FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 21.

The stiller the pond—the louder the croaker.

MR. SCHWAB is still schwabbing Europe with greenbacks.

WOMEN who have fine figures save money on winter wraps.

THE Pennsylvania Railroad corporation may not have a soul, but it has a good thinking apparatus.

WILL some one please put a little Standard Oil on John W. Gates. He screeches every time Wall Street turns him around.

THE Beef Trust is losing a lot of valuable buildings by fire. Never mind; it will get them all back again by "water."

WILL it ever be possible to make up a "Society" paper without the present amount of slush, scandal and trivialities?

MISS ELLEN TERRY will not accompany Sir Henry Irving on his forthcoming American tour. Sir Henry had better cancel the tour.

PERHAPS some day the American boy will be able to express his perfunctory joy over the Declaration of Independence without fireworks and noise.

THE United States Treasury officials struck a veritable frost recently. They discovered several instances where mineral water was being imported as ice.

WHEN the returns are all in it will be noticed that while our President cannot show the hunting score of the Kaiser, his game was shot fairly and not merely slaughtered.

THE proposal to sell a marriage license with a divorce codicil is in the direction of thrift, drift and the spirit of the age. It is always advisable to buy a return trip ticket.

MR. CARNEGIE is trying to beautify his new palace in New York, with large trees transplanted from the country. So far, however, the trees do not seem to take kindly to the change.

THE President is not the only hunter who is out for bear meat. There are some attractive baits set out in Wall Street and the howls will be loud and long. This is not a tip to buy stocks.

CONSIDERABLE excitement has been caused in vaudeville circles in New York city, by the announcement in one of the local newspapers, that somebody in one of the uptown theatres has discovered a new joke.

THE bears of the Mississippi cane brakes are either cowardly, very wise or very scarce. We advise the President to try the Maine woods where a strenuous hunter recently had an exciting ride on the back of a wounded buck.

IT is easier to learn Chinese than Russian and for commercial use only 3000 marks of their curious writing need be learned. To speak the language is another matter, however, as there is an infinite variety of dialects to be mastered.

BISHOP POTTER may not be able to please the aesthetic taste of Duluth in lecturing, but the people of that advance post of learning will admit that he is at least honest—he returned the money when they thought he had not delivered the goods.

THE Bazaar—which will close tomorrow night—is worthy of the patronage of all good people. It is a charming place for a good meal, to purchase something valuable and also amusing, and a scene of beauty where to meet your friends. Let all who can attend while the gaily and good things are going.

CIVILIZATION and surroundings fail to destroy certain primal passions. Here in Rochester, N. Y., a center of civilization and law and order, we have the instance of a married woman who deliberately hunted and stabbed to death a single woman of whom she was jealous. No story of ancient times or barbarous lands is more tragic or vibrates more strongly with lawless justice or savage vindictiveness.

Death of W. R. Gales. Raleigh Post: We were shocked last night to hear of the death of Mr. Weston R. Gales, which occurred at his home at Montreat, near Black Mountain, at 7 p. m. A very large circle of friends and relatives in this his native city, are sorely grieved at the sad and unexpected news, while many thousands throughout the country who have enjoyed his ministrations as a worker in the Master's vineyard will feel the loss as keenly.

In evangelical work, to which he has earnestly and effectively devoted his labors, Mr. Gales had won for himself the affectionate esteem of all with whom his efforts brought him in contact. The Christian church loses an earnest and devoted disciple. Our sympathies go out to his widow, family and friends in their bereavement.

STATE NEWS.

Lexington Dispatch: Not over fifteen negroes registered in Davidson county and less than half of these voted.

Gastonia Gazette: More wheat than usual is sown this season and the farmers are happy to see it growing and looking so well.

Wilkesboro Chronicle: The Forest Furniture Company shipped a car load of furniture to New York Saturday. It was the first shipment and the company now has something like six months' orders ahead.

Clarkton Express: Mr. T. J. Fletcher is the champion Irish potato grower in this section. He brought us some Monday, made from the second crop, that were fine. Several of them measured 8 inches in circumference.

Fayetteville Observer: The grand jury in a body went into court today (Tuesday) and presented a true bill against E. L. Utley for the murder of T. B. Hollingsworth, night clerk of the Hotel LaFayette, at 1:15 o'clock on the morning of Oct. 25th. Between 2 and 3 o'clock in the afternoon the defendant was arraigned in court and entered the plea of not guilty to the indictment against him.

Salisbury Sun: The pump house at the Union Copper Mine was fired Tuesday morning at 4 o'clock by incendiaries and burned to the ground. There is no clue to the party or parties who burned it, but it is certain that incendiaries did the work, as there was no possibility of the fire being of an accidental character. The engines and boilers in the house were valued at about $7,000, but it is not known how badly they were damaged.

Report on State Institutions. The Board of Examiners of State Institutions Tuesday made their report to the Governor. It is a voluminous document, going exhaustively into the details of management and the needs of the various institutions. The report contains a severe criticism of the A. and M. College for the colored race at Greensboro. A wretched state of management is shown to exist there. It is recommended that the State make no further appropriation to this college. Several of the colored normal schools also come in for severe criticism at the hands of the board.

Disastrous Wrecks. Carelessness is responsible for many a railway wreck and the same cause are making human wrecks of sufferers from Throat and Lung troubles. But since the advent of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, even the worst cases can be cured and hopeless resignation is no longer necessary. Mrs. Lois Cragg, of Dorchester, Mass., is one of many whose life was saved by Dr. King's New Discovery. This great remedy is guaranteed for all Throat and Lung diseases by R. Blackall & Son, Druggists. Price 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottles free.

