

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The Lee County Home Guard Company has received its hats, but the shoes, uniforms and guns have not yet arrived.

Mr. J. T. Wicker and Miss Rena Munn, both of Lemon Springs, were married by Rev. J. B. Willis at the Baptist parsonage on Wednesday of last week.

A few of the pastors of the Sandy Creek Association met in the Baptist Church at this place on March 25th and agreed to hold a monthly pastor's conference at some convenient point. The next meeting will be held in Sanford April 25th, at 10.30 a. m. All the pastors are earnestly requested to attend.

Sanford will be hostess to the club women of the Fifth Federated District on next Saturday—Reelprocity Day. The meeting will be held in the East Sanford Graded School building. Mrs. Palmer Jerman, of Raleigh, is expected to come and speak at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. There will also be speeches by other ladies. All ladies in the town are invited to hear these speeches.

When a train carrying soldiers North stopped here Saturday, we asked some of the boys if they wanted to go to France to fight the Germans. "Yes," said one, "every one of us want to go." He pointed to one hasty private and said that he had been a non-commissioned officer, but gladly consented to be reduced to ranks for the privilege of going and fighting the Hun.

Saturday afternoon about 2 o'clock a fire started in some cotton on the platform fronting Chatham street and the fire company had to be called out to extinguish the flames. Ten bales, which belonged to Mr. H. F. McPherson, were damaged. The cotton was also damaged by knocking it out of the bales and scattering it on the ground. Mr. McPherson estimates the damage at about $100, covered by insurance. It is not known how the fire originated.

While on a raid last Friday Sheriff Lassater and Police Officer Turner found where a blockade still had been in operation near the home of Josh Clark. The outfit had just been pulled out and moved. The officers destroyed some beer stands that had not been moved. While on a raid in the same neighborhood Monday Sheriff Lassater found a copper still of 25 gallons' capacity concealed in a brush pile. He thinks this was the still that he failed to get on Friday. He brought the outfit to the court house so that it can be reduced to junk.

Easter was a beautiful, clear day just enough to be pleasant out of doors. Large congregations attended services at the different churches. Some of the churches observed the day by having music appropriate to the occasion. Many of the ladies wore their new Easter hats and dresses, producing a wealth of color in the congregations. In the afternoon the roads leading out of Sanford were lined with joy riders. Easter Monday is generally observed here as a holiday. People who expected to join picnic parties were disappointed when they arose Monday morning and found it raining. The schools, many of the business houses, mills and factories were closed for the day.

Large numbers of automobiles have been carried through this place during the past week or two by dealers. The government refused to let the railroads handle them and the carriers say they could get them to go North and drive them through the country. Some of these cars were on the road a week or more. It seems that the demand for cars is greater than ever before notwithstanding the government is asking the people of the country to invest their money in Liberty bonds and war stamps and do their bit to win the war. If all the money that was spent for automobiles since the first of the year was put in Liberty bonds and war stamps it would add millions of dollars to the sum necessary to crush Germany.

Everything has about become adjusted to the new time which went into effect last Sunday. Congress passed an act changing the time one hour for the purpose of "saving daylight." People who failed to set their clocks and watches up one hour are finding themselves out of joint with everything in the community. Should you go to the station to take a train by the old time you would be sure to get left unless the train happened to be running late. The Sanford Graded Schools, the business houses, the shops, factories, mills and other industries observe the new time. Some confusion was caused at the churches last Sunday by the change. Many went earlier than usual expecting Sunday School and church services to be held by the new time. As others did not come till the time they had been accustomed to attend Sunday school and church it was decided not to make the change till next Sunday.

While driving through the section below Jonesboro and about Tramyway Sunday afternoon we noticed that the farmers had prepared much land for planting. As this is an early spring the farmers made an early start and are farther advanced with their work than is usually the case at this season. Some have planted corn and in a few days they will be planting cotton. Small grains is looking well and has taken a nice start to grow. The stand seems to be much better than it was last year. The prospects are bright for a good wheat crop in this section this year. The woods were white with dogwood blossoms and the early flowers gave color to the landscape. The young leaves are large for this season and promise to be grown before the 10th of May. The county roads are now in fine shape and the only disagreeable thing about traveling is the great amount of dust that is kicked up by automobiles. If one happens to be in front of you, have to travel in a thick cloud of dust. It floats down and settles on everything along the high way.

