands have proved that Electric Bitters will quickly cure such troubles. "I suffered for years with kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Phebe Cherley, of Peter son, Ia., "and a lame back pained me so I could not dress myself, but Electric Bitters wholly cured me, and, although 73 years old, I now am able to do all my housework." It overcomes Constipation, improves Appetite, gives perfect health. Only 50c at R. Blacknall & Son's Drug Store.

DR. TYREE AT CHAPEL HILL.

University Sermon by Dr. Turrentine—Two Other Items.

CHAPEL HILL, April 28.—(correspondence of the SUN)—Dr. W. C. Tyree, of Durham, filled Dr. Jones' pulpit at the Baptist church here yesterday, preaching a sermon which was heard gladly by a large audience. Dr. Tyree's theme was the winning of the world to discipleship to Christ. The sermon was forceful, thoughtful and convincing, and the Baptist of the town are glad of having had the privilege of hearing this talented preacher.

Dr. S. B. Turrentine, Methodist pastor at Greensboro, preached the University sermon for April in the chapel last night. The sermon abounded in evidence of high scholarship, and it was heard with interest and profit by an audience which filled the chapel full.

The Sunday evening meeting of the Y. M. C. A., yesterday was conducted by three students from Trinity College, Messrs. Howard, Low, and Kugimiya. All of these made talks which were much enjoyed by those present.

The next lecture in the University star course will be delivered Saturday night. Mr. Hamilton W. Mabie, of New York, is to be the lecturer on this occasion.

Items From Faith.

The big pink granite quarry at Faith has just been unionized by J. T. Wyatt & Co., and a quarry superintendent and blacksmith have arrived from Paquette, S. C., to work in the parries. Union cutters will be put to work as soon as the big granite shed is put up. The lumber is now on the ground for the sheds.

This pink granite is in great demand since Mr. George Watts, of Durham, N. C., selected this granite for his beautiful mansion at Durham. Firms in the north will use this pink granite for monumental stock. It is the only quarry of the kind known, and is very valuable, being of a beautiful rose color.

Keith's Magazine for May is a very handsome issue. It is considerable enlarged over previous numbers, containing a variety of reading matter of special interest to those who contemplate building and decorating homes. It also contains illustration of thirteen very attractive moderate cost homes, and a design for library building. The Magazine is being brought very widely to the public attention, and it certainly is deserving of a place among the best. Published by the Keith Publishing Co., of Minneapolis, and sold on all news stands, 10c. a copy; regular subscription $1 a year.

Gates says the object of the syndicate is to form a great system of railroads in the south equal to that of the Pennsylvania.

The price of beef, says the trust, will take a tumble in a month from now, owing to grass-fed cattle coming into market.

A VALUABLE MEDICINE

For Coughs and Colds in Children.
"I have not the slightest hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to all who are suffering from coughs or colds," says Chas. M. Cramer, Esq., a well known watch maker, of Colombo, Ceylon. "It has been some two years since the City Dispensary first called my attention to this valuable medicine and I have repeatedly used it and it has always been beneficial. It has cured me quickly of all chest colds. It is especially effective for children and seldom takes more than one bottle to cure them of hoarseness. I have persuaded many to try this valuable medicine, and they are all as well pleased as myself over the results." For sale by W. M. Yearby.

PRESIDENT SCOURGED.

Stinging and Caustic Allusions by the Bishop of Savannah.

SAVANNAH, Ga., April 28.—Stinging and caustic were allusions to President Roosevelt and General Miles made by Right Rev. B. J. Kelley, bishop of the Catholic diocese, in his memorial address before the confederate veterans Saturday night. His references to the president and General Miles were as follows:

"It is true that the gentleman who now happens to sit in the presidential chair at Washington has written of President Davis: 'Before Jefferson Davis took his place among arch traitors, etc., it was not unnatural that to dishonesty he should add treachery to the public. The moral difference between Benedict Arnold, on the one hand, and Aaron Burr and Jefferson Davis on the other is the difference between a politician who sells his vote for money and one who supports a bad measure to get high political position.'

"When Mr. Davis was living and a prisoner a fellow named Miles placed shackles on him in prison, though there was no necessity for it, and no one but a brute would have done it. But I have never heard that Miles after Mr. Davis' death maligned his character—that species of the venomous malice was reserved for the recreant son of a southern woman—the rough rider of republican politics, the accident of 1902, the lightning change artist of the white house, who can hobnob with the kaiser's brother and sit cheek by jowl with an Alabama negro; who can indulge in meaningless platitudes while south, on the bravery and common heritage of southern heroes and denounce them before the Grand Army as anarchists; who can profess a broad American spirit, which brands sectionalism as a crime, and laud the loyalty of our veterans of 1861-65 to the constitution and reunited country, while damning evidence of his own written word shows that he compared 'the noblest Roman of them all'—Jefferson Davis—to a Benedict Arnold.

"Jefferson Davis was a statesman, a soldier and man of high character, a senator, a cabinet officer, a president, not put in office by a bullet, but by ballot.

"Therefore Roosevelt's title to immortal fame will rest on shooting boasts and profiting by the murderous act of a reprobate who shot a man."—Special to Atlanta Constitution.

The Outlook is making a special feature of printing single-page portraits and sketches of people of immediate note. The May Magazine Number contains such portraits and sketches of Donald G. Mitchell ("Ik Marvel"), who has just past his eightieth birthday; James R. Garfield, the new Civil Service Commissioner; Frank P. Sargent, who is to be the new Immigrant Commissioner, and Henry Clay Evans, who has lately resigned the office of Commissioner of Pensions.

"A neighbor ran in with a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy when my son was suffering with severe cramps and was given up as beyond hope by my regular physician, who stands high in his profession. After administering three doses of it, my son regained consciousness and recovered entirely within twenty-four hours," says Mrs. Mary Haller, of Mt. Crawford, Va. This Remedy is for sale by W. M. Yearby.
