Never leave a kerosene lamp turned low. Thereby sufficient oxygen will not be drawn into the chimney to consume the carbonic acid gas, and a deadly poison will escape into the room.

The Popular Draperies.

The conspicuous poles and rings characteristic of draperies a few years ago have all but disappeared. They are now considered highly inartistic, and in country house bedrooms it is the fashion to use cottage draperies. With enameled furmiture, matting rugs and Gibson prints, Irish lace and fluffy frivolities look out of place. The popular recessed and mullioned windows of the artistic bedroom should be treated with a frilled top and straight hanging side draperies of flowered "I always recommend Chamberlain's dimity to match the frilled mantel holstery dimities copied from the old English dimities are the appropriate bedroom draperies.