Volunteers Services to Red Cross Work.

E. R. Partridge, of the Carhart Overall Co., has volunteered his services in an advisory capacity to the director of the southern division Red Cross warehouse at 32 James street, it was announced at division headquarters in the Healey building Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Partridge has had years of experience in the supervision of garment cutting and other kinds of work that are in operation at the warehouse, and with his assistance it is expected that the work will proceed even more efficiently than it has up to this time.—Atlantic Constitution.

Colored Soldiers Off for Camp.

Lee county's first contingent of colored soldiers—twenty-four strong—left last Saturday for Camp Grant (Rockford), Illinois, and Camp Jackson, (Columbia), S. C., where they will begin training for the National Army.

SAVE MONEY AND YOU SAVE LIVES.

Buy

What Happens When You Spend Your Money? When you spend money, you pay for somebody's services and you pay for the material that is used to make the article you buy. If you buy things with your money that you actually need, food, clothing, or other necessities, you are spending your money in the right way. But if you buy things you do not need you are taking goods and services from our fighting forces.

What Happens When You Lend Your Money to the Government? You should buy only the things you can not do without. The money you usually spend for things you do not need should be saved. Then lend your savings to your country. The Government can use that money to get the goods and services needed to supply the Army and Navy with the food, clothing, and ammunition they must have in order to win the war.

How to Save. Save a quarter. Go to the nearest post office and buy a U. S. Thrift Stamp. Paste it onto a U. S. Thrift Card. When you've bought 16 U. S. Thrift Stamps, add 12 cents, or whatever is the increased price during the month in which you buy, and receive a War-Savings Stamp, for which you will be paid $5.00 on January 1, 1923, if you hold it until that date. This is 4 per cent interest compounded quarterly.

To Lead in War Savings Stamp Drive.

The following men have been appointed to lead the drive in the various townships of Lee county for the purpose of securing pledges to buy War Savings Stamps, the drive to end April 30th: West Sanford—Dr. F. W. McCracken and W. R. Royal. East Sanford—J. W. Cunningham and J. T. Leadwell. Jonesboro—D. W. Maddox and J. R. Rives. Pocket—J. H. Henley and W. S. Weatherspoon. Deep River—L. P. Wilkins and E. M. Jude. Cape Fear—E. R. Buchan and C. C. Cheek. Greenwood—J. J. Edwards and C. M. Reeves.

No Soldiers For Farms.

Soldiers are too urgently needed in France at the present time for the War Department to take advantage of authority granted it to give furloughs to soldiers in order that they may work on the farm during the spring and summer, is the information from the office of Adjutant General McCain. The law, which was signed by the President March 19, gives the department discretionary powers to allow soldiers to return to their homes to do farm work during the crop season this spring. The adjutant general states that the need for soldiers in France is too urgent for the department to take advantage of the authority given and gave it as his opinion that practically all soldiers now in training would be in France before August 1.

CONSERVATION TO BE INTENSIFIED

Food Administration Outlines Policy to Meet Desperate Food Situation.

Raleigh—In the face of a food situation much more critical than it had been thought could possibly come about, the United States Food Administration has issued the following new conservation message, a copy of which was wired to State Food Administrators Henry A. Papp. The statement follows:

If we are to furnish the Allies with the necessary proportion of wheat to maintain their war bread from now until the next harvest—and this is a military necessity—we must reduce our monthly consumption to 21 million bushels a month, as against our normal consumption of about 42 million bushels, or 50 per cent of our normal consumption. Reserving a margin for distribution to the army and for special cases this leaves for our general consumption approximately one and one-half bushels of wheat products weekly per person.

