LOCAL BRIEFS

The General Assembly appointed Mr. J. G. Watson a member of the Board of Education of Lee county for a term of six years.

Mr. R. E. Winstead requests us to state that he will not handle tobacco here after the 15th. Most of the tobacco markets are closing for the season.

On Wednesday March 16th, at 8 o'clock a play entitled, "The Convent" by the Cool Springs public school. Admission 10 and 20 cents. The proceeds to go to the school. Public invited.

Mrs. L. M. Query, of Hamlet, brought her little daughter, Frances Yarbrough, to Sanford Tuesday and had Dr. M. L. Matthews remove her tonsils. Mrs. Query went from here to Jacksonville to visit her people.

It is stated that about 85 per cent of the tobacco planters of Moore county have signed the pledge to reduce the tobacco acreage this year. Some of the planters of Moore have joined the marketing association and the campaign to get others to join is being pushed.

Cartier Furniture Company and the Sanford Cafe have agreed to give 10 per cent of the receipts of one day's business to the Sanford baseball team if the other business houses in town will do likewise. If all the business houses in Sanford will do this no doubt enough money can be raised to pay off the indebtedness against the team.

Since the March wind has dried out the roads of Lee county they are now in better shape. Superintendent Carter and his force of hands are now busy repairing and patching up the roads where needed. In places where the roads are badly broken they are putting on a new coat of gravel. They expect to push the work until the roads are put in good shape. The cost of repairing the roads is not so great as it has been for the past few years as labor is much cheaper.

Mrs. Nellie Cameron died at her home near Swan Station last Saturday at the advanced age of 83 years. The funeral was held at St. Andrew's on Sunday and was conducted by Rev. W. S. Golden. Mrs. Cameron was a widow, her husband having died several years ago. She is survived by several children. Mrs. Cameron was for many years a member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church. She was a woman of a fine Christian character and is called to her reward after a long and well spent life.

Since The Express published an article last week relative to the Farm Loan Bank Act, and the action of the Supreme Court in declaring the act unconstitutional, some 25 farmers have called on Mr. D. E. Teague, attorney for the Lee County Farm Loan Association, to make inquiry about securing loans. The farmers of this section are greatly interested in this matter and many of them will secure loans just as soon as the funds are available. Applications for loans will be given attention as soon as funds from the sale of bonds are turned into the Federal Farm Loan Bank.

A small but appreciative audience attended the dramatic and musical recital given under the auspices of the Mothers' Club at the East Sanford school building Tuesday evening by Mrs. Fisher Makepeace and the Misses Doles. Mrs. Makepeace's singing was very much enjoyed by those present, as was the piano playing of Miss Beal Doles and the readings of Miss Lady Corinne Doles. Every piece of the program called for an encore. Had the people of the town and community known what a high class entertainment these ladies had in store for them they would have filled the house.

Missionary Pageant at Presbyterian Church. Next Sunday night at the Presbyterian church a pageant will be given to which the public is cordially invited.

Miss Vera Wooten will represent America, to whom will come all nations, with their plea for Christ. Miss Alice Ingram will represent Armenia, Miss Emma Grace Donnel a Hindu girl, Miss Ruth Manning an Indian, Miss Myrtle McAnley a Syrian, Miss Mary McAnley a Jewess, Miss Mary Carrington a Polish girl, Miss Gertrude Carrington a Japanese, Miss Ellen McKernan a Korean, Miss Kate McKernan a Mountain girl, Miss Elizabeth McIntosh an Hungarian, Miss Margaret Wicker a Chinese, Miss Margaret Judd an Italian, Miss Evelyn Wicker a Persian. Miss Katherine Monroe will present various flags, and little David Teague and Miss Elizabeth Seawell will also have important parts.

There will be no special collection taken; the object is to show the need of our alien neighbors for Christ. Very attractive costumes have been secured. A beautiful spectacle is expected.

Farmers' Union to Hold Meeting Saturday, March 12th.

The Farmers' Union will meet at the City Hall Saturday, March 12th at 10 a. m. All members are urged to come to this meeting as a very important question is to come up: "Will it pay the farmers of Lee county to buy fertilizer at present prices?" Some say yes; others, no. Come to this meeting and let's have a vote on this very important question.

The "Movie Star" Business Has Been Overdone; Its Day Has Passed.

By J. STUART BLACKTON, Pioneer Producer.

While the services of famous actors and actresses, of both the so-called legitimate stage and the silent drama, will always be in demand, the time has passed when photoplays will be generally written, produced and directed simply to exploit the special charms and accomplishments of some particular person. That sort of thing has been much overdone by producers in the past, and as a consequence the productions have suffered. The great motion picture-going public has come to resent this policy on the part of the producers, and it is the taste of this public that producers must please.

The films of the future will be made from scenarios, either specially written for the picture or adapted from stories and novels of the world's greatest writers. The productions will not necessarily be extravagant, but must be faithful to real life, and the direction of the pictures will not permit the star to carry off all the honors.

I do not feel that it is yet time to write, or even begin to write, anything like a history of the motion picture business. I believe that the photodrama of the present and of the future will play an all-important part in shaping the destinies of the world.
