POWERS-READE.

A Brilliant Marriage to be at Mt. Tirzah.

Invitations have been issued bearing the following: Mr. and Mrs. James Robert Reade request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Effie, to Mr. Frank Poydras Powers, on the afternoon of Wednesday, the seventeenth of December, at half after four o'clock, Methodist Episcopal Church, Mt. Tirzah, near Helena, North Carolina.

Miss Reade is a grand-daughter of Rev. J. J. Lansdell, of Durham. She is one of Person county's fairest daughters, and is universally esteemed by scores of friends and acquaintances.

COUNTY MATTERS.

Mr. Biggs Elected Attorney--Other Notes of Interest.

The new Board of County Commissioners has elected J. Crawford Biggs as county attorney; J. G. Ferguson was elected as superintendent of the county home, and William Browning re-elected janitor of the court house.

The bond of S. H. Pickett, constable of Patterson township, in the sum of $500, was tendered and accepted by the board.

Ed. T. Lea, constable of Durham township, submitted his bond of $500, which was accepted.

Dr. N. M. Johnson, superintendent of health, and J. G. Ferguson, superintendent of the county home, made their regular monthly reports, which were received and ordered filed.

Before the board adjourns for the month the bonds of the various county officers will be acted upon.

Everything First Class.

By reference to an advertisement in this paper, it will be seen that T. J. W. Brown has opened a bowling alley in the basement of the new Smith and Farthing building, on West Main street.

A SUN reporter visited Mr. Brown's place of business today and was surprised to find such a nicely fitted up place. Everything is first class, and nothing but the best of order prevails at all times.

Attended the Funeral.

NEW BOWLING ALLEY.

I have opened up on West Main Street, in the new Smith and Farthing building, in basement, an up-to-date Stevens Regulation Bowling Alley.

I have on hand a full supply of up-to-date balls used by the Bowling Club. Also all the old and new games conducted by the bowling rules, such as ten pins with the head out, cocked hats and cocked hats with the feather, nine plus full frame, nine plus single frame, give back, four back, seven up and a number of other games.

Bowling is very popular in the large cities, as it furnishes wonderful exercise to all parts of the body. It is very beneficial, besides it affords great sport to those seeking pleasure.

It will be operated for ladies as well as gentes. My bowling department will be reserved for ladies and their escorts, any day or night in the week, except Mondays and Saturdays, by giving notice twenty-four hours ahead. The place will be conducted in the highest order. I will appreciate the patronage of one and all.

Respectfully, T. J. W. BROWN.
