THE WEEKLY SUN, $1 per year.

OPENING CONCERT.

By Faculty of Conservatory of Music.

The opening concert by the faculty of the Southern Conservatory of Music will take place tonight at 8:30 o'clock.

A most interesting program has been arranged for the occasion, and will be listened to with interest and pleasure by all who attend.

Miss Bernice E. Rogers, the new director of the violin, will render some selections. This is her first public appearance in Durham.

Our people generally are cordially invited to come out. All may be assured of a thoroughly delightful evening. Be sure to be on hand promptly by 8:30 o'clock, as late comers generally disturb the performers by coming in.

Bought a Large Stock.

F. M. Moffit, buyer for the Durham Dry Goods Co., has returned from New York, where he spent several weeks buying new fall and winter goods for his firm. As a careful, painstaking buyer, this gentleman ranks as one of the very best. In a short time the shelves of the store will be overflowing with the newest, most seasonable and stylish goods.

Making Tomato Wine.

A short time ago the Sun had something to say of Dr. R. L. Holloway's eight acre tomato field, and that it was his intention to make wine from the crop. This he is now doing, and from present prospects, he expects to make $1,500 or more. Dr. Holloway has started a new industry for this part of the State, and should doubtless prove a paying one.

Judge Winston to Speak.

Judge R. W. Winston will deliver an address in West Durham tonight at 7:30 o'clock, in the hall over Blackhall's drug store. He will speak in the interest of the Durham Building and Loan Association. All who are interested in the upbuilding and advancement of the community, are cordially invited to be present.

On a Vacation.

John Kirkland, one of the carriers of the Durham postoffice, is on his vacation for a few days. He will spend most of it, if not all, here, and the Sun wishes for him a pleasant and quiet rest. John is one of the most faithful mail carriers in this city, and deserves his vacation.

An Elopement in Society.

Raleigh is on the que vive. The Morning Post tells us that a dashing young widow and a gallant young society man recently contrived to outwit their friends; ran away and were married. All parties are keeping the affair a secret as yet, but there will be a great commotion in local society when the details of the affair and the names of the principals are made public which will no doubt be soon. It is freely predicted that everyone will know all about the runaway match by the end of the week.

A Woman's Recipe.

Wilmington Star: Mrs. Coward, of New Jersey, who celebrated the 102nd anniversary of her birthday a few days ago, has discovered a recipe for longevity. It is "don't worry" but "hustle." She was left a widow many years ago, and had to hustle. There was an abandoned quarry on her little mortgaged farm, which she opened up, quarried the rock, and has been doing it ever since, not only making a comfortable living, but a respectable bank account.

Congressman Charles L. Littlefield, of Maine, announces that he will be a candidate for the speakership of the national House, in the event of Speaker Henderson persisting in his refusal to run for Congress.

A Poor Millionaire

Lately starved in London because he could not digest his food. Early use of Dr. King's New Life Pills would have saved him. They strengthen the stomach, aid digestion, promote assimilation, improve appetite. Price 25c. Money back if not satisfied. Sold by R. Blackhall & Son, druggists.

Death of an Infant.

The death of a young and tender bed in a family is always cause of deep tenderness and sympathy. Our community expresses heartfelt sympathy for Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Adcock, on the lower end of Ramseur street, in the death of their infant daughter, little Addie, which occurred this morning about 8 o'clock. She was a twin, the other one having died some time ago. She was some six or seven months of age, and was the youngest of an interesting family.

Trolley Line Stock.

It is learned that $10,000 in subscriptions of stock to the Chapel Hill and Durham trolley line has been raised in Chapel Hill. The remaining $5,000 of their part will be raised at an early date, it is thought. Work of constructing the line will probably begin early in the spring, if not sooner.

In Honor of Miss Walker.

Miss Lola Ferrell, of Winston, formerly of Durham, gave a delightful entertainment Wednesday afternoon in honor of her guest, Miss Emma Walker, of New York, at her home in the Twin City. A number of young people were present, and all enjoyed it to their heart's content.

New Advertisements.

Attention is called to the new ad. of N. S. Trakas & Co., and the hardware firm of A. E. Lloyd & Co.

You will find, also, the statement of the condition of the Morehead Banking Co., and the First National Bank. These are two of our best financial institutions and worthy of your attention.

Two Roxboro Items.

ROXBORO, N. C., Sept. 19.—(Special to the Sun).—The Democratic primaries will be held in Person county tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock, to elect delegates to the Democratic county convention, which meet on Saturday, Sept. 27th. Application will be made to the Governor for the pardon of Monroe B. Daniel, convicted at the April term of court for keeping a disorderly house and sentenced to the public roads for fourteen months.

Murderer at Large.

Jail deliveries are rife in North Carolina just now. Following upon the escape of the prisoners at Elizabeth City comes a similar affair at Trenton, in Jones county. Four prisoners gained their liberty. Among this number was Cyrus Dixon, the white man under sentence of death for the murder of W. A. Webb. Webb was a northern man who came to Jones county and married a woman to whom Dixon had been attentive. One night Webb staggered into his house and fell dead exclaiming: "Cy Dixon shot me." He had a gunshot wound in his back. Dixon was convicted but had appealed to the Supreme Court.

Answer in Runaway Case.

Raleigh Times: C. C. Thomas and Company have filed their answer to the complaint of Marcellus Green, wherein he seeks $300 damages because the horses of the defendant ran into a buggy occupied by the plaintiff's daughter and injured her.

Messrs. Manning and Foushee represent the defendant. The defense is that the harness broke while going down the hill and the horses, after throwing the driver from the wagon, ran away. The defendant claims that the company was in no way responsible and that the plaintiff's daughter by carelessness contributed to the accident.

MEET TOMORROW.

Independents Will Then Nominate a Ticket.

Tomorrow at noon the "independents" hold their mass meeting at the court house to nominate candidates for the various county offices and for the State Legislature. It is said that the Republicans, who have a date for a meeting at the Parrish Warehouse, will doubtless meet early and adjourn before the "independents" mass meeting convenes.

While the names of several have been mentioned in connection with the various offices, it is with no degree of certainty that they can be foretold at this writing.

It is thought that whoever is nominated for the Legislature will be acceptable to the Republicans, provided that the nominee agrees to support Pritchard in the event of his election.

On His Way Home.

Congressman W. W. Kitchin was in the city this afternoon returning to his home at Roxboro, after a campaigning tour in Alamance and Guilford counties. He had the largest crowd out to hear him at Burlington night before last that he has had there since his joint canvass with Settle. Last night he spoke in High Point. Tomorrow Mr. Kitchin speaks at Mt. Tirzah.

One Case Thursday.

Will Herndon was tried in the police court Thursday on the charge of assault and battery with deadly weapon. The defendant was bound over to the December term of Durham Superior Court under a bond of $25. This was the only case on the docket for the day.

A Kiss and a Bite.

In his volume, "The Kiss and Its History," Dr. Christopher Nyrop of the University of Copenhagen relates that in England in 1837 Thos. Saveland brought an action against Miss Caroline Newton, who had bitten a piece out of his nose for his having tried to kiss her by way of a joke. The defendant was acquitted, and the judge laid it down that when a man kisses a woman against her will she is fully entitled to bite his nose if she so pleases. "And eat it up, if she has a fancy that way," added a jocular barrister half aloud.

Dr. John C. Kilgo left this morning for Kenley, where he is to preach.
