SATURDAY, MAY 3

ONE of the giraffes in the New York zoo has just been cured of a sore throat eight feet long.

A STREET car ran into a funeral procession in Chicago, the other day, and greatly enlarged it.

ONE of the latest brigadier generals that Teddy has made is a Bird. Still he is not the only one in the coop.

THE hardest proposition the Republicans have struck is how to keep that dinner pail full at trust prices.

NIGHT prowlers, window peepers and flower thieves are still with us. Sleep with one eye open and you may hear something drop.

TWO centuries ago, Calderon, the Spanish dramatist, foretold in fancy the transmission of messages by a method similar to the Marconi system.

PERSONS who leave horses to stand upon our streets, untied, may expect some of them to run away. When there is a smash up, or someone hurt, who is to blame?

ONE of the southern empires is named Lynch. It is now in order for some northern fire-eating news paper to yell out that another outrage has been committed in this part of the country.

ON the calendars of both the Senate and the House are bills providing for the reorganization, on a business basis, of the consular service. The commercial welfare of the nation demands their passage.

THERE are some drivers who have contracted the habit of rushing through our streets at more than a six mile gait. If this thing keeps up on Main street somebody is going to be seriously hurt one of these bright days.

SENATOR CARMACK said in the Senate: "The President is not vindictive but simply strenuous. He resembles in his habits of speech a certain Tennessean's horse of which it was said that his natural gait was running away."

IT is earnestly to be hoped that Congress will take some action towards carrying out the recommendations of the President that the forest reserves, now under the jurisdiction of the Department of the Interior, be transferred to the care of the Department of Agriculture.

THERE seems to be some likelihood that Mr. George B. Cortelyou, Secretary to the President, may be promoted to a Cabinet position. Mr. Cortelyou has won his promotion from the position of stenographer in one of the departments by the sheer force of his personal ability and industry.

GENERAL FUNSTON should take to heart the statement of the army officer who when asked for an interview said: "You ask me to talk in the hope that I may be indiscreet and consequently interesting; but I am not going to be indiscreet and therefore there is no reason why I should say anything."

THE late J. Stirling Morton will be chiefly remembered as the bitter opponent of the free seed distribution. Mr. Morton took the extraordinary ground that Congressmen should secure re-election by their own merits rather than by the distribution of garden seeds at the expense of the government.

Many a backslider never slid very forward.—Moody.

LIFE TOO SHORT.
Life is too short, many years too short, to bear malice, cherish envy or fatten a grudge. Don't pout. Don't sulk. Don't let the sun go down on your anger. Shallow is the pot that boils easily, but much shallower is the heart that goes through life hugging to itself hate and malice against a fellowman. If one does you an injury forget it. If you are treated meanly overlook it. Life's fitful fever will too soon be over to entertain these ugly guests. How foolish to go through the few brief years of our pilgrimage hating someone, envying another, fostering the spirit of revenge against still another. Clear up the sky of your soul of all such clouds. They darken your own life far more than they do the one whom you dislike. You can't afford to have the shadows fall athwart your pathway. Be generous, aye, be noble. Forgive and forget. Return good for evil. Life is so short there is really no time in it for malice or ill-will.

GOLDEN NUGGETS.

Everything in the world but the human heart obeys God.—Moody.

The envious man's face grows sharp and his eyes big.—Spanish Proverb.

Be careful how you follow the advice of the man who never sets the example.

Many think that it is the Bible that says: "Do as the Romans do."—Moody.

A man can do more business if his head is cleared by prayer every morning.—Moody.

All true work is sacred; in all true work, were it but true hand-labor there is something of divineness. Labor, wide as the earth has it submit in heaven.—Thos. Carlyle.

Whatever forgetfulness of the past may come from faith in Christ, whatever comfort from the thought of reconciliation with God, the problem of evil is still with us.

Original Observations.

If necessity is the mother of invention, who is its father?

The new pension commissioner will have a Ware-ing time.

In heaping coals of fire on your enemy's head don't try to burn him up.

Some people give a thought to charity and that is all they give.

Never fight the devil with fire—he's used to that. Better freeze him out.

The Beef Trust cuts to the marrow of the bone and then steals the bone.

A man ought to be as good as he advises others to be, but somehow he isn't.

If you have a friend who regards you as an ideal, don't ask a favor of him.

