Mrs. Laura S. Webb,

HERE ARE MANY sickly women between the ages of 45 and 55, but there are very few invalids over 55 and 60 years of age. The change of life coming to a woman near her fortyfourth year, either makes her an invalid or gives her a new lease on life. Those who until I have passed the climax. I do not meet this change in ill health seldom live ten years afterward, while a woman who lays aside the active duties of womanhood in health seldom fails to live on in happiness, years after she has passed 60. This is truly a critical time.

Mrs. Laura S. Webb, of Toledo, Ohio, recognizes the change of life as a dangerous period and she also has faith in Wine of Cardui. She

POPPING THE QUESTION.

In this favored land of the free every svelorn awain has his own way of making love and popping the question, but in some foreign countries the peasantry has peculiar and traditionary ways of performing those pleasing functions. Among Hungarian gypsies cakes are used as love letters. Inside the cake is a coin, which is baked in the coal trade of Obio and the Great it. The cake is flung to the favored and arlinarily from month to tion of the cake signifies acceptance. but if it is flung back with force it signifles rejection.

AN ANECDOTE OF WHITMAN.

How the Poet Was Trying to Cheer Up a Friendless Boy.

One day I was stopped on Washington street, says J. T. Trowbridge in The Atlantic, by a friend who made this startling announcement: "Walt Whitman is in town. I have just seen him!" When I asked where, he replied: "At the stercotype foundry, just around the corner. Come along. I'll take you to him." The author of "Leaves of Grass" had loomed so large in my imagination as to seem almost superhuman, and I was filled with some rending proof sheets at a desk in a lita national anthem of her own in- watching him. The man was Whitstead of using the same air as "God man, and the proofs were those of his Save the Queen" with a slight change new edition.
