THE ORDER OF EXERCISES.

SPLENDID PROGRAM ARRANGED FOR FRIDAY.

The Occasion is the Presentation of Crosses of Honor to the Veterans.

The following will be the order of exercises upon the occasion of the presentation of crosses of honor to the Confederate Veterans on Friday afternoon by the Julian S. Carr Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy:

The Confederate Veterans assemble at the court house and at 4 o'clock march to Hotel Carolina to escort the speaker, Hon. Dan Hugh McLean to the Opera House.

The Daughters of the Confederacy assemble at 4 o'clock in the directors' room of the First National Bank.

At 4:15 the Confederate Veterans will move from the Carolina to the corner of Main and Corcoran streets, where the Julian S. Carr Chapter of Daughters of the Confederacy will form immediately behind them and then the column will proceed to the Opera House.

Arriving at the Opera House the veterans will halt and stand uncovered, and in open order, until the Daughters of the Confederacy pass into the Opera House.

Immediately after the Daughters have passed through the open column, the veterans will close up and march into the hall, where the seats in the middle aisle will be reserved for their accommodation.

All veterans who can are earnestly requested to appear in uniform.

The Durham military companies will form on Mangum street and march to the Opera House, following immediately in the rear of the veterans.

Seats in the hall will be reserved for the Board of Aldermen and the clergy.

The public is cordially invited to witness these interesting exercises.

Very respectfully,

JULIAN S. CARR, Master of Ceremonies.

Capt. J. F. Freeland will be respected and obeyed as Commander-in-Chief. JAS R. BLACKNALL, Adjutant.

MR. BURROUGHS RESIGNS

The Resignation Tendered to the Board Today.

W. H. Burroughs, superintendent of the county home and work house, tendered his resignation to the Board of County Commissioners today. At this writing the resignation had not been acted upon, we learn, but will doubtless be accepted.

Several weeks ago it was rumored that Supt. Burroughs was likely to resign, so that the news that the resignation has been tendered does not come as a surprise to many people.

Just who will be Mr. Burroughs' successor is not known yet, or when he will assume charge.

The Commissioners will likely visit the county home this week and see that everything is in good shape for turning over the management of affairs.

CHARMED DURHAMITES.

The Oxford Orphans Greeted With a Packed House.

The concert Tuesday night, in the Opera House, by the chapter of orphans from the Oxford Orphanage, was one of the most enthusiastic events of the season. Our people turned out en masse and filled the building to its utmost capacity. We do not know that these fatherless and motherless ones ever visited Durham and had a greater reception or more interest manifested in their cause.

The concert was par excellence. The best this season ever gotten up by the managers of the institution, and it is an entertainment that appeals to all classes, as well as giving the highest satisfaction in its renditions. It would be invidious to particularize, in our space, on the programme, as each child did splendidly, and great credit is due them, as well as the trainer of the class and the management. We commend this class of orphans to the entire State. They are worthy of packed houses wherever they go—not only for the cause they represent, but also for the excellency of their performance and the high character of their entertainments.

The gross receipts of the evening amounted to $192 00. A good showing for Durham.

DURHAM WON THE GAME.

Charlotte Downed in Fine Style Tuesday.

The Charlotte team was downed in fine style Tuesday afternoon by the Durham team. Everything was Charlotte's way until the sixth inning, when Durham made six runs and secured a lead that could not be overcome. The score at the end stood 6 to 4.

Morris, who was in the box for Durham, pitched a good, steady game and held Charlotte down to six hits. Bishop, Charlotte's twirler, was batted quite freely.

The batteries were: Durham, Morris and Curran; Charlotte, Bishop and Lehman.

Highly Entertained.

The Woman's Missionary Society of Main Street church, met at the residence of Mrs. J. W. Allen, yesterday afternoon, and it was a most delightful gathering.

Prof. J. F. Bivins, and three Japanese students of Trinity College—the gentlemen honorary members—were present and regaled the society with interesting talks.

After the transaction of business, Mr. Allen, the president, invited the society into the dining room and served delightful refreshments—the delicacies of the season. It was a most enjoyable meeting for the members.

Air that looks and flows like water, yet is 312 degrees below zero, and the greatest marvel of the age, will be "on tap" tonight at the Opera House.

DEATH OF THOS. BURCHAM.

PASSED AWAY AT THE WATTS HOSPITAL.

Funeral Services Thursday Afternoon at 4 O'clock at St. Philip's Church.

Sustained by the Good Spirit, the Holy Ghost, the Comforter, whose guidance he loved in this early life—having made the Lord his guide unto death, the soul of Thomas Burcham returned this morning at 5 o'clock to the God who gave it. Deceased passed away at the Watts Hospital, and was 22 years of age.

He was employed in the East Durham cotton mills and worked up to noon Monday. His disease was so rapid that only preliminary remedies could be employed,—looking to a surgical operation, which high temperature and exhaustion from fever would not admit of.

He retained his consciousness to the last moment and gave every assurance of his trust in Christ. He realized that His grace was sufficient for him in death,—and so will it be in the Day of Judgment.

In concert with his Rector, S. S. Boat, he repeated the 23rd Psalm, and the Apostle's Creed—so far as "He ascended into Heaven," when his strength failed, and peacefully he closed his eyes in death.

A devoted widowed mother, a brother and two sisters survive him. Their hearts are oppressed with grief, but comforted by the blessed assurance that Thomas' Christian life gives them, they feel that "It is well" with him.

We live in a world of shadows and can only see the effects of God's wisdom—not the wisdom itself; yet, these shadows are blessed, if to the eye of faith they portray the outlines of the wonders of the unseen world;—and these shadows have even a solace in them, if they but lead us to a firm trust in the goodness and providence of God; and in love He so adapts the effects of His wisdom to our shadows that they even give us delight by making the walk of faith so peaceful to us that we are enabled to find pleasure in tracing the operation of that Saviour, "whom having not seen we love; in whom, though now we see him not, yet believing, we rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory."

In their deep affliction and sore bereavement, we can do no better than to commend them to the same God the son and brother loved and served so well that in his dying breath he could confidently declare, "The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want."

The funeral services will be conducted by Rev. S. S. Boat, from St. Philip's church, at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, which according to the Church Calendar is Ascension Day,—the day "He ascended into Heaven." J. B. HUNTER.
