A Ragging, Roaring Flood. Washed down a telegraph line which Chas. O. Ellis, of Lisbon, Ia., had to repair. "Standing waist deep in icy water," he writes, "gave me a terrible cold and cough. It grew worse daily. Finally the best doctors in Oakland, Neb., Sioux City and Omaha said I had Consumption and could not live. Then I began using Dr. King's New Discovery and was wholly cured by six bottles."

John W. Griggs' Story of the Climbing Up of Hooley. Among his other accomplishments—fishing, shooting, riding, chess and golf—John W. Griggs, former attorney general of the United States, is a story teller of an unusual and decidedly pleasant sort.

"When Terence Hooley reached America, he had 27 cents, fine muscles and a big heart full of hope. He started work in a trench in the streets and ended up as alderman. He says it's easy. "'Tis the callin' of ye that surprised me most," he told me. "Whin Oi first took up the pick, it was 'Terry, mon,' or just 'Hi, ye.' Whin Oi got to bossin' the job, it was niver worse thin 'Terence.' Whin Oi went into business an' started me saloon, it was always 'Hooley,' an' whin Oi was controllin' a vote or two the b'ys niver failed of the 'Mister.' Wance Oi was licted, it was no less thin the 'Hon'rab'le Terence Hooley' that was handed me."

"'But the best uv all was yit to cum,' he continued, laughing. 'Oi went to a bit uv a chapel the v'ry mornin' that me s'illy head with ideas of Albany. 'Tis foolish, Oi thought, but no wan guesses, Oi thought, an' Oi went in an' sot dune. Whot do yez think, now? Thot minute the little lads up in the chancel got on their feet, an' whot did they start singin' but 'Hooley, Hooley, Hooley, Lard God Almighty!' Oi put tin dollars in the plate."

A characteristic story is told of Abe Gruber, the well known New York lawyer. When he was a boy looking for something to do, he saw the sign "Boy Wanted" hanging outside of a store in New York. He picked up the sign and entered the store. The proprietor met him. "What did you bring that sign in here for?" asked the storekeeper. "You won't need it any more," said Gruber cheerfully. "I am going to take the job."

Two accidents at the Richmond miners near Dover, N. J., resulted in the death of five men and the probable fatal injured of the sixth.

My little son had an attack of whooping cough and was threatened with pneumonia; but for Chamberlain's cough Remedy we would have had a serious time of it. It also saved him from several severe attacks of croup.—H. J. Strickfaden, editor World-Herald, Fair Haven, Wash. For sale by W. M. Yearby.

Owing to the almost prohibitive price of meat, it is said on pretty good authority that horse meat is being sold at many of the small restaurants in New York city.

A CONTRAST. Of the face of a healthy woman with the face of one who is sick proves that quite often a sad face is a sick face. Many a woman has credit for a sunny disposition who would soon be sad of face and irritable of temper if she had to endure the womanly ills which many of her sex have borne for years.

"I had no health to speak of for three years. I had another baby which was the third child. My health began to fail and I found myself completely worn out. I had so many pains and aches my life was a burden to me and also to all the family. For I was nervous and cross and I could not sleep. Had four doctors come to see me but at last found I was slowly dying. The doctors said I had liver, lung and uterine trouble. I was in bed for months and when I did get up I was a sight to behold. I looked like a corpse walking about. I commenced to take Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription, Golden Medical Discovery and Pellets, and ever since then I have been a well woman. I have suffered all a woman could suffer at my monthly period until since I began the use of Dr. Pierce's medicines, but now I can say I have no pain. The dark circles around my eyes are going away and I feel better in every way. My cheeks are red and my skin is white, but before it was as yellow as saffron."

Accept no substitute for "Favorite Prescription" there is nothing just as good for weak and sick women. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are easy and pleasant to take. A most effective laxative.