Many of our consumers are dependent upon baker's bread. Such bread must be durable and therefore requires a larger proportion of wheat products than cereal bread as baked in the household. Our Army and Navy require a full allowance of wheat products in our population can make greater sacrifices in the consumption of wheat products than can the poor. In addition, our population in the agricultural districts, where the other cereals are abundant, are more skilled in the preparation of breads from these other cereals than the crowded city and industrial populations.

With improved transportation we now have available a surplus of potatoes. We also have in the spring months a surplus of milk and we have ample corn and oats for human consumption. The drain on rye and barley as substitutes has already greatly exhausted the supply of these grains. To effect the needed saving of wheat we are wholly dependent upon the voluntary assistance of the American people and we ask that the following rules shall be observed:

First. Householders to use not to exceed a total of one and one-half pounds per week of wheat products per person. This means not more than one and three-fourths pounds of victory bread containing the required percentage of substitutes and not more than one-half pound of cooking flour, macaroni, crackers, pastry, pies, cakes, wheat breakfast cereals, all combined.

Second. Public eating places and clubs to observe two wheatless days per week—Monday and Wednesday—as at present; in addition there should be no wheat in the preparation of a lot of more breadstuffs, macaroni, crackers, pastry, pies, cakes, wheat breakfast cereals, containing a total of more than two ounces of wheat flour to any one guest at any one meal; no wheat products to be served unless specially ordered; public eating establishments not to buy more than six pounds of wheat products per month per guest, thus conforming with limitations requested of the householders.

Third. Retailers to sell not more than one barrel of flour to any town customer at any one time and not more than one-quarter of a barrel to any country customer at any one time and in no case to sell wheat products without the sale of an equal weight of other cereals.

Fourth. We ask the bakers and grocers to reduce the volume of victory bread sold by delivery of the three-quarters pound loaf where one pound was sold before, and corresponding proportions in other weights.

We also ask bakers not to increase the amount of their wheat flour charged, public eating establishments not to buy more than six pounds of wheat products per month per guest, thus conforming with limitations requested of the householders.

Fifth. Manufacturers using wheat products for non-food purposes should cease such uses entirely.

Sixth. There is no limit upon the use of other cereal flours and molasses, barley, buckwheat, potato flour, etc.

Many thousand families throughout the land are now using no wheat products whatever, except a very small amount for cooking purposes and are doing so in perfect health and satisfaction.

There is no reason why all of the American people who are able to contribute to their own households cannot assist perfectly well with the use of wheat products than one and a half pounds a week, and we especially urge the wheatless diet in the country to follow this additional program in order that we may provide the necessary marginal supplies for those parts of the community less able to adapt themselves to so large a proportion of substitutes.

It is our hope that all will be able to make the wheat exports that are so sorely demanded of us to maintain the civil population and soldiers of the Allies and our own Army, we propose to supplement the voluntary operation of the public by a further limitation of distribution which will be adjusted from time to time to secure as nearly equitable distribution as possible. With the arrival of next year we should be able to relax such restrictions. Until then we ask for the necessary patience, sacrifice and co-operation of the distributing trade.

Would you exchange your Electric Light for any other kind of light?

If you knew the Electric Range as well as you know your Electric Light, you would exchange the "Electrical Way" for any other kind of cooking.

You can apply as many and as good reasons for Electric Cooking as you can for preferring Electric Lighting.

You are familiar with the Electric Toaster, Grill, Chafing Dish and Percolator. These show, on a smaller scale, the cleanliness, ease, quickness and absolute heat control when cooking on the Electric Range.

Imagine a Range with no smoke, soot or fuel fumes—no blackened or discolored pots and pans to scour.

Think of being able to control the heat so nicely that your favorite recipes can be repeated just so, over and over again.

Fancy being able to get up a big dinner without all the muss, fuss and worry of old time methods.

It will be almost a revelation for you to stop at our show rooms and see what cooking on the Electric Range really means.

It's mighty interesting and instructive—and most of all, convincing. Any day or any time that suits best—come in.

They do not contain lint which has no food value. No trash or dust. You get 2000 lbs. of real roughage to the ton—1500. Sacked—easy to handle. They mix well with other forage. R. S.
