ROADS KEY TO SITUATION.

Labor Leaders Propose Preparatory Control of Railroads Consisting of the Public, Operating Management and Employees.

Organized labor came out this week with the unequivocal, formal demand that private capital be retired from the railroads. A tripartite control, composed of the public, the operating management and the employees is demanded instead.

Addressed to the American public and signed by the engineers, the firemen, the conductors, and the American Federation of Labor, a formal statement was issued announcing this proposal which was carried before Congress Wednesday.

"It marks," says the statement, "the step by which organized labor passes from demands for wage increases to demands that the system of profits in industry be overhauled."

This sentence sums up in a few words the proposal, of which there have been hints and indications, but which is now laid before the country for the first time. Everywhere in official Washington it is recognized as the most serious and far-reaching proposition the country will be called on to face.

CURE FOR SOARING PRICES.

"Characterizing the proposal as 'labor's bill' it is put forth as a remedy for the high cost of living, because are the key industry of the nation. It demands the 'genuine co-operation and partnership based on a real community of interest and participation in control,' of which President Wilson spoke to Congress, and which the statement says has been ignored by labor and the private owners of the railroads.

"We ask," it says, "that the railroads of United States be vested in the public; that those actually engaged in conducting that industry, not from Wall street but from railroad offices and yards and out on the railroad lines, shall take charge of this service for the public."

Briefly, labor's plan demands: That private capital be eliminated from the railroads.

That the private owners receive from government bonds every honest dollar that they have invested.

LEASE THE ROADS.

That the tripartite control heretofore referred to, be established, in corporations which shall lease the roads and in which the public, the operating management and labor shall be represented equally.

That the public, the operators and the wage earners share equally all revenue in excess of the guarantee to private capital, by granting to the operators and the employees one-half the savings which are expected to be made by such a perfected organization, and the public the other half as consumers, either by increasing service without adding costs or by reducing costs.

"This role originates with labor," says the statement, "because labor happens to have firm organization through which it may become articulate."

Jonesboro News Items.

Jonesboro, Aug. 6th—Rev. N. M. Watson and wife, of Chattanooga, Tenn., are visiting relatives in and around Jonesboro.

Mrs. J. L. Godfrey left Monday for Baltimore where she will purchase her fall line of millinery. She will also purchase a line of merchandise for the new firm of Hamilton & Harper.

People who are interested in Buffalo cemetery, are requested to meet there Aug. 14th to clean off the cemetery.

MAKES MEETING CLOSURE.

More Than 100 People Converted and Many Reclaimed. The Total Amount Raised, $5,000.

After being here a month Evangelist McLendon closed his campaign Sunday night with a revival breakfast congregation. The tent was not only crowded with people, but many stood on the outside while others sat in case near by to hear "Cyclone Mack" deliver his farewell sermon. The congregation was estimated at 3,000 to 4,000. He also preached to large congregations Sunday morning and afternoon. The three last sermons were among the ablest of the whole campaign, especially the one in the evening of running the race. Before Evangelist McLendon began preaching his last sermon short talks were made by Rev. W. B. Golden, of the Presbyterian church; W. B. Royal, of the Methodist church; T. E. White, of the Christian church and Walter M. Gilmore, of the Baptist church, expressing their appreciation of the great work accomplished by the evangelist and his co-workers during their month's campaign here. Resolutions which will be found below, were presented by Mr. C. L. Williams and unanimously adopted by the great congregation.

In his preliminary remarks Evangelist McLendon said, "among other things: 'Thank God, I have held a meeting in one town where the preachers have not tried to dictate to me how and what to preach to the people. They have held up my hands and encouraged me in every way possible. He said many nice things about the people among whom he had pleasantly worked for the past month. He had never been in a town where he received more courteous, kind treatment and said that with the spirit that obtains here mixed with the right kind religion would be bound to grow and prosper. The evangelist and his party made many friends among our people and they left feeling that the campaign had been a great success.

The tent was taken down, folded and shipped to Wadesboro Monday where Evangelist McLendon will begin a meeting next Sunday. He left for his home at Bennettsville, S. C., accompanied by Mrs. McLendon, who joined him here last week and had the opportunity to meet many of our people. Mr. McLendon, who is over worked, will have a few days rest before taking up his work again.

and has accomplished much good in the town and surrounding country. No religious meeting ever brought so many people together from day to day for a month anywhere in this part of the State. Nothing like it was ever witnessed by many who attended. A large number of people professed conversion and it is thought that about one hundred conversions will be made to the several churches in Sanford and this section. Hundreds of others went to the front, took the evangelist's hand and professed to reconsecrate their lives to the Lord's work.

