WEDNESDAY, JUNE 18.

Not a Durham candidate has yet bought an automobile to make his up-to-the-minute run.

It may sound rather peculiar, but of all the candidates for the various offices in Durham county, there is not a "single" man running.

The man who is continually telling you that life isn't worth living is the first one to send for the doctor if he has an ache or a pain.

There is more than a little truth in that definition of a "layman" as one who lays things upon his pastor which he himself ought to do.

Another old landmark in Washington has disappeared—a fence made from musket barrels. Senator Hanna is fixing up another fence.

CONNECTICUT has passed on her new constitution. Now if they would only settle that old dispute about wooden nutmegs we could breathe easier.

A horse over in Rhode Island that was struck by lightning has been cutting up queer electric capers recently. Probably imagines himself a horseless carriage.

NEARLY 700,000,000 postal cards were delivered by the postoffices of the United States last year. Think of the pleasure afforded by their perusal all along the route!

MR. CARNEGIE wanted $5,000,000 for one magazine article. Guess most of the newspapers will struggle along with a few squibs from the editor and some pick-ups by the office boy.

A FOREIGN scientist has figured it out that the judgment day is more than a billion years off. Good! That completely knocks out our local prophets, who have been figuring it too near at hand.

SOME of the papers are making much ado about the arrival of a six thousand dollar bull, apparently overlooking the fact that we have a whole drove of millionaire bulls of our own, to say nothing of the billion dollar bears.

It makes all the difference in the world what kind of a burden a man carries as to how he complains of the load. Twenty pounds of baby makes some men tired to death in less than an hour, whereas 150 pounds or more of sweetheart used to sit on their lap half the night without a murmur from the owner of the lap.

No town can grow unless its advantages and claims to public favor are exploited to outsiders. When a town, as well as a merchant, withdraws into its shell, and makes no effort to induce outside trade and permits its old business to be drawn away without an effort to recover it, it is in a fair way for burial in a Potter's Field.

But few persons are really aware of the fact that the mocking bird is found only in the south. The Mason and Dixon line is, as a rule, the north boundary line of its home. It is by far the sweetest singer of the feathered tribe. Switzerland may rejoice in the tuneful linnets; ls belle France glory in her soft throated orioles; the Mediterranean isles exult in their liquid-voiced songsters; but our dear southland exalts them all in the possession of the heaven-voiced mocking-bird.

An Indiana man claims to have discovered a process for preserving feet! Now think of that, will you! Preserving ice, which is one of the greatest "preservers" on earth. But while ice is a great preserver of other things, it is powerless to preserve itself. But the Indiana man claims to have discovered a process by which ice may be preserved indefinitely. He claims to have kept ice in solid blocks for three months, and exposed to the hot sun, without melting! But, stranger things than that have never happened yet, and so we needn't be surprised at the discovery of the Indiana man.

The race problem is again exciting much interest. The character of the intent depends much on the locality and political influence. In the north the fanatical element is much exercised over the lynching of a negro for the usual crime. These fanatics see only one side, and that the negro side. They inveigh against lynching, but fail to say a word of condemnation against the crime which provokes the lynchings. We recognize the fact that mob law is a dangerous thing, but most also recognize the fact that the bringing of a respectable woman into court to give testimony in such a case is so repugnant to every refined sentiment that we are not so ready to condemn lynchings in cases where there is no question as to the guilt of the accused.

But it is not the lynchings, or the fear of race riots that chiefly concerns us. We feel sure that in every such conflict the white man will suffer least. But the increasing frequency of these assaults excite alarm for the security and safety of our wives and daughters. We know not when the offender may be at our doors, and no reasonable foresight or precaution can make us safe. It is this phase of the question that is engaging the serious attention of our most thoughtful people, and thus far no adequate remedy has been suggested. We care little for the ravings of the northern fanatics, or of the inconsiderate negro preachers, but we are anxious for the safety of our households.

Rolling on to Glory.
No matter how the old world goes,
This is its brightest story;
For all its sorrows and its woes
It's rolling on to glory!
For every shadow that it throws,
With bitter storms controlling,
For all its friends and all its foes,
To glory still it's rolling!
And still Love's gentle way it knows,
And heeds Love's tenderest story,
And brighter every sunset glows
That marks its path to glory.

He Kept His Leg.
Twelve years ago J. W. Sullivan, of Hartford, Conn., scratched his leg with a rusty wire. Inflammation and blood poisoning set in. For two years he suffered intensely. Then the best doctors urged amputation, "but," he writes, "I used one bottle of Electric Bitters and 14 boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve and my leg was sound and well as ever." For Eruptions, Eczema, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Sores and all blood disorders Electric Bitters has no rival on earth. Try them. R. Blacknell & Son will guarantee satisfaction or refund money. Only 50 cents.

TO BE A BIG ONE.
Another Mammoth Mill to be Erected Near Greensboro.
Greensboro Record: The man, who, a score of years ago, would have predicted that this locality would have become a cotton manufacturing center would have been put down as an idiot, though just now he could appropriately be called a prophet.

It has been known for perhaps over a year that Mr. M. H. Cone, with his brother, Mr. Caesar Cone, has been laboring to establish another large mill for the manufacture of colored goods near Greensboro. He secured a number of options on lands for the purpose several months ago and recently closed with the parties.
The mill will be located a mile and a quarter northeast of the present plant, on land purchased from David Wharton, J. E. McKnight, Caesar Cone, J. Turner Tate and others. Options are still held on other tracts which very likely will be taken up soon. The mill will be the largest of its kind in the entire South and will have 60,000 spindles and 2,000 looms.

Read It in His Newspaper.
George Schaub, a well known German citizen of New Lebanon, Ohio, is a constant reader of the Dayton Volszeitung. He knows that his paper aims to advertise only the best in its columns, and when he saw Chamberlain's Pain Balm advertised therein for lame back, he did not hesitate in buying a bottle of it for his wife, who for eight weeks had suffered with the most terrible pains in her back and could get no relief. He says: "After using the Pain Balm for a few days my wife said to me, 'I feel as though born anew,' and before using the entire contents of the bottle the unbearable pains had entirely vanished and she could again take up her household duties." He is very thankful and hopes that all suffering likewise will hear of her wonderful recovery. This valuable liniment is for sale by W. M. Yearby.

CANCEROUS ULCERS

Are in many respects like other ulcers or sores, and this resemblance often proves fatal. Valuable time is lost in fruitless efforts to heal the sore with washes and salves, because the germs of Cancer that are multiplying in the blood and the new Cancer cells which are constantly developing keep up the irritation and discharge, and at last sharp shooting pains announce the approach of the eating and sloughing stage, and a hideous, sickening cancerous sore begins its destructive work.

No ulcer or sore can exist without some predisposing internal cause that has poisoned the blood, and the open discharging ulcer, or the festering sore on the lip, cheek or other part of the body will continue to spread and eat deeper into the flesh unless the blood is purified and the Cancer germs or morbid matter eliminated from the circulation.

S. S. S. cleanses the blood of all decaying effete matter. It has great antitoxic and purifying properties that soon destroy the germs and poisons and restore the blood to its natural condition. And when pure blood is carried to the ulcer or sore the healing process begins, the discharge ceases and the place heals over and new skin forms. S. S. S. is a strictly vegetable blood purifier containing no mercury or minerals of any description.

If you have an ulcer or chronic sore of any kind, write us about it, medical advice will cost you nothing. Books on Cancer and other diseases of the blood will be sent free. THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.
