This issue will be the last page of advertisement of the paper of Fayetteville. Shopkeepers, the proprietors of the paper, should not fail to take advantage of this great price.

Some rare bargains in ladies' coats and hats. Here is the time to come.

Mr. J. T. Speed, a native of Randleman, on Monday morning at the age of 86 years, died. Death came suddenly and without pain.

Mr. Speed was a man of good character and highly esteemed citizen. He was survived by a wife and seven children, among them Messrs. N. M. and W. B. Speed of Sanford. He was also the step-father of Mrs. H. H. Hayes of this place.

Charles Plyler, who was accused at Monroe for the killing of his master in law, Carter Parks, in Union county, last June, convicted and sentenced to be electrocuted, will go to the electric chair at the penitentiary in Raeford on Friday, Jan. 20. Pending Plyler's appeal to the Supreme Court, he was brought to Lee county for safe keeping. As the Supreme Court confirmed the decision of the lower court, it was then left to Gov. Kitchin to act in the matter. A strong effort was made to have Plyler commuted, but to no avail. Arrangements have been made to have the prisoner carried back to Union county, but as the date of his execution has been set, this will hardly be done.

At the request of our many customers we have added to our stock a sample line of shoes for men, women and children, a good line of overalls and various other goods. If you want the latest fashions in any article we have, we have not got it, but if you want a good sturdy everyday shoe we have it. E. D. Nail Company.