The people of the town and community did not fail to show their appreciation of the work of Evangelist McLendon and his party when given an opportunity to give of their means for their four weeks' service here. The evangelist was given a purse of $3,350. Aside from their regular salaries, Mrs. Stedley, the Bible teacher, was presented by friends with a purse of $105 and Professor Carroll, the music director, a purse of $100. These two members of the McLendon party made a host of friends here and they took this method of showing their appreciation. The expense account amounted to $1900. The total amount raised was about $5500. Following are the resolutions adopted:

Whereas, the revival conducted in Sanford during the past four weeks has been productive of great and permanent good and brought wonderful blessings to us through a quickening of our religious feeling, understanding and love for Christ; and

Whereas, in his earnest, inspiring, eloquent, fearless, and honest preaching of the gospel of Jesus Christ, in his bringing men and women from the waste of life to a deeper love for God and stamp out and evil in our midst; Rev. E. F. McLendon has brought to, and leaves with us, a higher and larger vision of service for our Lord and Master; and

Whereas, the splendid corps of assistants in Mr. McLendon's party have ably and effectively aided in bringing this campaign for Christianity to a highly successful conclusion; and

Whereas, it is the sentiment of this farwell congregation that we express our deep appreciation, sincere thanks and gratitude to Mr. McLendon and his party for their earnest and zealous efforts in our behalf, therefore,

Be it resolved that we keenly regret the work of Mr. McLendon call him away from our community. His strong, warm-hearted, genial personality has created here ties of lasting affection with hosts of our people. We hope to have him again at some future date. In bidding him farewell and God-speed in the great work for which he has been called and anointed by the Holy Spirit, we deeply appreciate the greatest revival our community has ever known and feel profoundly grateful to him and his loyal assistants, for the magnificent re-awakening of the moral and religious forces of our community; rejoice with and all members of his party in the large numbers of men and women who have been converted and brought into closer contact with God through this revival.

That we irrevocably pledge to Mr.

SURPLUS FOOD SUPPLIES.

War Department Making Sales Through Postmaster and Rural Carriers.

According to information from Washington, the war department beginning last Thursday, will offer direct to consumers its present available supply of surplus foodstuffs, amounting to approximately 341,000,000 pounds. This surplus, consisting of canned vegetables and meats, is expected to be sold in a few days at prices representing the cost to the government plus postage.

Arrangements for the sale of the foodstuffs directed by a resolution passed by the House, were made at conferences held by Secretary Baker with postoffice department officials and Representative Kelly, of Pennsylvania, author of the resolution.

Secretary Baker at the close of the conference said a price covering the entire available surplus would be prepared at once by Assistant Secretary Crowell. This list, it was said, is sent out to each of the 54,000 postmasters of the country and every rural route carrier.

The postmasters and carriers under arrangements made at the conference, will act as government salesmen informing interested consumers of the prices and methods of sale and taking orders for the foodstuffs. Payment will be made by buyers at the time the orders are given to the postmasters and carriers, who will issue receipts which will be redeemable in cash in event of inability to fill the orders through exhaustion of the supply.

In accordance with the House resolution the foodstuffs will be distributed by parcel post and prices to be quoted at each office will represent the actual cost of the foodstuffs to government and the parcel transportation charges from the nearest war department depot having the foodstuffs in stock.

The prices quoted, officials said, would be considerably below the prevailing market prices. The amount of foodstuffs in each class has not been estimated. The House resolution, which was passed last Saturday, authorized the sale of surplus available July 8 to be approximately as follows:

Canned vegetables $28,000,000, corned beef $54,000,000, bacon $25,000,000, hashed corned beef $40,000,000, roast beef $20,500,000, and fresh frozen meats and poultry $30,000,000.

In Honor of Returned Soldiers.

A large crowd of people attended the celebration which was held at Lawrence grove, near Corinth, last Saturday afternoon in honor of the returned soldiers of lower Chatham. The address of welcome was made by Mr. Joe D. Melver. He breathed the right spirit and was from the heart. Mrs. Bagland made a talk on the work of the Red Cross. Rev. W. B. Golden, who recently returned from France where he was a chaplain in the American army, in an address, which was greatly enjoyed by all who heard it, expressed the appreciation of the soldiers for the interest manifested in them by the people while they were away fighting in the great war and their return to their own country. The soldiers did not feel that the world owed them a living because they fought for their country, but that upon their return home they went to work to support themselves. Late in the afternoon a sumptuous dinner was served by the ladies of the section. Baseball and other athletic games were indulged in by the young men. Returned soldiers gave an exhibition drill. The occasion was thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended.

Railroad Shophmen Strike.

A complete tie-up of the railroads of the country, as a result of the strike of the shophmen, is very probable, according to the representatives of organized labor. It is claimed that 250,000 railroad shop employees are already on strike and thousands are being added daily to the ranks of the strikers.

The strike is the result of a demand for increased wages and labor leaders assert that it will continue until the demand is met. A grievance committee which has been negotiating with Director General Hines of the railroad administration has been informed that the only way to meet the increased wage demand is for Congress to make a direct appropriation or to increase the freight rates. In either event Jones will pay the freight. In this State shophmen are on strike at Hamlet, Monroe, Raleigh, Wilmington, Rocky Mount and other points.

McLendon, at all times, in whatever climate he may be called, our earnest prayers and solidarity for his continued success in leading the hosts of Christianity on to a glorious victory that will crush sin, sweep the world for righteousness and forever an throne the Prince of Peace in the hearts of men.
