DURHAM DAILY SUN
A GREAT BATTLE.
The One Known in History as the "Victory of Victories."
The battle which is known in history as the "Victory of Victories" took place at Nehavend, in Ecbatana, and was fought between the new Moslem power in 637 and the empire of Persia, then one of the most powerful of the eastern monarchies. It was one of the most absolutely decisive battles in the history of war, and it was all the more amazing by reason of the fact that it was won by a people which twenty years before had been unknown barbarians, lost in the deserts of Arabia.
Arabian historians place the Persian loss in a single day at 100,000 men killed. This may be and probably is an exaggeration, but the fact remains that the Persian dynasty came to an end when the battle was over and that Zoroastrianism, which had been the religion of Persia for over a thousand years, was at once supplanted by Islam. Its modern representatives, as is well known, are now the Parsees of India.
The victory was so absolutely decisive that it extended the Arabian dominions over the whole of the region lying between the Caspian sea and the Indian ocean. With the exception perhaps of the battle of Tours, no single fight ever made such a difference in the after history of the world.

UNIQUE SOCIETY FORMED.
Negroes Undertake to Make Better Citizens in Georgia.
DUBLIN, Ga., Aug. 24.—The negroes living in the neighborhood of New Providence Church, a few miles from Dublin, have distinguished themselves by forming a society which for originality and uniqueness probably has no equal in the whole country.
The society is, of course, composed entirely of negroes, and has for its object the betterment of the race, the inculcation of right principle and right living in the negro, especially those who are members of the society, and the making of better citizens of those who live in the neighborhood of the headquarters of the society.
The plan of the society is to inquire into the mode of living of its members and to correct, if possible, any defects found in the character of those who belong to the society. To that end any erring brother who fails to right any wrong he has been guilty of, is, on conviction, soundly thrashed in the presence of the other members of the society.
As soon as charges are preferred against a member he is at once notified. If he corrects the evil complained of by the next regular meeting, all well and good. If he fails or refuses to correct his faults as seen by the members of the society, if not all men, he is tried by court-martial. A court is formed, evidence is taken and his guilt or innocence established. The one under charge is allowed to procure from among the members and is given every opportunity to prove his innocence. If proven guilty the punishment is always a whipping, which the erring one submits to with the best possible grace.
Since the formation of the society a few weeks ago three of the members have been found guilty of failing to prove themselves good citizens and provident husbands and have been whipped.—Atlanta Constitution.

Tough Puckakin.
Everybody knows that the early pioneers and plainsmen wore clothes of buckskin. They did it not only because cloth was hard to get, but because buckskin, although soft and comfortable, will stand great wear and tear. One may be pardoned, however, if he doubts the story of the strength of buckskin told by one of a group of old settlers, who were discussing the degeneracy of the present age.
"I was breaking sod in northern Texas," he said, "with four yoke of oxen. Something frightened them, and we started on a dead run straight for a large sycamore stump which was at least three feet in diameter.
"The plow struck it about in the center and split it wide open. I was still clinging to the handles of the plow, which went clean through the stump, dragging me after. The stump flew together again and caught me by the seat of my buckskin pants."
"What happened then?" asked one of the listeners.
"Well, sir, would you believe it? We pulled that stump out by the roots!"

Be Slow to Believe It.
There is no better test of purity and true goodness than reluctance to think evil of one's neighbor and absolute incapacity to believe an evil report about good men except upon the most trustworthy testimony. Alas, that this large and lovely charity is so rare! But it is only with those who possess this charity that men accused of sins against society have an equal chance with those accused, under the forms of law, of crime. Every man brought to trial for crime is presumed to be innocent until he is proved to be guilty, but with the world at large every man slandered is presumed to be guilty until he proves himself to be innocent, and even then it takes the liberty of doubting the testimony. Every man who rejoices in scandal thereby advertises the fact of his own unworthiness, and every man who is pained by it and refuses to be impressed by it unconsciously reveals his own purity.
An Early Organist.
A Sunday school teacher was impressing upon the little ones in her class the story of the lame beggar who was carried every day to the beautiful gate of the temple, and when the apostles Peter and John went up there they miraculously healed him. The teacher expressed sorrow for the poor man, who could do nothing but sit at the gate and beg. A little hand shot up and a small voice piped out:
"He might have got a hand organ."
The same teacher asked the little ones to repeat the golden text on one occasion when the Sunday school lesson was upon the subject of temperance. Here is the version of the text as given by one of them:
"Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging, and whosoever is deceived thereby hath everlasting life."—Lippincott's Magazine.

His Greatest Mistake.
"The mistake of my life," said the reminiscent man, "was when I was selling patent medicines in Russia. One day I attended a review of a crack regiment, and suddenly every man in the ranks began sneezing for all he was worth. In a trice I had my sample case open and was trying to sell the commissary a carload of my anti-grip pellets when he rudely informed me that the troops were only halting with delight the arrival of General Akachoochebedooki."—Judge.

Unconscious Self Criticism.
Mr. X., the subeditor, was asked to write on article on superstition and imbecility.
When the article was printed, the opening sentence was found to be as follows: "That imbecility is not on the wane, perusal of the following lines will amply demonstrate."—Courier du Centre.
Accumulating Wealth.
Could I climb to the highest place in Athens I would lift my voice and proclaim: Fellow citizens, why do ye turn and scrape every stone to gather wealth and take so little care of your children, to whom one day you must relinquish it all?—Socrates.

A NIGHTMARE
Gives point to the fact that excessive or irregular eating disturbs the digestion. Nightmare or night hag has its day time correspondence in the undue fullness after eating, with the belchings and sour or bitter rising so often experienced after too hasty or too hearty eating.
Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures dyspepsia and other diseases of the stomach and its allied organs of digestion and nutrition. When these diseases are cured, the whole body shares in the increased strength derived from food properly digested and perfectly assimilated.
"Your 'Golden Medical Discovery' and Dr. Sage's Cathart Remedy have been of great benefit to me," writes (Prof.) Pleasant A. Oliver, of Viola, Fulton Co. Ark. "Before I used the above mentioned remedies my sleep was not sound; digestion bad; a continued feeling of misery. I now feel like a new man. Any one in need of medical treatment for indigestion could do no better than to take treatment of Dr. R. V. Pierce. I know his medicines are all right in this class of diseases."
Sometimes a dealer tempted by the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines will offer the customer a substitute as being "just as good" as the "Discovery." It is better for him because it pays better, but it is not as good for you, if you want the medicine that has cured you, and which you believe will cure you.
Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cleanse the clogged system from accumulated impurities.

The most delightful section of the country in which to pass the hot summer days, is in the mountain region of the Virginias, on the line of The Chesapeake & Ohio Railway.
Besides such well known resorts as the Greenbrier White Sulphur, Virginia Hot Springs, Rockbridge Alum, Old Sweet, Sweet Chalybeate, Warm, Healing, Red Sulphur, Salt Sulphur, Hotel Intermont, Gladys's Inn, Allegheny, &c. &c. There are hundreds of country homes in the mountain regions which make the care of summer boarders a special business and where board can be obtained on most reasonable terms.
The Chesapeake & Ohio is by many hours the quickest line from Carolina points to the west.
For descriptive pamphlets of the large resorts, illustrated folders containing lists of Summer Homes, Inns, &c. address