Possession is said to be nine points of the law and it is generally all of the profits.

Faith is the live wire running from the human heart to the throne of Heaven.—Orange (Va.) Observer.

Alarmed by the disclosures in the Philippines, the republican senators will seek to excuse General Smith by revamping "red-shirt" stories and dilating the Fort Pillow affair.

Chloe—Is your husband a bread-winner? Susan—Deed, he is; he's won de prize at a dozen cakewalks.—Yonkers Statesman.

President Francis announces that the St. Louis world's fair will be postponed until 1904.

No Loss of Time.

I have sold Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for years, and would rather be out of coffee and sugar than it. I sold five bottles of it yesterday to three men that could go no farther, and they are at work again this morning.—H. R. Phelps, Plymouth, Ok.ahoma. As will be seen by the above the threshers were able to keep on with their work without losing a single day's time. You should keep a bottle of this Remedy in your home. For sale by W. M. Yearby.

"Whenever I'm inclined to lose my temper," said the philosophic man, "I just think to myself, 'Oh, there's no use getting mad.' " "So do I," replied the excitable person, "and that makes me all the madder."—Philadelphia Press.

A Deep Mystery.

It is a mystery why women endure Backache, Headache, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Melancholy, Fainting and Dizzy Spells when thousands have proved that Electric Bitters will quickly cure such troubles. "I suffered for years with kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Phebe Cherley, of Peter son, Ia., "and a lame back pained me so I could not dress myself, but Electric Bitters wholly cured me, and, although 73 years old, I now am able to do all my housework." It overcomes Constipation, improves Appetite, gives perfect health. Only 50c at R. Blacknall & Son's Drug Store.

A Destructive Tornado.

DES MOINES, Iowa, May 2.—A tornado which struck Bayard, fifty miles northwest of here last night, did heavy damage. The storm's path was a hundred yards wide, and more than a dozen houses were damaged badly. The Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul station was destroyed, and two large elevators standing alongside the Milwaukee tracks were unroofed. A man was caught by the storm and hung in a tree. He remained unconscious all night. This morning he was unable to tell what happened. Eye witnesses say the tornado occupied not over a minute in passing through the town.

An attempt at Kansas City to secure evidence against the beef combine brought out the fact that the butchers are afraid to testify against the packers.

Sciatic Rheumatism Cured After Fourteen Years of Suffering.

"I have been afflicted with sciatic rheumatism for fourteen years," says Josh E'gar, of Germantown, Cal. "I was able to be around but constantly suffer. I tried everything I could hear of and at last was told to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which I did and was immediately relieved and in a short time cured, and I am happy to say it has not since returned." Why not use this liniment and get well? It is for sale by W. M. Yearby.

"A Darwinian, are you?" said Slopy, argumentatively. "Then you don't believe we were made of dust." "I don't believe you were," replied his tailor. "Dust settles occasionally, you know."—Philadelphia Press.

Whooping Cough.

A woman who has had experience with this disease tells how to prevent any dangerous consequences from it. She says: Our three children took whooping cough last summer, our baby boy being only three months old, and owing to our giving them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, they lost none of their plumpness and came out in much better health than other children whose parents did not use this remedy. Our oldest little girl would call lustily for cough syrup between whoops.—Jessie Pinkney Hall, Springville, Ala. This Remedy is for sale by W. M. Yearby.

MISS CHILDERS SEEN.

Missing Young Woman of Lenoir Probably Deceased.

LENOIR, N. C., May 2.—The town was thoroughly alarmed yesterday morning to hear of Miss Cordie Childers' disappearance Wednesday night, she having been seen last by W. A. Fulwood, who went to the gate on the way from church with her. Her uncle was not alarmed, thinking she was spending the night with a friend of hers. The citizens first thought another Cropsey case had happened, but after searching the woods and ponds near by, heard that the young lady had reached Morganton Thursday morning, and was thought to be safe. This morning a report caused further alarm as she was last seen walking down the railroad from Morganton towards Hickory.

She has some people in the west, and it is thought by some that she has gone to them; by others she is believed to be temporarily insane. She had about $75 with her.

Fool play is still entertained, as it is not known where she is, but Fulwood is no longer under suspicion, he being of good character. The young lady is also refined and has a good education.—Raleigh Post.