In a Few Words

Judging from the reports as to how the Mississippi bruin dodged the dogs and fooled the hunters he is no slouch.

It is said that in Wall street in the furries last week a thousand men had losses aggregating $87,000,000, but they acquired some experience.

The census man says suicide is greatly on the increase among married men. But the divorce route out of it seems so much simpler and cheaper.

Treasury reports show a falling off of $81,000,000 in the exports of food stuffs for the past ten months compared with the corresponding ten months of last year.

A New Jersey man has a big alligator which will eat out of the same dish with the house cat without harming the cat. But maybe it is prejudiced against cats.

A Massachusetts burglar blew a $1,000 safe to pieces only to find $7.93 on the inside. It would have paid the owner of the safe to have hung the $7.93 on the outside.

Some of the New York papers say that apples are abundant, but barrels cost so much that growers can't afford to ship their apples to market and are letting them rot in the orchards. Here is a chance for some genius to invent a cheap substitute for the barrel.

"So many pictures of me have been printed," said Roland B. Molineux the other day, "that I can't get into a street car or be subjected to the gaze of a street crowd for five minutes without being recognized." He ought to start a patent medicine and put it to good account.

ONE CENT FROM J. P. MORGAN.

Young Woman Says She Wrote to Him For It.

GRAND RAPIDS, NOV. 19.—The Women's League of the Congregational Church of Flint held an "experience social" Saturday night, at which various members of the league told how they had earned $1 to be used in the work of the society.

The most unique experience was furnished by a certain young woman who had earned 99 cents of her $1 by her own efforts, and stopped there. In her dire extremity she wrote to J. Pierpont Morgan for the other cent necessary to make up her contribution. In due time there came a courteous note from Mr. Morgan inclosing the contribution asked for, and containing the assurance that if the Women's League of Flint ever needed to be helped out of a tight place again he might be counted on to come to the rescue.

Cancerous Ulcers

At first have nothing about them to indicate their true nature. They look like ordinary sores and are usually treated as such, some simple salve, wash or powder being used in the hope of drying them up and stopping the discharge; but while the place may temporarily scab over, it again inflames and festers, becoming as bad or worse than ever. After awhile the deadly poison begins to eat into the surrounding flesh and the sore spreads with frightful rapidity. Then the sharp shooting pains, which distinguish the cancerous from the common ulcer, are felt, and the unfortunate patient is brought face to face with the most dreaded of all maladies, a cancerous ulcer.

Whenever an ulcer of any kind is slow in healing it should be closely watched, particularly if there is an inherited predisposition to cancer. Often times a malignant, stubborn ulcer starts from a boil, wart, mole, bruise, blister or pimple, for when the blood is tainted and the germs and seeds of cancer are implanted in the system, you cannot tell when nor where the deadly poison is going to break out. S. S. S. cures these cancerous ulcers and chronic sores, by driving out of the system all the morbid and unhealthy matter that keeps the ulcer irritated and discharging. It purifies and strengthens the blood, enabling it to throw off the germs and poisons, thus checking the further formation of cancer cells, and when all impurities have been removed from the blood and system the ulcer heals naturally and permanently.

SSS

All ulcers, even the smallest, should be looked upon with suspicion and treated promptly before they become cancerous. S. S. S. is a purely vegetable remedy, a perfect blood purifier, and an invigorating tonic. Write for our free book on Cancer. The Swift Specific Co., Atlanta, Ga.

Pay Your Taxes.

The tax payers of Durham county are urgently requested to come forward and pay their taxes for this year. The money is due and needed for school, county and road purposes, so you will please settle without delay. F. D. MARKHAM, Sheriff.

December 10 Story Book.

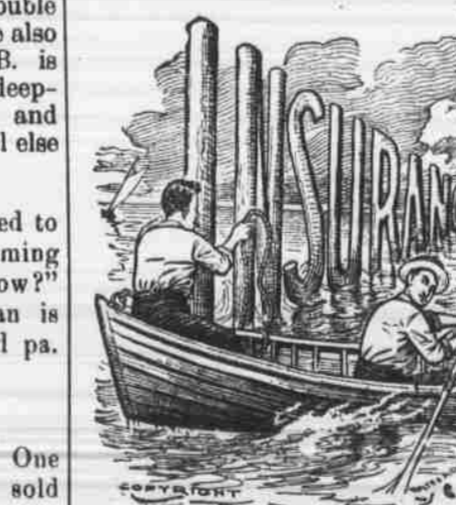

The December issue of 10 Story Book comes out under by far the most pretentious cover yet used on this magazine. The well known actress, Edna Wallace Hopper, holds the place of honor in the magazine with a story entitled "The Flower of the Morgue." There is a very clever Christmas story by Ernest Jerrold entitled "Christmas Eve in Bohemia." Mrs. George E. Pickett, widow of the Confederate officer who led the famous charge of Gettysburg, contributes a story entitled "The Last Act." Two very clever bits of comedy work are done by Hayden Carruth, under the title "Old Hank," and William A. Osborne, under the title "The Next Morning." Dorothy Dix contributes a pathetic story entitled "Her Revenge." Other stories are by Adam C. Haeselbarth and Edith Morgan Willett. In the series of Short Story Masterpieces the one selected for this issue is "The Signal Man," by Charles Dickens, one of the most effective ghost stories ever written. (Daily Story Publishing Co., 263-269 Dearborn Street, Chicago.)
